

The Descendants of Thomas and John Robblee,
Loyalists from New York Who Settled in Nova Scotia.
Possible Sons of Andrew Rublier

November 2012

This report is based on collaboration between Bob Robblee of Alberta, Canada and Cindy Walcott of Vermont, USA. In the course of the last 25 or more years, the two have worked on assembling complete information on the descendants of several men of the surname Rublier or Rublear, who lived in Huntington, Long Island, Suffolk Co., NY in the late 1720s and 1730s. We know that there were two men, Andrew and William, who were having children in Huntington during that period. We assume, probably safely, that they were brothers. Unfortunately, the births recorded at the Huntington Church do not give the parents of the children being baptized. We are left to speculate which children belonged to which couple. Reasonable people can, and do disagree about this.

We know that Thomas and John were Loyalists. William and Reuben were Patriots. Based on this difference of political persuasion, where each man settled in adulthood, and on the dates of baptism, Bob and I theorize that Thomas and John were brothers, sons of Andrew. And that William and Reuben – both of whom settled in Lanesborough, MA – were also brothers, son of William. We are open to finding new evidence that disproves this theory!

As of now, we really don't know the identity of the parents of Andrew and William Rublier. It is tempting to conclude that they were the descendants of Joris Janszen Rapalje and his wife Catalynje Trico. This Huguenot couple was married in 1624 in Amsterdam. They came to New Amsterdam, where their first daughter Sarah was born in Albany, also in 1624. Sometime in the next several years, they settled in New Amsterdam, and had a farm at the Wallabout in Brooklyn. This connection has appeared in print several times. However, it cannot be proven.

Bob speculates that the Rublier family may have been from the Channel Islands, with the surname Robilliard. More research is needed! We hope that as more original sources become available on the internet, we will find our missing link.

Bob and Cindy began their genealogical research separately. With the advent of the internet, Bob became aware that Cindy was working on the same puzzle. One day, in the early 1990s, he called Cindy at her home in Grand Isle to compare notes. Since that time, the two have shared notes and discoveries over time. Bob continued to specialize in the Robblee family, the spelling adopted by the Loyalist family. (Note, however, that some more recent generations used the spelling Roblee.) Cindy specialized in the families who stayed in the US, who used the spelling Robblee, Roblee and, in her own family, Rublee. (Note: there are other variations not who may be related, such as Roblyer.) The spelling Robblee dropped out of use by the descendants of Reuben Robblee by the mid-1800s. Cindy has prepared a report on the descendants of William Robblee, which is also available on the Roblee site, with a version date of February 2011.

In December 2011, Bob sent Cindy an updated gedcom file. For various reasons, the files did not contain source citations. Over the next several months, Cindy worked on verifying connections, and adding source citations. In some cases, Cindy came to different conclusion than Bob had previously. This report reflects Cindy's conclusions. For this reason, we ask our cousins to compare to their own files, and let us know what needs to be corrected!

We would like to thank Doug Detling, who for many years has acted as listmaster for the Roblee listserv on Rootsweb. Doug also maintains our Roblee website, and more recently a blog. We would especially like to think our cousins, near and far, who contributed to our knowledge, asked good questions, challenged our previous assumptions. We have lost some of our cousins who have become dear to us, even those we never met in person. Their contributions live on.

Please note that information on two more generations is available, but to respect the privacy of the living, has not been included. Also, anyone assumed to be living (that is, does not have a date of death) who is less than 100 years of age, has his or her name given, but not personal details.

Generation One

1. Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier, b. est 1709 (son of _____ Rublier). Brush (1982, page 17) says Johannah probably married Andrew Rublier. Andrew was a widower when he married Abigail Hawkins. He married (1) Johannah "Hannah" Brush, 20 Jul 1730 in Huntington First Church, Huntington, NY,<sup>1,2</sup> b. abt 1708,<sup>3</sup> (daughter of Richard Brush and Deborah Jarvis or Wood), d. bef 30 Jul 1733. He married (2) Abigail Hawkins, 30 Jul 1733 in Huntington, Long Island, NY.<sup>2</sup>

Children by Abigail Hawkins:

In October of 1765, Thomas Robblee and his brother John Robblee acquired 150 acres of land in the Nine Partner's Patent in Charlotte Precinct of New York. When New York was evacuated by the British in 1783, the two brothers went to Nova Scotia where they were given land in lieu of their confiscated land in Dutchess County. Thomas and Mary (Allen) Robblee had no children. (manuscript in possession of Mike Robblee).

Thomas Robblee is listed as a resident of Granville, NS about 1784, owning 3 slaves (Collections of the Nova Scotia Historical Society, Vol. 10, p. 24).

Thomas' headstone in the cemetery at Karsdale Baptist Church in Granville, NS reads as follows: To the Memory of Thomas Robblee, who departed this life Sept 4, 1796, Aged 61 years and 4 months. The grave has eloquence, its lectures teach, in silence louder than divines can teach, hear what it says, ye sons of Folly, hear, it speaks to you, lend an attentive ear.

His will, dated 9 Jul 1791, reads as follows:

In the name of God, Amen, I, Thomas Robblee of Granville, in the County of Annapolis, and in the province of Nova Scotia, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do make and order that my last will and testament in the following: First and principally, I resign my soul to God, Almighty and hope for salvation through the merits of my Redeemer, Jesus Christ. I desire to be interred at the direction of my Executors, hereinafter named.

As to my temporal estate, I dispose thereof as follows: I name my wife, Mary Robblee and Francis Mills of Granville, Executors of my last will and testament. I give and bequeath unto each of the children of my friend, Mr. Robert Mills, five pounds lawful money of Nova Scotia. I give unto the godchild of my wife, Elizabeth Fretz, two cows and six sheep, likewise a bedstead, curtain and bedding. I will that said cows and sheep shall be put out eighteen months after my decease, for the benefit of the child, according to the custom of the country which said stock shall be under the direction of my said executors or the survivor thereof until the said child shall arrive at the age of eighteen years. I give and bequeath to Thomas Robblee, the son of my dear brother John Robblee, all of my real estate at the decease of my dear wife, together with the stock and farming utensils that may be remaining, and in the case of the Said Thomas Robblee without issue, I will and bequeath the said real estate to his brother William. I give all my real and personal property to my loving wife during her natural life, the personal estate to be at her own disposal, and lastly, I will that what money remaining at her decease to be equally divided amongst the children of my said brother John Robblee.

In witness whereof, I have, hereunto, set my hand and seal at Granville, the Ninth day of June in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety One.

ROBBLEE, THOMAS A012/109/262, A013/15/225

Of Charlotte, Dutchess County, New York. Joined the Royal Army in 1777, and subsequently indicted for treason; Robblee's property was confiscated and sold. He moved to Nova Scotia before the end of the war, and estimated his loss at £1,120 sterling. He was awarded £500 sterling.

The notice of Thomas' estate listed his wife Mary as the executor. She is not buried with Thomas. Bob Robblee states that twice he has come across a record of a Mary Robblee? marrying a George Randall, b 28 Aug 1785 in Aylesford. He married Mary Allen, aft 29 Aug 1765 in New York,<sup>6</sup> d. aft 4 Sep 1796 in Granville, Annapolis Co., NS?

+ 3 ii. John Robblee b. bef 9 Mar 1739/40.

Generation Two

3. John<sup>2</sup> Robblee (Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. bef 9 Mar 1739/40 in Huntington, Long Island, NY,<sup>2</sup> baptized 9 Mar 1739/40 in Huntington First Church,<sup>2</sup> d. 29 Jan 1810 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada,<sup>4</sup> buried in Old Dotten Cem., N. Wallace, NS. John Robblee bought land in the Nine Partner's Patent in October of 1765, with his brother Thomas. After a couple of years, he released his share of the property to Thomas, and went to live on land he had purchased in Dutchess County from Indians. He later returned to Nine Partners. Presumably, this is the John Rubelee who was chosen fence viewer in the Crum Elbow Precinct of Dutchess Co., NY on 6 Apr 1773 (Source: Roosevelt, Franklin D., ed. Records of the Crum Elbow Precinct. Dutchess County Historical Society 1738-1761. Collections of the Dutchess County Historical Society, Vol VII, 1940)

The two brothers were Loyalists, and were forced from their lands. They served in the British army during the Revolution. In 1783, they left New York for Nova Scotia, where they were given land in compensation for lands confiscated.

"By family tradition, the Robblees are of Scotch origin, but more probably the name is an Anglified form of the German Rapalye. (Sabine mentions several prominent Loyalists of New York named Rapalje and Rapelje. ED.) This name when spoken sounds to English ears very like Rabbalee, from which the transition to Robblee is easy. JOHN ROBBLEE came with other Loyalists to Clements, where so many of Dutch and German extraction settled, bringing with him his eldest son, Thomas. Before 1800 the latter was in Granville, on a farm which comprised the most interesting spot, historically, in the Dominion, perhaps on the continent the site of Demonts' first fort and settlement, and of the Scotch settlers of 1621-1630 ; and when he took possession the outlines of the old Scotch works were plainly visible. A dwelling house, built twenty to thirty years ago, stands on the very spot where Champlain's map of 1605 shows the bakery stood. In digging the cellar, a bar of iron, such as would be used to support the arch of an oven, several cannon-balls and shells, and fire-bricks of foreign make were unearthed. John's sons, William and Joseph, went to New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and founded families in those provinces. THOMAS ROBBLEE, son of Joseph, adopted by his uncle Thomas, who had no children, was born 1774, died 1854, married 1798, Hannah Delap, born 1780, died 1877." (History of the County of Annapolis, 1897, page 582)

In 1999, Bob Robblee said the following on the Roblee listserv: "Suprisingly, one of the best collections of Loyalist Records is housed in the New York Library. I'm not familiar with which exact building in which this is housed, but I have seen documents taken from that source. The Memorials, as they were called, or Petitions to the King, of John and Thomas Robblee, for the lands they had lost were found there by a previous researcher, now passed on, Pearl Anderson Donnan, whose Mother was Atlanta Grace Robblee, from Annapolis, Nova Scotia. John Robblee, I believe, served in the Weschester Loyalists under Col. Delancey. Two reasons for this; John settled with the rest of that group in the Ramsheq Valley near Wallace, Nova Scotia and Col. Delancey was present when John Robblee re-filed from St. John, now New Brunswick, in 1786. The first bit of information is from a book, The King's Loyal Americans, written in 1950 and the second reference was information sent via Bill Tufts, who specializes in finding NY State Loyalists".

ROBBLEE, JOHN A012/123/321, A012/109/262 (I can't remember what these numbers meant) Of New York. A native of Long Island, Robblee was living at Nine Partners in Dutchess County when the war began. He had a farm there consisting of 90 acres, mostly cultivated, and a 450 acre tract in Dutchess County, 40 acres of which were improved. Robblee moved to New York in 1777, and worked as a labourer there until he joined Colonel De Lancey in May 1780. He settled afterwards at Wallace, Nova Scotia, and estimated his loss at British £321 sterling. He received £212 sterling.

Generation Three

4. Joseph<sup>3</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. abt 1768 in NY?, d. bet 25 Apr 1828 - 13 Jan 1830 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada. Bob Robblee has a copy of his will, transcribed as follows:

In the name of God, Amen, I, Joseph Roblee of Tryon River, Prince Edward Island, Farmer, considering the uncertainty of this transitory life, and being at present, sick in body and in ill health, but at the same time of sound mind and memory, thanks be rendered to the Almighty God for the same, Do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, whereby I dispose of all my property, both real and personal, wherewith it has pleased the Almighty in his providence to bless me in manner and form following, that is to say. First, I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it and my body to the earth from whence it came, in hopes of a joyful resurrection through Jesus Christ, my redeemer.

Item. I direct that my funeral expenses, all my just debts and the Charges of the probate of this, my Will, be paid and discharged out of my personal Estate.

Item. To my son, Thomas Roblee, on his attaining the age of twenty one years, I give and bequest all my Leasehold Interest of, in, and upon Fifty Acres of land, being tract or parcel of the Farm which, I, at present Occupy and enjoy situate and being in Tryon River aforesaid and is part of parcel of Lot in Township Number Twenty Eight, commencing at the corner of the Charlottetown Road and to run due East extending along the said road 52 chain and 63 links, thence due North 9 chains and 50 links thence due East until it strikes the Settlement Road and from thence along the said road South to the place of beginning the same, to have and to hold, the said Thomas Roblee and to his heirs.

Item. To my daughter, Susannah Roblee, I give and bequeath 2 Milch, 2 Ewe Sheep, and one bed with bedding.

Item. To my daughter, Martha Clark, I give and bequeath one shilling sterling, she having received at her marriage, portion equivalent to what is hereby bequeathed to my daughter, Susannah.

Item. For Nathaniel Clark, husband of my daughter, Martha, I give and bequeath for 3 years so much of my Marsh as shall cut and make 2 stands of hay of 1 ton each Stack or thereabout.

Item. To my beloved wife, Jane Roblee, I give and bequeath and devise all the rest residue and remainder of my property, both real and personal, wheresoever and whatsoever, to be enjoyed by her only during her natural life or so long as she shall remain my widow, and at her decease, or in case she marries again, there-in either of these cases, I make partition of my property as follows: That is to say the Whole of the marsh belonging and attached to the farm on which I reside being leasehold property, shall be divided equally amongst the whole of my male children, share and share alike, acre for acre, and with regard to the upland of the said Farm being about one hundred fifty Acres, exclusive of the Fifty acres devised to my son, Thomas, as above. I will and direct that an equal division thereof be made amongst the whole of my surviving sons, my son Thomas only excepting, to share and share alike Acre for Acre, the division lines to run North and South. And I further direct that that division on which the dwelling house and barn shall happen shall be for the portion or share of the youngest surviving son, the remaining sons to take their shares by lot, whatsoever live stock implements of husbandry and so forth that shall or may be on or belonging to the said farm to be also in like manner divided among, my son Thomas excepted. With respect to the property belonging to me at Ramsheq in the Province of Nova Scotia and which at present is involved in some difficulty and doubt, I recommend and request that prompt and decisive legal measures be adopted to rescue it from its present obscurity so as to place it on a sure and firm basis, and if the same can be done and the property realized, I order that this also be divided equally amongst my surviving sons, Thomas excepted. let the property so recovered be either real or personal, I further direct that any of the landed property, whether leasehold or freehold, to be divided as above shall be subject to the following restrictions, that is to say, if any of my sons or their heirs shall be minded or desirous of disposing of his share, after division is made, that he shall first offer the same to his elder Brother or his heirs and in case he should reuse or decline the purchase, then to the next younger Brother or to his heirs and so on through the whole of the land that he shall on no wise sell the same for a set sum than what he had proffered the same to each of his brothers or their heirs in succession as before stated.

Item. I appoint my beloved wife, Jane Roblee, together with my good friends, John Leard Senior and William Lind, both of Tryon River aforesaid to be my Executors to this my Last Will and Testament to see the same done and performed according to the true intent and meaning of the same. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty sixth day of March in the year of our Lord, One thousand eight hundred and twenty eight.

Signed Sealed pronounced _____ and _____ by the said Joseph Roblee as his Last Will and Testament in the presence

Joseph Roblee

Donald MacIntyre
George Byman

Probate granted to Jane Roblee, John Leard, and William Lind, Executrix and Executors within named on the oath of John Laing, a subscriber witness, Dated 3 June 1828.

Joseph Roblee appears to have removed to PEI about 1800, as there was no record of him being there during the census of 1798. Both his children and that of his brother, William, travelled back and forth between PEI and NS via the Northumberland Strait. He married Jane Penman,<sup>7</sup> 26 Jun 1802 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, b. 1783 in Prince Edward Island, Canada (daughter of David Penman and Jean Brown?), d. 28 Nov 1864 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.

Jane was the oldest daughter of David Penman. David Penman's will mentions his grandson David Roblee.

Children:

- + 9 i. Martha<sup>4</sup> Roblee b. 1804.
- + 10 ii. Susannah Roblee b. 1811.
- 11 iii. Thomas Roblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1812 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. aft 25 Apr 1828. There is no record of Thomas Roblee after the settling of his father's and grandfather's estates in 1832. His father Joseph's will mentioned land left to him by his father in Malagache that needed to be settled. He may well be the Thomas that married Abigail Read in NS although there seems to be 10 years spread in birth dates.
- + 12 iv. John Roblee b. abt 1813.
- + 13 v. Joseph Roblee b. abt 1816.
- 14 vi. David Roblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1820 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (prob), d. at sea, of fever. David Roblee is mentioned in the will of his grandfather, David Penman, about 1836. Where did he go? Died at Sea? One marriage witness was John Roblee. The 1891 Canadian census has a David Rubble, b 1817, Ont. at Camdem, Bothwell, Ontario.

NOTE!! BOB ROBBLEE HAS DAVID ROBLEE WHO M. SOPHIA FISHER TWICE IN HIS DATABASE - ONCE AS SON OF ISAAC AND NANCYE (PALMER) ROBBLEE AND ONCE AS SON OF JOSEPH AND JANE (PENMAN) ROBBLEE. RIGHT NOW, I HAVE NO BASIS FOR DETERMINING WHICH IS CORRECT. He married Sophia Fisher,<sup>7</sup> 4 May 1843 in PEI Marriage Book, Canada, b. est 1823.

- 15 vii. Henry Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1824 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. bef 13 July 1870 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (prob). Henry Robblee was listed as a seaman in Hutchinson's directory for PEI in 1864. His will doesn't indicate children as he leaves everything to nieces and nephews. He also mentions his brother, James, in the will"

"Know all men by these presents that I, Henry Robblee of Tryon, Prince County, Prince Edward Island, Farmer, being at present sick in body and in ill health, but at the same time of sound mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, whereby I dispose of all my property both real and personal. First, I direct that my funeral expenses and all my just debts and the charges of the Probate of this my last will and Testament be paid and discharged out of my property viz all that piece or parcel of marsh lying and being in Tryon, aforesaid usually known by the name of the Upper Marsh. Also, the horse cow sheep and pig and household furniture including the stove and farming implements as well as a note of hand of 6 pounds being noted and dated the ninth day of October, Anno Domino 1867 and given to me by Robert Potts, Medical Doctor. The said piece of marsh, horse, cows, sheep and pig and household furniture farming implements and note of hand shall be set apart for the special purpose of defraying my funeral expenses, paying my just debts and the charges of the Probate of this my last will. In case of a balance being left after all my just debts and expenses are paid then in that case the balance shall be given to my niece, Eliza Robblee, for her benefit and behoof.

Item: To my brother, James Robblee, I give and demise all my freehold interest of in and upon 19 acres of land with the buildings thereon being part or parcel of the farm which I at present occupy and enjoy, lying and being on the western side of the Tryon Road, (known as the homestead) and is part or parcel of Lot or Township number 28, that is to say: Starting from a stake fixed on the Tryon Road and running west along Robert Potts' south line until it strikes land ins the possession of John Lang, thence running south along said land until it strikes the Tryon Marsh, thence easterly along said marsh until it strikes the said Tryon Road, thence northerly along said road to the place of commencement, the same to have and to hold to the same James Robblee and to his heirs and assigns.

To my nephew, Nicolas Robblee, I give and bequeath my 12 1/2 acres of land in Tryon aforesaid lying and being in the rear or back part of the said Nicholas Robblee premises and also in the rear or back part of fifty acres of land now in the possession of the said Reuben Robblee, the above boundaries and different distances of said 12 1/2 acres of land can be seen in a plan drawn by John Clay, Land surveyor, and dated the 14th day of August, AD, 1869, the same to have and to hold to the same Nicolas Robblee, his heirs and assigns. And further that the partial claim I have of the Scow and the profits therefrom shall be divided between the said James Robblee and the said Nicholas Robblee: and the said James Robblee shall take possession of my claim and interest in the mussel mud digger.

Now it is to be understood by the executors of this my last will and Testament, that in the event of the decease of the said Nicolas Robblee and dying without an heir; than in that case I give and demise unto my nephew Joseph Robblee all the within named premises which have been bequeathed to the said Nicholas Robblee: to have and to hold to the said Joseph Robblee, his heirs and assigns.

Item: I also give and demise to Robert Leard one acre of marsh or thereabouts, situate lying and being in Tryon aforesaid and is part or parcel of Lot or Township 28 being bounded and described as follows: that is to say: Starting from the "big spring" and running by the wandering of the creek leading out from this and "big spring" until it strikes marsh in the possession of John Robblee; thence running northerly along said John Robblee's marsh until it strikes the fence bordering on the marsh: thence easterly along said fence until it strikes the said "Big Spring" or to the point of commencement, the same to have and to hold to the said Robert Leard his heirs and assigns.

I also give and demise to the said Robert Leard all my poultry for his special benefit. Item: I reserve the remaining part of my marsh situate in Tryon as aforesaid as well as the other reservation already mentioned to go towards paying my just debts and other expenses; and in case of an overfiles? or a balance left, it shall also be given to my said niece, Eliza Robblee.

Item: To my niece Eliza Robblee, I give and bequeath the sum of eighty pounds, Prince Edward Island currency as well as the interest which will be due thereon for her own personal benefit the said amount being specified and named in a note of hand held by me from Robert Potts, Medical Doctor, and dated the ninth day of October, AD, 1867. Also I give and bequeath to my said niece, Eliza Robblee all of my geese for her special benefit.

Item: I appoint my good friends, John Lang and Matthew Hood, both of Tryon aforesaid to be my Executors to this my last Will and Testament, to see the same done and performed, according to the times, intent and meaning of the same.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 13th day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Henry Robblee

Signed, sealed pronounced, published and declared by the said Henry Robblee as his last will and Testament. The words "bearing interest" being first cancelled in the presence of us.

George S. Hood
Coursrey? Mabey"

This will proved 12 July 1871 after being filed 13 July 1870. Probate was granted the executors.

He was listed as a seaman in Hutchinson's Directory for PEI in 1864. Is the Census record of 1860 for this man?

- + 16   viii. James Robblee b. abt 1824.
- + 17   ix. William Robblee b. abt 1826.

5. Lydia<sup>3</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 1771 in NY?, d. in Nova Scotia, Canada? She married John Rhindress<sup>7</sup>,<sup>7</sup> abt 1784 in Nova Scotia, Canada?, b. abt 1765 in NY?, buried in Nova Scotia, Canada?

John Rhindress was from Westchester, NY. He was a Loyalist who settled in Cumberland Co., NS in 1783. In 1827, he was living in Cumberland Co. with 7 children, 4 sons and 3 daughters, one of whom was married.

Children:

- 18 i. Isaac<sup>4</sup> Rhindress<sup>7</sup> b. 1 Mar 1785 in Nova Scotia, Canada, d. 11 Nov 1857 in Nova Scotia, Canada. He married Jane Chandler, in Nova Scotia, Canada, b. 3 Sep 1794 in Londonderry, Colchester Co., NS, Canada (daughter of Samuel Chandler and Susannah Watson), d. 20 Oct 1866 in Nova Scotia, Canada.
- 19 ii. John Rhindress<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1788 in Nova Scotia, Canada.

John Peers' father Alexander was a Loyalist from New York who settled in Nova Scotia after the Revolution.

Children:

- 21 i. Alexander<sup>4</sup> Peers<sup>7</sup> b. 1795, d. 20 Feb 1820 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada (prob),<sup>9</sup> buried in Old Dotten Cem., N. Wallace, NS.<sup>9</sup>
- 22 ii. William Peers<sup>7</sup> b. 1797, d. 27 Mar 1822 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada (prob),<sup>9</sup> buried in Old Dotten Cem., N. Wallace, NS.<sup>9</sup>
- 23 iii. Daniel Peers<sup>7</sup> b. 1800 in Nova Scotia, Canada, d. 1870. He married (1) Rebecca Pineo,<sup>7</sup> b. 1797, d. 1854 in Nova Scotia, Canada. He married (2) Phoebe Seaman,<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1804.
- 24 iv. Hannah Peers<sup>7</sup> b. 1802 in Nova Scotia, Canada, d. 1870. She married Knapp Forshner,<sup>7</sup> b. 1789 (son of Andrew Forschner and Ann Foughts), d. 12 Jun 1879 in Wallace Bay, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada.

Was Knapp's surname actually Forrester?

- 25 v. Zillah Peers<sup>7</sup> b. 1804 in Nova Scotia, Canada, d. 1880. She married Abraham Ackerly,<sup>7</sup> b. est 1801 in Nova Scotia, Canada.
- 26 vi. Olivia Roblee Peers<sup>7</sup> b. 23 Nov 1812 in Nova Scotia, Canada, d. 16 Jan 1874 in Nova Scotia, Canada. Thomas Robblee, in his will, states that he sold his share of the land from his father's estate to William Tuttle. He directs his sons to collect the mortgage on the property. She married William Tuttle,<sup>7</sup> b. 1803 in Nova Scotia, Canada (son of William Tuttle and Elizabeth Peers), d. 1865.

After the death of Joseph Robblee in 1828, land left to him by his father, John, was settled in 1832. The portion bequeathed to his brother Thomas, was sold to a William Tuttle and Thomas held the mortgage. In his will of 1849, Thomas leaves the matter to be settled by his sons. If Wm. Tuttle clears the mortgage, he is to be given clear title. Bob Robblee wonders if the records from 1832 record this mortgage or if there is a record of settlement from the 1855 era. No interest or payments had been made up to the writing of Thomas' will.

7. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Robblee (John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 23 Dec 1774 in Dutchess Co., NY (prob),<sup>10</sup> d. 3 May 1854 in Granville, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada,<sup>11</sup> buried in Stoney Beach Cem., Granville Beach, NS, Canada.<sup>11</sup>
"Married 23 Apr 1797 in Granville Township, by Rev. H. CHIPMAN, Thomas ROBBLEE, native of Nine Partners, United States, and Hannah DELAP, daughter of James DELAP". (Marriage Records of Annapolis and Digby Counties, Nova Scotia compiled by Wayne W. Walker, Ottawa, Ontario)

Thomas's uncle Thomas Robblee left his property to this Thomas, to be received after the death of the elder Thomas' wife Mary (Allen) Robblee.

"Thomas Robblee was the son of a Loyalist who was one of the original grantees of the township of Clements. His farm occupies and includes one of the most interesting historical spots in Nova Scotia, the old Scotch Fort, some outlines of which, it is said, are still traceable, although more than two and a quarter centuries old ! His family, it is believed, were of French origin,* and came to this province from New York." (History of the County of Annapolis, 1897)

The following is the text of Thomas Robblee's will:

In the name of God, Amen I Thomas Robblee of Granville, County of Annapolis and Province of Nova Scotia, Yeoman, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner following: I resign my soul to God Almighty and hope for salvation through the merits of my blessed Redeemer Jesus Christ. I desire to be interred as my Executors hereinafter, named shall direct. As to my temporal estate I shall make the following disposition. First, I order that all my just debts shall be fully paid.

I will and bequeath to my sons Thomas and Joseph, the farm on which I now live and the marsh in front belonging thereto, also the marsh in front of William McKenzie's except eight rods and a half a rod, adjoining the lower range of the marsh to be especially divided amongst them, the west half to Joseph and the east half to Thomas, their heirs and assigns. I will and bequeath to my son Thomas the Daly place, the store and wharf thereon, his heirs and assigns forever.

I will and bequeath to my son Joseph, his heirs and assigns what land of lot No. 6 has not been deeded to my son Harris, being about five rods on the west side of the Daly place from the road to the river.

I will and bequeath to my son John, his heirs and assigns the west side of lot No. 6. Also one half of marsh on the west side with the exception of one acre on the west side called Coleman marsh adjacent to the river.

I will and bequeath to my son Harris, his heirs and assigns, the east half of Lot No. 6. the lines running six rods fro the north side of the barn where it now stands, also eight rods and one half of marsh beginning on the division line between the two lines of north and continuing said widths across the lot of marsh in front of Wm. McKenzie. Also one acre of marsh adjoining the bank of the river out of the Coleman marsh, so called.

As respects my part of the property at Wallace, Nova Scotia, left me by my father, I give the same to my sons Thomas and Joseph, their heirs and assigns, provided William Tuttle to whom I sold it should fail to pay the note of twenty five pounds, eight shillings and sixpence that I held against him with interest from date August 22, 1832. In case said Tuttle pays said note with interest when called for, my sons Thomas and Joseph shall give him just claim.

I will and bequeath to my sons Thomas and Joseph, their heirs and assigns, and to be equally divided, my personal property, except the household furniture.

I will and bequeath to my son James, five shillings, also all my demands in book accounts or otherwise against him.

I will and bequeath to my daughter Sarah, forty five pounds to be paid to her by Thomas and Joseph, also to be comfortably provided with a home in homestead during her life as long as she remains single.

I will and bequeath to my daughters Ann and Susan, their heirs and assigns, to each, five pounds in cash and also a note of hand against William Henry and Reed Hall to be paid by my sons John and Harris.

John, Thomas, Harris and Joseph shall provide a good home and satisfactory support at an equal cost, for their mother where she may prefer to live. If she prefers to provide for herself, then my sons abovenamed shall pay her twenty pounds a year for her life. Provided that one or more of my sons, John, Thomas, Harris, and Joseph shall fail to pay his or their proportion of their mother's support or dower, the property of mine willed to them shall be rented to pay such demands to my wife, their mother.

I will and bequeath to my son John all my wearing apparel.

I will and bequeath to my wife, Hannah, all my household furniture to do with as she may deem proper and I nominate my son Thomas and Joseph Robblee, of Granville, Executors to this my last will and testament.

In Witness whereof, I have herein to set my hand this eighth day of November in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty nine.

In the name of God, Amen, I, Joseph Robblee of Tryon River, Prince County, Prince Edward Island, Blacksmith, considering the uncertainty of this transitory life and being at present sick in body and in ill health, but at the same time of sound mind and memory, thanks be rendered to the Almighty God for the same, do make and ordain this my last will and testament whereby I dispose of all my property both real and personal where with it has pleased Almighty God in his providence to bless me in manner following, that is to say:

First I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body to the earth from whence it came in hope of a joyful resurrection through Jesus Christ, my Redeemer.

To my son Nicholas Robblee, I give and demise all my freehold in and upon 31 1/2 acres of land which I at present occupy and enjoy, lying, situate and being in Tryon River. Aforesaid and is part or parcel of Lot 02 Township number 28 commencing at the stake fixed on the east side of the settlement road being in the northwest angle of 50 acres of land in the possession of Reuben Robblee, thence following the north back line of said land north 85 degrees 25 minutes east 51 chains or to the land the property of Henry Robblee. Hence north 4 degrees 35 minutes west 3 chains 66 links. Thence north 85 degrees 50 minutes east 14 chains and 20 links or to proposed line of road. Thence along said road north 4 degrees 10 minutes west 3 chains and 41 links or to the south east angle of the land this property of James Robblee thence south 85 degrees and 15 minutes west 14 chains and 20 links thence south 85 degrees 35 minutes west 50 chains or to the settlement road thence along said road southward to the stake at the place of commencement agreeably to a plan of division drawn by John Clay, Land Surveyor and dated the 14th day of August, 1869. I also give and bequeath to my son Nicholas Robblee all of the stock, farming implements, buildings, and belonging.

Also, I give and demise to my said son Nicholas Robblee all of the marsh situate lying and being in Tryon aforesaid and is abutted and bounded and descried as follows: that is to say: on the north by land in the possession of John Lang, on the west by the Tryon River, and the marsh belonging to Sarah Robblee, on the south by the said river and on the east by marsh the property of James Robblee, the said boundaries being given according to the plan of division drawn by John Clay, Land Surveyor and dated the 24 November, 1865. Also to have a piece or parcel of marsh situated in Tryon River, aforesaid and known as the Upper Marsh and bounded by marsh in the possession of John Lang and Robert Simmons the same to have and to hold the above mentioned land and marsh, stock, farming implements, buildings, and appurtenances thereunto belonging to the said Nicholas Robblee and to his male heirs.

Item: To my beloved wife, Ann Robblee, in order that she shall be provided for and receive a maintenance out of the products of said property, I do therefore make the following restrictions and provisions. That my said son Nicholas Robblee shall and will provide and maintain my said wife Ann Robblee out of the product of the said property and further that she shall have full control and authority in the management of affairs connected with the property and its products for and during her natural life or so long as she shall remain my widow and at her decease or in the case she marries again then in either case the said Nicolas Robblee and his heirs shall be ever free from supporting or maintaining the said Ann Robblee and further that she shall not have any further control or authority claims or demands of or from the said Nicolas Robblee or his heirs.

Item: To my son, David Penman Robblee, I give and bequeath the sum of one shilling sterling. He at this moment being absent from the Island.

Item: To my daughter, Lydia Robblee, I give and bequeath 2 ewe sheep to be given to her when demanded.

Item: To my sons, Joseph Robblee and James Reid Robblee, I give and bequeath each of them one shilling sterling. (The said amount not to be given to the same Joseph Robblee provided he takes possession of said property the provisions are here after mentioned.)

Item: To my daughters, Jane Robblee and Adelaide Robblee, I give and bequeath the sum of one shilling sterling each.

Item: To my youngest son, George Robblee, I give and bequeath the sum of one shilling sterling.

I have further to direct and request that the younger of my children shall remain with my said wife, Ann Robblee, and my son Nicholas Robblee until they are considered by the executer of this my last will and testament to be able to go to service.

Item: In the event of the decease of this within named Nicholas Robblee dying without a male heir, or if he should feel disposed at anytime hereafter to relinquish and give up the said property, then in either case I give and devise to my son Joseph Robblee the said within mentioned land and marsh, stock farming implements, buildings and appurtenances thereunto belonging the same to have and to hold to the same Joseph Robblee and to his male heirs and further that in case that my said son Joseph Robblee shall get possession of the said property, I direct that he comes under the same restrictions as the said Nicholas Robblee in regard to the support and maintenance of his said mother Ann Robblee as well as and every other case respecting the same.

Item: With respect to my blacksmith tools and shop, they shall be for the special benefit and use of those of my children who shall remain on the said property.

Item: I appoint my beloved wife Ann Robblee together with my good friends, John Lang and Warren Lord, both of Tryon River aforesaid to be my executer of this my last will and testament to see the same done and performed according to the true intent of the same.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this seventhday of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty nine.

The NB Archives has a newspaper notice of his death from consumption, which lists him as Sr. and that of his daughter, Annie.

His will was signed on 22 Sep 1877 and proved on 9 Oct 1877 in Tryon, PEI:

In the name of God, Amen, I James Robblee of Tryon in Prince County of Lot or Township 28 in the Province of Prince Edward Island, Farmer, considering the uncertainty of this transitory life and being at present sick in body and in ill health but at the same time of sound disposing mind and memory and being desirous of settling my worldly affairs and directing how the Estate with which it has pleased God to bless me should be disposed of after my decease while I have strength and capacity so to do, do make and publish this my last will and Testament.

And as to my worldly estate and all the property real personal or mixed of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease I devise bequeath and dispose of in the manner following to wit

First: My will is that all my just debts funeral expenses and the Probate of this my last will and Testament, shall by my Executors, hereinafter named, be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as shall by them be found convenient.

Second: I direct and request that my Executors hereinafter named shall as soon after my decease as possible make sale of all my property both real personal or mixed (with the exception of the household furniture) and the money so realized for the same shall be disposed of in the following manner.

Item: To my son John Henry Robblee I give and bequeath unto him, the sum of seven hundred and thirty dollars ($730) as well as the clock and all my joiners tools for his special benefit and behoof.

Also: To my daughter Ada Robblee I give and bequeath unto her the sum of fifty dollars ($50) as well as one feather bed for her special benefit.

Also: To my daughter Susan Elizabeth Robblee I give and bequeath unto her the sum of seventy dollars ($70) as well as one feather bed and the chest of drawers for her special benefit and behoof.

Also: To the remaining part of my family, viz. Sarah Jane Robblee, William Warren Robblee and Jessie Robblee, I give and bequeath unto each of them the sum of seventy ($70) for them and each of their special benefit and support.

Now: It is to be understood by my Executors that the respective legacies bequeathed to my children herein named shall be put out to interest and the interest or principal or both shall be given to them when my Executors in their wisdom shall think proper to do so.

Item: To my beloved wife, Margaret Robblee I give and bequeath unto her the balance of the money so realized for my estates (that is, after payment of my just debts, my childrens' legacies and funeral expenses) in lieu of her dower as well as on feather bed and bedding and the balance of the household furniture for her own special benefit as behoof the same both money and furniture to be given to her as soon after my decease. as my Executors shall by them be found convenient.

Lastly: I appoint my good friends John Lord and William Warren Lord both of Tryon to be my Executors to this my last will and Testament, to see the same done and performed according to the true intent and meaning of the same. In testimony whereof I the said James Robblee have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty second day of September in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy seven.

James Robblee

Signed sealed pronounced published and declared by the same James Robblee to be his last will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request, and in his presence have subscribed our names as witnesses.

John Lord
Alex Crawford"

In 1881, Margaret Shaw, age 33, born in Ontario, was living in Chesley, Bruce North, ON with Sarah Jane, William and Jessie Raplie. Her marital status was given as married, but her husband was not in the home. Presumably, this was James' second wife Margaret Currie, who had married again after James died. He married (1) Susan J. Nelder,<sup>7</sup> 17 Aug 1853 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 16 Apr 1829 in Southport, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (daughter of Nicholas Nelder and Rebecca Boyer), d. abt 1864 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, buried in Prince Edward Island, Canada?

Sister to Ann married Joseph Robblee

He married (2) Margaret Currie,<sup>7</sup> 28 Oct 1870 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 1846 in ON, d. 19 Jul 1920 in Blackfalds, Lacombe Co., AB, Canada, buried in Blackfalds, Lacombe Co., AB, Canada.

Children by Susan J. Nelder:

- + 66 i. James L. Reid<sup>5</sup> Robblee b. 16 Sep 1852.
- 67 ii. Annie Rebecca Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 1854 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 5 Oct 1877 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada. Like her father, Annie Robblee died of consumption.
- + 68 iii. Ada L. Robblee b. 1857.
- + 69 iv. John Henry Robblee b. 21 Jul 1862.
- 70 v. Susan Elizabeth Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. May 1864 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. bef 1900. She married John Dockendorff,<sup>7</sup> 5 May 1884 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. 17 Dec 1851 in Pittston, Kennebec Co., ME,<sup>21</sup> (son of Jacob Dockendorff and Harriet Popple).

John's marriage to Susan Robblee was his second. By 1900, he was a widower living in Fitchburg, MA, a boarder in the home of Angus Damkason. There were no children in the home, and I did not find children in the Massachusetts vital records.

Children by Margaret Currie:

- + 71 vi. Sarah Jane Robblee b. 1871.
- + 72 vii. William Warren Robblee b. 3 Jun 1873.

17. William<sup>4</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. abt 1826 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (prob), d. bef 19 Jul 1871 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (prob). His marriage license spells his name with one b. One of the witnesses was Thomas Roblee. In 1851, a tavern license was issued to him in Tryon.

William Robblee's will:

The last will and Testament of William Robblee of Tryon River, Prince Edward Island, knowing the uncertainty of life and not knowing but that I may depart this life during this my present illness I desire to commit the salvation of my soul to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ in the full assurance of eternal life through him.

It is my wish and desire to bestow upon my wife Thankful all my interest in the property on which I and my family are now residing; that is to say all my share of the Roblee Estate which shall be in my possession and not sold before my death to be conveyed to her in fee simple, on the following conditions that is to say to give to my son Caleb Hector one english shilling. I give to my Son Phillip Franklin Irving a debt due me on the estate of the late Henry Robblee, my Brother, an account of which has been rendered and I hereby empower my Son to collect and receive it. To give to my Son Thomas Reuben one english shilling, to my son James Fisher, one english shilling, to my son Edward Crawford, one english shilling, to my son Henry one english shilling, to my daughter Susan Baker one english shilling to my daughter Martha Jane Penman one english shilling. I also request and appoint my wife Thankful and Curtis Lord of Tryon River my executors to this my last Will and Testament.

Signed and sealed on this 26th day of April in the year of our Lord 1871, in the presence of:

His

J. Comay Mabey    William Robblee
Samuel Byman        Mark

Proved on 28 Jun 1871 and Probate completed 1 Feb. 1872. He married Thankful Fisher,<sup>7</sup> 7 Nov 1846 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. abt 1825, d. aft 1871.

Thankful's property in PEI was to be liquidated after William's death. Did she return to NS after his death?

Children:

- 74 i. Caleb Horton<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 1846 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 11 Nov 1876 in Pictou, Pictou Co., NS, Canada.<sup>22</sup> Caleb is named in his father's will on 1871. He died on the Loading Wharf. His death record mentions he was single.
- 75 ii. Thomas Reuben Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1849 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. aft 26 Apr 1871. Thomas was named in his father's will so was presumably living in 1871. Is this the Reuben Robblee who received a western land grant in Canada?

The 1870 records a T? Reuben Roblee, b ca 1845, at Dauphin, PA? Street Car Conductor in St. Louis in 1900?

A Thomas R. Roblee, age 24, was living in Gypsum Creek, McPherson Co., KS in 1870. However, his place of birth is given as Wisconsin. He is probably Thomas R. Roblee, son of William "Henry" Roblee and Jane Bigford.

- 76 iii. James Fisher Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1855 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (prob), d. aft 26 Apr 1871. James Robblee was named in his father's will of 1871.
- 77 iv. Phillip Franklin Irving Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1858 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (prob), d. aft 26 Apr 1871. Phillip was named in his father's will of 1871.

- 79 vi. Edward Crawford Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 22 Sep 1864 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>19,23</sup> baptized 12 Dec 1870 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>19</sup> d. 2 Oct 1943 in Amherst, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada,<sup>23</sup> buried in Fox Harbor Cem., N. Wallace, NS, Canada. In 1881, Edward was living in the home of Jann Potts in Prince Co., PEI. In 1911, he crossed by train into the US at McAdams Jct., NB. He was headed for New Hampshire. He was a milkman.

North Wallace- The death of Edward Crawford Robblee occurred on October 2nd at Highland View Annex, Amherst, where he had been a patient since April. He had been in poor health for over a year and was confined to his bed since March. The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Robblee, was born in Tryon, P.E.I. seventy-nine years ago. He lived in the States from the time he was a young man until 1912. He returned to Charlottetown and lived there until 1936 when he came to North Wallace to live with his nephew Will until he entered the hospital in April.

He was a staunch Liberal, and belonged to the United Church.

He leaves to mourn their loss, his nephew Will and family.

The funeral services were held in the United Church at Fox Harbour, conducted by Rev. Chas. Foote of the Presbyterian Church Wallace, assisted by Mr. McDonald of United Church, Wallace.

The text was from the 116 Psalm. The hymns sung were: "The Lord is my Shepard" "Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide with Me". The pallbearers were: Stewart McIvor, James Oxley, Thorpe Moody and Edward Leard. The undertaker, Mr. Mundle of Pugwash, had charge of the burial.

Internment was in the Fox Harbour cemetery. There were a number of beautiful floral tokens. (Amherst Daily News October 14, 1943).

- + 80 vii. Henry Robblee b. 11 May 1867.
- 81 viii. Martha Jane Penman Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 6 Jan 1870 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>19</sup> baptized 12 Dec 1870 in Prince Edward Island, Canada.<sup>19</sup> In 1881, Martha was living in the home of James Grant in Pugwash, NS. She married George Barry Robblee,<sup>7</sup> 3 Apr 1889 in Victoria, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada,<sup>23</sup> b. 15 Feb 1869 in Streets Ridge, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada,<sup>23</sup> (son of Thomas David Robblee and Abigail Jane Reed).

His birth record has his second name as Barry. Did they have family?

27. John<sup>4</sup> Robblee (Thomas<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 19 Mar 1799 in Granville, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada,<sup>24,25</sup> d. 31 Dec 1885 in Granville, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada,<sup>24,11</sup> buried in Stoney Beach Cem., Granville Beach, NS, Canada.<sup>11</sup> In 1871, John and Olivia were living in Broad Cove, Annapolis Co., NS. John and Emma were living with them, as was daughter Pamela Bogart and her 2-year-old son James K. In 1881, John and "Levia" were living with their son John H. Robblee and family in Broad Cove.

In 1851, John and Mary Robblee were living in Westmorland, NB with their children Catherine, Alonzo, William, Selina, Charles and James. Eliza was not in the home. When Mary died in Mansfield, MA, she was already a widow. I am not 100% sure, actually, that this is the right woman. She is listed as Mary A. Roblee, age 43, widow, born in Nova Scotia. No other details are given. There are no other Robblee records for Mansfield. He married Mary Ann Howatt,<sup>7</sup> 14 Apr 1830 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>31</sup> b. 1812 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 25 Apr 1856 in Mansfield, Bristol Co., MA.<sup>20</sup>

Children:

In 1881, William Francis was a widower living in Prince Co., PEI with his two children. Thirty-nine year old Elizabeth Gambel was also in the home. She was a tailoress. By 1891, William had married again. His wife was Josephine. They had a child, Parker Francis, in 1891.

Bob Robblee reports that Sharon Sergeant of Massachusetts has come across a record of a daughter of Joseph Robblee Francis marrying a Murdock Dawson. He wonders if this could be a fourth child of this family. However, this does not seem to be the case. She married William Edward Francis,<sup>7</sup> 19 Dec 1872 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 12 Jul 1846 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>29</sup> (son of George Francis and Louisa Ann Thomas), d. 17 Mar 1906 in Prince Edward Island, Canada.

In 1891, J. Wesley and Louise Robblee were living in Prince Co., PEI with their seven children: Maud, Jane, Minto, Clara, Frank, Roby and George. Bob Robblee reports that Mary married second, Tristen Wooldridge. I cannot find her in the later census under that name.

His Will:

In the name of God Amen, I Wesley Robblee of Tryon of Lot or Township Twenty-eight (28) in Prince County in the Province of Prince Edward Island, farmer, being in ill health but of sound disposing mind and memory and being desirous of settling my worldly affairs and directing how the Estate which it has pleased God to bless me, shall be disposed of after my decease while I have strength and capacity so to do, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making null and void all other last Wills and Testaments by me heretoforemade.

And as to my worldly estate and all the property, real personal or mixed of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease I devise bequeath and dispose thereof in manner following to wit:

My Will is that all my just debts and funeral expenses and the charges of the Probate of this my last Will and Testament shall by my Executors hereinafter named be paid out of my Estate as soon after my decease , as shall by them be found convenient.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son Royminto Robblee and to his male heirs on his attaining to the full age of Twenty-one years all my real Estate and personal property situate in Tryon together with all the Stock (except what is bequeathed to the other members of the family) farming implements and all the appurtenances hereunto belonging.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son Frank Robblee on his attaining the age of Twenty One Years the sum of One hundred Dollars in Cash out of the products of my said property.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son James Robey Robblee, on his attaining the age of Twenty-one Years the sum of one hundred dollars in cash, out of the products of my said property.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son George Robblee on his attaining the age of Twenty-one years, the sum of One hundred Dollars in cash out of the products of my said property.

I give and bequeath to each of my three daughters, Ella Maud Robblee, Hattie Jane Robblee and Clara May Robblee one bed and bedding, one sett of Bedroom furniture, and one cow, to be given to each of them by my said son Royminto Robblee, free of charge when my Executors shall request mys aid son Royminto Robblee so to do. Should my beloved wife Mary Louisa Robblee give birth to a child before or shortly after my decease- if a male child he shall receive on his attaining to the age of Twenty-one years the same legacy as each of my three sons / One hundred Dollars in cash out of the products of my said property. Should it be a female child, she shall receive the same as my hereinbefore named daughters- said bequest to be given to her by my said son Royminto Robblee so to do.

It is to be understood by my Executors that my said son Royminto Robblee shall maintain and support my said children whilst they remain on the homestead, and unmarried providing they assist in the work connected with my said property. And further that my said son Royminto Robblee shall support and maintain my said wife Mary Louisa Robblee while she remains my widow and on the homestead; and provide her with all the necessaries of life, both in sickness and in health out of the products of my said property and also that she shall have the privilege of using a horse and waggon when required by her. Should my beloved wife Mary Louisa Robblee at any time become dissatisfied to live on the homestead and wish to live with some other person or persons then and in that case my said son Royminto Robblee shall pay unto her yearly and every year the sum of Sixty Dollars in Cash while she remains my widow, out of the products of my said property.

I also give and bequeath to my beloved wife one feather bed and bedding for her special benefit.

Should my said son Royminto Robblee die without a male heir, then and in that case my said son Frank Robblee on his attaining to the age of twenty-years shall become the sole inheritor of my said property and his male heirs, and shall comply with the same requirements and conditions as my said son Royminto Robblee, that is if the requirements and conditions have not been fulfilled.

It is also to be understood by my Executors, that my said wife Mary Louisa Robblee shall have the full control and management of my said property and receive the profits and issues thereof, for the support of herself and children until such time as my said son Royminto Robblee shall have attained the age of Twenty-one years.

Lastly- I do hereby appoint my good friends George Stordy and Johnstone Howatt both of Tryon, to be my Executors to this my last Will and Testament to see the same done and performed according to the true intent and meaning of these presents.

In Witness whereof I the said Wesley Robblee have hereunto my hand and seal subscribed and set this eighteenth day of June in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred ninety-one.

Wesley Robblee

Signed Sealed published and declared by the said Wesley Robblee to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence have subscribed our names as witnesses.

This will was proved July 18, 1891 and registered on July 22, 1891. Probate was granted to the Executors named on Nov. 1, 1902. He married Mary "Louise" Callbeck,<sup>7</sup> est 1874 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 1854 in Prince Edward Island, Canada (daughter of James Callbeck and Mary "Jane" Lowther), d. 10 Oct 1946 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, buried in Crapaud Peoples' Cem., Queens Co., PEI, Canada.

Children:

- + 163 i. Ella "Maude"<sup>6</sup> Robblee b. 5 Mar 1875.
- 164 ii. Hattie "Jane" Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 4 Jun 1876 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 5 Feb 1956 in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, buried in Church of Scotland Cem., Cape Travers, PEI. According to Bob Robblee, Hattie raised Robie [Reuben] Robblee, her younger brother. In 1901, James W. and Jane Howatt were living in Canton, Prince Co., PEI with James' parents. "Robe" Robblee, age 15, was living with them.

In 1911, William and Hattie were living in N. Tryon, PEI. They were 43 and 34 years of age. William's mother Jennie Howatt was living with them. She married William James Howatt,<sup>7</sup> 28 Mar 1900 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, b. 2 Apr 1868 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (son of James Howatt and Janet "Jennie" M'Pherson), d. 12 Aug 1957 in Charlottetown, Queens Co., PEI, Canada.

- 165   iii. Roy "Minto" Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 11 Sep 1878 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>29</sup> d. 25 Aug 1902 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, buried in Charlottetown, Queens Co., PEI, Canada. His Will:

I, Roy Minto Robblee of Tryon in Prince Edward Island, Farmer, declare this to be my last will and testament. I bequeath to my mother Mary Louisa Wooldridge, wife of Tristen Wooldridge, all my household furniture and effects in my dwelling house, also one horse and sleigh and one set of driving harness. I devise and bequeath to my brother-in-law William Howatt of Albany in Prince County and my neighbor Henry Callbeck of Tryon aforesaid, Framer, all my real property consisting of about one hundred and twenty two acres of land with the buildings thereon and rights of way those belonging situate at Tryon Lot twenty eight in Prince County aforesaid and receive all the rest and remainder of my personal property upon trust; that the said William Howatt and Henry Callbeck or the survivor of them, or other the trustees or trustee for the time being of this my will [hereinafter called my trustees] shall sell, call in and convert in to money such parts of the said real and personal estate and premises as shall not consist of money, and so that they shall have full power and discretion to postpone the sale, calling in or conversion of the whole or any part or parts of the said real and personal estate and premises during such period as they shall think fit, without being responsible for loss, and I declare that my trustees may sell the same premises either together or in parcels and either by public auction or private contract and upon such terms and subject to such conditions and in such manner in all respects as they shall think fit; with power to buy in or receive or vary any contract - for sale, and to resell without being responsible for loss, and for the purposes aforesaid to execute and do all such assurances and things as they shall think fit: and shall out of the moneys to arise from the sale calling in and conversion of or forming part of my said real and personal estate. First,: pay my funeral and testamentary expenses and debts. Second: pay to my sister Maud wife of Robert Bell the sum of twenty dollars. Third: pay to my sister Janie, wife of William Howatt the sum of twenty dollars.

Fourth: pay to my sister Clara May the sum of one hundred dollars in addition to the personal property bequeathed to her by my father Wesley Robblee which said personal property or its equivalent in money shall be delivered or paid to my said sister by my executors.

Fifth: Divide the residue of said money into five equal shares and to pay one share thereof to my said mother and hold the remaining four shares in trust for my four brothers, Frank Robblee, James Robblee, George Robblee and Wesley Robblee equally to be divided between them provided however that the several bequests made by my said father under his will to my brothers James Robblee, George Robblee, and Wesley Robblee shall be taken as forming part of their respective shares under this my will in said division and the said lands and estates shall be released from the payment or lieu of said bequests. The money hereby divided and bequeathed to my said brothers shall be deposited upon interest by my trustees in the Dominion Government Savings Bank and each of my said brothers shall be paid his share with the accumulated interest thereof on his attaining the age of twenty one years. In case my one of my said brothers shall die without issue before attaining the age of twenty one years the share of the brother so dying shall be paid to my trustees to his surviving brothers or brother. I declare that the receipt of my trustees for the purchase money of my property shall effectively discharge the person or persons paying the same and from being concerned to see to the applications or being answerable for the loss or misapplications thereof. The provision of appointing a new trustee or new trustees to this my will shall be decidable by my said mother during her lifetime and after her death by the surviving or continuing trustees or trustee. I hereby appoint the said William Howatt and Henry Callbeck Executors of this my will. In witness whereof I the said Roy Minto Robblee have to this my will set my hand this first day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two.

[Signed] Roy Minto Robblee

Signed and acknowledged by the above named Roy Minto Robblee as his will in the presence of us, present at the same time, who, in his presence, and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

John Wesley Robblee did not marry. At the time of the 1901 Census, he was living with his sister, Maud and her husband, Robert Bell, in Prince Co., PEI. Apparently, at the time of his death, he had been operating a retail clothing store in Charlottetown.

59. Lydia E.<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Joseph<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. abt 1850 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>18</sup> d. 20 Nov 1893 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA.<sup>18</sup> Lydia was named in her father's will. The 1880 Census lists her as a servant at the home of Julius L. Clarke. She married James Timothy Trefry, 18 Jul 1882 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,<sup>32</sup> b. 8 May 1859 in Nova Scotia, Canada,<sup>33</sup> (son of Reuben Clements Trefry and Letitia Kimball), d. aft 1930 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA?

Some sources list his name as Timothy Allen, including Yarmouth Nova Scotia Genealogies, but his name as given in the Newton Vital Records is James T., or J. T. James T. Trefry became a naturalized citizen of the United States on 26 Feb 1890, when living in Newton, MA.

James married second, Josephine Caddigan, on 14 Sep 1896 in Newton, MA. He continued to live in Newton through at least 1930 when he was a retired electrician. Daughter Georgette, age 42, lived with him. He was then a retired electrician. Georgette did not have an occupation.

- 172 ii. Georgina or Georgette Robblee Trefry b. 1886 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> d. aft 1930 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA?

61. Jean Mary "Jennie"<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Joseph<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 23 Aug 1860 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 26 Oct 1929 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA? In her will, she leaves everything to her nephew Harry R. Robblee. Raised by his grandmother as her own, Harry could not have been Joseph's son as he had died in 1869. Bob Robblee speculates that Harry was Jean's biological son.

"Jennie" Mowry was head of household in Newton, MA in 1900 and 1910. She was a widow. Her mother Ann Robblee was living with her.

Edward Mowry was married previously, in 1879, to Harriet Price. She died in 1888. Partner _____.<sup>7</sup> She married (2) Edward Livingston Mowry,<sup>7</sup> 8 Jun 1892 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. 8 Sep 1854 in Smithfield, Providence, RI (son of Enos Mowry and Sarah J. Harris), d. 25 Dec 1894 in Wayland, Middlesex Co., MA?, buried in Wayland, Middlesex Co., MA.<sup>35</sup>

Jean was Edward's second wife.

However, he was born 5 years after Joseph died. He may have been a grandson, born early to Jean Mary Jennie Robblee.

He was naturalized on 26 Aug 1906. He was then living in Newton.

In 1900, 1910 and 1920, Harry and Amy were living in Newton, MA. In 1930, it appears that Harry and Amy were living in Littleton, MA. However, the census entries are scratched out. Harry came to the US in 1890, and Amy in 1893. Apparently, they had just the one child.

In 1940, Harry and Amy were living in Newton. He married Amy S. Wickett,<sup>7</sup> 27 May 1896 in Brockton, Plymouth Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. 1876 in Northam, PEI, Canada (daughter of Frank Wickett and Annie MacKinnon), d. 23 Jun 1943 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA?

69. John Henry<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (James<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 21 Jul 1862 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>43</sup> d. 11 Dec 1926 in Tacoma, Pierce Co., WA,<sup>44</sup> buried in Mountain View Memorial Park, Lakewood, WA.<sup>45</sup> At the time of the 1881 Census, John Robblee was apprenticed to John McRae as a joiner. He became a naturalized citizen of the United States on 29 Oct 1892. At that time, he lived on Webster St., in Newton, MA. John and Margaret removed to Tacoma, WA between 1906 and 1908.

Six of his sons, including John Henry Robblee started a company in Tacoma, WA in 1913 called Six Robblees. This company eventually sold truck parts in five western states.

"Six Robblees' Inc. has been open for business since 1913. Three brothers of varied interests formed the company as J.A. Robblee & Co. in Tacoma, WA. Jim was a sheet metal worker, Bill a locksmith and Herb a bicycle repairman. Although repairing bicycle wheels brought in the majority of their business, by the end of the World War I their experience in tuning bike spokes had been transformed to racing car wheels for drivers of the local Indy car circuit. They had entered the automotive industry.

In 1919 they took on Budd wire wheels and later Budd-Michelin steel disc wheels. Their brother Fred designed and had truck hubs built in Seattle for pneumatic tire conversions. Jim died in 1930 and willed his interest to his six remaining brothers; Bill, Herb, Fred, Ted, Hank and Dick. The company then became Six Robblees' Inc. The locksmithing operation was sold to some nephews in 1948 when Hank and Dick bought out their retiring brothers, Bill, Fred, Herb and Ted.

Dick Robblee started Six Robblees' Inc. of Oregon in Portland in 1940 and worked there until selling to Hank's son, Dave Robblee in Seattle in 1987. Dave Robblee started in 1966 and through the National Wheel and Rim Association (NWRA) expanded the business into custom wheels, installer undercarriage auto parts and a complete line of tire shop supplies and equipment. Dave served as an NWRA trustee, convention chairman and president from 1984 to 1986. Adding to locations already in Seattle, Tacoma and Yakima, the company expanded with branches in Anchorage, AK (1976), Spokane, WA (1977), Billings, MT (1978), Fairbanks, AK (1982), Portland, OR (1987) and purchased Union Rubber Company branches in Oakland, CA (1981) and Rohnert Park, CA (1986).

The 1990's saw additional expansion with a second branch in Anchorage, AK (1991), one in Everett, WA (1994), the purchase of Motor Wheel and Parts of Seattle, WA and Bearing & Rim of Spokane, WA (1992), Dee's Truck Parts in Wasilla, AK (1996), Northwest Wheel in Great Falls, MT (1998), and Montana Wheel in Missoula, MT (1998). In addition, two tire shop supply companies were acquired in Washington; WIM of Kennewick and True Wheel Inc. of Vancouver. The new millennium opened with the purchase of Tech Supply in Eugene, OR (2000) and a new branch in Medford, OR (2001).

Six Robblees' Inc. has grown from a small family business with 3 employees to a small family business with 17 branches in 5 states. Our product offering has expanded to include car, truck and trailer wheels as well as small trailer components, tire shop supplies, equipment and heavy duty parts. We have seen tremendous growth and improvement in product offering and service; preserving the belief - "Customers deserve great service!" We hope you will join with us as we grow in the future.

He has lived 12 years in Tacoma where he came from West Newton, Mass."

In 1930, Albert and Orla were living in Tacoma. Their niece Amy G. Rodlin, age 21, was living with them. Since she was born in North Dakota, presumably she was Orla's niece.

Orla married second, A E Rensfeld on 15 Aug 194 in Seattle, King Co., WA. He married Orla Annelita Myhre,<sup>7</sup> 3 Jun 1922 in Pierce Co., WA,<sup>47</sup> b. abt 1895 in ND.

Bob Robblee says: "According to my father, J.S. Robblee, his mother, Ida May Robinson, knew of and met members of this family with him in Dec 1941. They met Sarah and one of her sons, who lived on a farm within a mile of Blackfalds, AB. My grandfather, Albert Nathan, had advertised in a large farm publication that he had eggs for sale for $1 a doz. from Jumbo Black Hens. Contact was made because of the name". She married Ephriam Elisha Matthias,<sup>7</sup> 27 Apr 1897 in Blackfalds, Lacombe Co., AB, Canada, b. 19 Oct 1871 in Muskoga Co., ON,<sup>48</sup> (son of William Ira Mattice and Margaret Hannah Brownell), d. aft 1916 in Red Deer, Alberta, Canada?

Ephriam Matthias was from Stormont, ON. According to R. P. Mattice, on the Matthias board on Rootsweb, Ephriam's father William Mattice changed his name to Matthias to maintain ownership of timberlands he bought in Muskoga as that is how his name got recorded on the deed. He had 9 boys by that name.

In 1881, Ephriam was living with his parents in Muskoga Co., ON, Canada. In 1901, the Matthias family was living in Alberta. In 1916, they were living in Red Deer, Alberta.

"Fox Harbour, Aug. 17- The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie Robblee was held at the home of her brother Mr. Alex Patton, North Wallace Pt. on Saturday, August 17 and was largely attended by relatives and friends.

The deceased had not enjoyed good health for several months but had been about as usual until a short time ago when her condition became such as to require medical attention and nursing. She was removed to Highland View Hospital on August 9 and passed away in that institution in the 75th year of her age.

The burial services were conducted by Dr. Young, pastor at United Church, Wallace, who after reading.....(illegible)" (Amherst Daily News August 20, 1935)

Where was John living throughout all the censuses previous to 1901? In 1901, he was living with daughter Mary Jane in Acadia Mines, NS. He married Catherine _____,<sup>7</sup> in Nova Scotia, Canada, b. abt 1820, d. bef 1900 in Nova Scotia, Canada.

Children:

- + 305 i. Mary Jane<sup>6</sup> Robblee b. 28 Feb 1844.

135. Thomas David<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Isaac<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 16 Jun 1820 in Streets Ridge, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada,<sup>29</sup> d. 1906 in Cumberland Co., NS, Canada? Bob Robblee has a copy of their marriage certificate. The original is in possession of Barbara Stubbs.

In 1871, Thomas and Abigail were living in Pugwash, Cumberland Co., NS with their seven children. Thomas's mother Nancy was living with them. In 1881, they continued to live in Cumberland Co. All of their children were still in the home. Also, granddaughter Mary Jane Robblee, age 1.

Mary Jane continued to live with the elder Robblees in 1891, in Victoria, Cumberland Co., NS. James, Frank, Woodberry and Charles were also in the home.

In 1901, Thomas and Abigail Robblee were living in Cumberland Co., NS. He married Abigail Jane Reed,<sup>7</sup> 10 Oct 1854 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada, b. 24 May 1830 in East Village, Colchester, NS, Canada,<sup>29</sup> d. 20 Apr 1912 in Cumberland Co., NS, Canada.

312 vii. George Barry Roblee<sup>7</sup> b. 15 Feb 1869 in Streets Ridge, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada.<sup>23</sup> His birth record has his second name as Barry. Did they have family? He married Martha Jane Penman Robblee,<sup>7</sup> 3 Apr 1889 in Victoria, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada,<sup>23</sup> b. 6 Jan 1870 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>19</sup> (daughter of William Robblee and Thankful Fisher), baptized 12 Dec 1870 in Prince Edward Island, Canada.<sup>19</sup>

In 1881, Martha was living in the home of James Grant in Pugwash, NS.

+ 313 viii. Charles Mansfield Roblee b. 16 Mar 1871.

136. Isaac T.<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Isaac<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 1821 in Cumberland Co., NS, Canada, d. abt 1917 in Acadia Mines, Colchester, NS, Canada? At the time of the 1871 Canadian census, Isaac and Mary Robble were living in Lower Londonderry, Colchester Co., NS. Children Henry, age 13; Moriah, age 17; John, age 20; and Hugh, age 16 were living with them. Both Isaac and Mary are given as age 55.

At the time of the 1891 census, Isaac and Mary Ann were living in Acadia Mines, NS with their daughter Maria and her husband Edward Patriquin and family.

Isaac lived to 96 years, according to his grandson, Charles E. Robblee. He married Mary Ann Miles Mooring<sup>7</sup>, abt 1845 in Nova Scotia, Canada, b. 1818 in Wallace Bay, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada, d. aft 1891 in Acadia Mines, Colchester, NS, Canada?

138. Samuel B.<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Isaac<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. Dec 1829 in Nova Scotia, Canada, d. aft 1900 in Watertown, Jefferson Co., NY? Samuel Robblee was a witness at his brother, Thomas David's wedding in 1854. He signed his own name.

Is this really the same person as the Samuel B. Roblier who lived in Watertown, NY in 1870-1900? In previous census in NY, his name is clearly given as Roblin. This date of birth is from the 1900 census. He married Eliza M. Roblier<sup>7</sup>, abt 1851, b. Mar 1836 in NY, d. aft 1900 in NY?

Children:

- 319 i. Matthew<sup>6</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1852 in NY, d. aft 1855? in Gunnison Co., CO? He married Mary _____,<sup>7</sup> b. ABT 1852.

- 325 vii. Grace C. Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. Jun 1871 in Watertown, Jefferson Co., NY (prob).
- 326 viii. Carl Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 1877 in NY.

139. Lucilla<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Isaac<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 1 Dec 1830 in Cumberland Co., NS, Canada, d. 29 Jan 1854 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada. She married James Tuttle<sup>7</sup>, abt 1848 in Nova Scotia, Canada, b. 4 Aug 1812 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada (son of William Tuttle and Elizabeth Peers), d. 28 Jun 1890 in Cumberland Co., NS, Canada (prob).

James married again, to Eleanor, and had at least 6 more children.

Children:

- 327 i. Isabella Mitchell<sup>6</sup> Tuttle b. 1 Nov 1850.
- 328 ii. Baldwin Tuttle<sup>7</sup> b. Jul 1851 in Nova Scotia, Canada,<sup>23</sup> d. 3 May 1927 in Truro, Colchester Co., NS Canada.<sup>23</sup> Baldwin's parents are given as James and Sarah on the marriage record. His death record is also a little confusing, as it gives him mother's names as Henrietta Eagles.

In 1881, Baldwin and Henrietta were living in Cumberland Co., NS. In 1891 and 1901, Baldwin and Martha were living in Lower Londonderry, NS. He married (1) Henrietta Eagles,<sup>7</sup> 30 May 1878 in Oxford, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada,<sup>50</sup> b. abt 1859 in Granville, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada (daughter of Isaiah Eagles), d. bet 1881 - 1891 in Cumberland Co., NS, Canada (prob). He married (2) Martha _____,<sup>7</sup> bef 1891, b. abt 1842 in Nova Scotia, Canada.

144. Jonathan<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Thomas<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. abt 1834 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 22 Sep 1898 in Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB, Canada,<sup>74</sup> buried in Elmwood Cem., Moncton, NB, Canada. Jonathan and Sarah were living in Moncton, NB in 1881 and 1891. In 1911, Sarah was living with her daughter Hannah and husband John W. Duke.

Some sources say that Jonathan was the son of David Robblee (son of Joseph and Jane (Penman) Robblee) and Sophia Fisher. He married Sarah Elizabeth Price,<sup>7</sup> 10 Apr 1861 in New Brunswick, Canada, b. 13 Jun 1837 (cal) in Kings Co., NB, Canada,<sup>74</sup> (daughter of William Price and Sarah Cushion), d. 23 Sep 1922 in Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB, Canada,<sup>74</sup> buried in Elmwood Cem., Moncton, NB, Canada.

Children:

- + 330 i. Sarah "Matilda" "Tilley"<sup>6</sup> Robblee b. 25 Mar 1862.
- + 331 ii. May Elizabeth Robblee b. 9 Nov 1865.
- + 332 iii. George William Robblee b. 14 Nov 1867.
- 333 iv. John "Irvine" Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1869. Irvine Roblee did not marry.
- 334 v. Jane "Jennie" Kathryn Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. Oct 1869 in New Brunswick, Canada, d. 2 Jun 1944 in Cranston, Providence Co., RI, buried in Grace Church Cem., Providence, RI.<sup>75</sup> Jennie Robblee was a nurse in Providence, RI. She did not marry. In 1940, she was living with brother George in Providence.
- 335 vi. Thomas Heckford "Heck" Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 14 Oct 1872 in Buctouche, Kent Co., NB, Canada,<sup>74</sup> d. 15 Oct 1955 in Pictou, Pictou Co., NS, Canada,<sup>23</sup> buried in Haliburton Cem., Stellarton, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada. In 1900, Thomas Roblee and his first wife Cora L. Roblee were living in Yankee Hill, Lancaster Co., NE. They had been married 5 years. There were no children in the home. Thomas was a farmer. His parents' places of birth are given as England and Scotland. Their marriage record (T. H. Robblee) confirms that this is the right Thomas Robblee, as his parents' names are given. His second marriage to Anna Abbott also gives his name as T. H. Robblee, but does not give his parents' names.

Some sources indicate that Thomas married third, Sarah English. After quite a bit of exploration, I do not think this is correct. There was a Bessie English, daughter of John Milton and Sarah English, who married Val Jean Robley in NE and had daughters Clea, also called Rhodie, and Mabra.

Stella (Kinnear) Robblee grew up in New Brunswick, but in 1900, she was living with her parents in Stoneham, MA. By 1911, the Kinnears had returned to New Brunswick.

In 1946, Thomas entered the US from Canada at Vasselboro, ME. His entry paperwork indicated that he had previous stays in the US, 1893-1900 in Boston; 1900-1909 in Lincoln, NE. The intent of his entry was to reside permanently. He was planning to live with his sister-in-law Mrs. Julia Whitcher, in Stoneham, MA.

Hi all

I have a bomb shell for you. I have a partial letter - of course not dated, written by Julia Cora May Duke, my spinster great aunt- Hannah Belle Robblee Duke's daughter. She was born April 21, 1908. In the letter she is talking about how her brother Clarke Wallace Duke was the only one whose given names were not family names " ...and my name for instance Julia (Jule Warman- Will Warman's wife - she was Julia Summers (Cora) Uncle Tom Robblee's second wife - he was married 3 times."

I have in my records that Thomas Heckford Robblee was born October 14, 1872 in Buctouche, Kent County, New Brunswick. His first wife's name at present is unknown and I have no idea if there were any children. The second wife was Cora Summers - again no details yet, and his third wife was Stella Kinnear (sp?) both died at age 96 at Nursing home in Pictou, Nova Scotia.

Have fun with this one!

Debby. He married (1) Cora L. Wilson,<sup>7</sup> 29 May 1895 in Lancaster Co., NE,<sup>76</sup> b. 29 Nov 1871 in IL,<sup>77</sup> (daughter of Oliver P. Wilson and Adaline Wilson), d. 17 Feb 1903 in Lincoln, Lancaster, NE (prob),<sup>77</sup> buried in Wyuka Cem., Lincoln, NE.<sup>77</sup> He married (2) Anna L. (Mahon) Abbott,<sup>7</sup> 7 Mar 1906 in Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie Co., IA,<sup>78</sup> b. Nov 1872 in OH (daughter of Loran E. Mahon and Almeda Harris), d. bef 1925? He married (3) Stella Viola Kinnear,<sup>7</sup> abt 1925, b. 2 Sep 1878 in Upper Sackville, NB, Canada,<sup>23</sup> (daughter of Calvin Kinnear and Cecelia _____), d. 21 Feb 1958 in Pictou, Pictou Co., NS, Canada,<sup>23</sup> buried in Haliburton Cem., Stellarton, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada.

- + 336 vii. Hannah Belle Robblee b. 16 Oct 1873.
- + 337 viii. Mabel Alice Robblee b. 30 May 1877.

145. W. In 1881, Reuben and Mary Jane were living in Prince Co., Prince Edward Island, Canada with their children Maggie and Fannie. They lived there in 1901. Daughter Maggie Saunders and her two children Ruby and Fern were living with them. Maggie's marital status is given as married.

His will reads as follows:

This is the last Will and Testament of Reuben Robblee of lot of township twenty six in Prince County Prince Edward Island Farmer.

I give and devise to my wife Mary Jane Robblee and to my daughter Margaret Sanderson wife of Capt. Robert Sanderson all of my real and personal estate to be divided equally between them share and share alike.

I appoint for my executors my aforesaid wife and daughter.

This will was made the fourth day of November One thousand nine hundred and one.

His
Reuben X Robblee
Mark

Signed published and declared by the said Reuben Robblee as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us present at the same time who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witness to the due execution hereof.

- 347 ii. Reuben Sprague Leard<sup>7</sup> b. 1866 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada. He married Maggie Moore.<sup>7</sup>
- 348 iii. Melinda Jane Leard<sup>7</sup> b. Jun 1867 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 11 Apr 1869 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.
- 349 iv. Ella Lee Leard<sup>7</sup> b. 1867 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 27 Nov 1926 in Prince Edward Island, Canada. She married James William Morrison,<sup>7</sup> 3 Sep 1891 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 17 Oct 1864 in Prince Edward Island, Canada (son of James Morrison and Marjorie Cruikshank), d. 1948 in Prince Edward Island, Canada.
- 350 v. Lyman Beecher Leard<sup>7</sup> b. Oct 1872 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 3 Feb 1873 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.<sup>79</sup>
- 351 vi. Judson Robert Leard<sup>7</sup> b. 29 Jul 1874 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, baptized 20 Dec 1876 in Prince Edward Island, Canada. He married Martha Estelle (Gray) Murray, 9 Jun 1919 in Welland Co., ON,<sup>80</sup> b. abt 1879 (daughter of Alex Gray and Clara E. Brydges).
- 352 vii. Heber Walter Leard<sup>7</sup> b. Sep 1880 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 8 Jun 1882 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.
149. Alexander Lang<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Thomas<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 10 Nov 1843 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 25 Oct 1922 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, buried in Tryon People's Cem., Tryon, PEI, Canada. At the time of the 1881 Canadian Census, Alexander Robblee, age 37 was living in Prince Co, PEI with the following family members: Frances, age 34; Howard, age 12; Bertha, age 10; Hattie, age 8; Maud, age 6 and Albert, age 2. Hattie and Maud were apparently Frances' daughters by a first marriage. In the 1891 census, they are referred to as Hattie and Maud Leard. (see below).

Alexander's other children from his first marriage were living with other families at that time. Dunstadt, age 11, was living with William and Catherine Newsom in Prince Co., PEI. Bob Robblee reports that Jean was living in the home of Alexander Morrison, but I cannot find that, at least in PEI. Fanny was adopted by her uncle Reuben Robblee and his wife Mary Jane. She was in their home in 1881. Where was Charles?

In 1891, Alexander (age 47) and Frances (age 44) were living in Prince Co., PEI. Family members were Howard, age 22; Dunstadt, age 21; Albert N., age 12; Penzie B., age 7; and Harrison, age 4. Also Hattie Leard, age 17 and Maud Leard, age 15. A Charles Robblee, age 18, was a domestic in the household of Nathaniel and Mary Pearson in Prince Co., PEI.

In 1901, only Albert and Penzie remained living with their parents. Alexander L. Robblee received a western land grant in Canada, date unknown. In 1906, he and Fanny and son Albert were living in Assiniboia West, SK. Alexander and Fanny returned to PEI by 1911, but Albert stayed in Saskatchewan.

His Will:

This is the last will and testament of me, Alexander Lang Robblee, presently residing at Tryon in Prince County in the Province of Prince Edward Island, Canada, Carpenter.

I hereby appoint Francis Ann Robblee to be the sole executrix of this my last will and testament.

I hereby direct and empower my executrix to pay all my just debts and funeral and testamentary expenses at soon as convenient to do so.

To my wife Francis Ann Robblee I give, devise and bequeath all my real and personal estate of every kind and description, for her use and benefit as long as she may live.

At the death of my said wife Francis Ann Robblee, whatever may then remain of my estate, I give and bequeath to my daughter Penzie Belle Duff, wife of Louis R. Duff.

I make and publish this as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annulling all former wills and testamentary dispositions heretofore by me made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereto subscribed my name and set my seal this Tenth day of June in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty One.

Alexander Lang Robblee

SIGNED, SEALED, PUBLISHED and DECLARED by the said Alexander Lang Robblee as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us present in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses to the due execution hereof.

Jas. A. Chisholm
A. Marvin Bell, MD. DDS.

Registered on Nov. 3, 1922. Adm. c. t. a. granted 12 June 1930 to A. Marvin Bell. He married (1) Sarah Frances Coles,<sup>7</sup> 25 May 1867 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 1846 in Charlottetown, Queens Co., PEI, Canada, d. 31 Jan 1877 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.

Her gravestone inscription reads, Nipt by the winds unkindly Blast, Scorched by the Sun's directors ray, The momentary glories waste, the short lived beauties die away.

He married (2) Frances Ann Bell,<sup>7</sup> 1877 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 22 Apr 1847 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 19 Mar 1930 in Cape Traverse, PEI, Canada, buried in Tryon People's Cem., Tryon, PEI, Canada.

Children by Sarah Frances Coles:

- + 353 i. David Howard<sup>6</sup> Robblee b. 8 Aug 1868.
- 354 ii. Alexander "Deinsteadt" Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 20 Jan 1870 in Cape Traverse, PEI, Canada,<sup>19</sup> baptized 6 Aug 1870 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>19</sup> d. 28 Apr 1935 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA (prob). Alexander's baptismal records indicates that his name was Alex. Dienstadt; his parents were Alexander and Sarah.

His marriage record gives his name as Deinsteadt, with "Alexander" written off to the side. His parents are given as Alexander Robblee and Fannie Edwards. In the 1920 census, his name is given as Deinsteadt. In 1930, it is given as D. Harry Roblee. He and Ethel were living in Newton, MA both years. They apparently did not have children. He married Ethel Adelaide MacNeill,<sup>7</sup> 7 Feb 1906 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. abt 1882 in Denver, Denver Co., CO,<sup>20</sup> (daughter of Robert MacNeill and Isabelle Marchbank), d. aft 1930 in MA.

- 355 iii. Fanny Strong Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. Oct 1870 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 29 Nov 1872 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, buried in #64 at 28-2, Tryon, Prince, PEI. CAN. Inscription is on her mother's stone.
- 356 iv. Charles Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1873 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. abt 1924 in NJ. His half brother, Albert Nathan, moved from Alberta to NJ to have his hearing checked and worked with him for 2-3 years.

In 1930, Henrietta was a widow living with her parents in Jersey City, Hudson Co., NJ. He married Henrietta Benson,<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1892 in NJ (daughter of William J. Benson and Henrietta _____), d. aft 1930.

- + 357 v. Jean "Ann" Robblee b. Nov 1875.
  - + 358 vi. Fannie Mae Robblee b. Jan 1877.
- Children by Frances Ann Bell:*
- + 359 vii. Albert Nathan Robblee b. 12 Mar 1879.
  - + 360 viii. Penzie Bell Robblee b. 24 Jul 1884.

150. Martha<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Thomas<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 6 Feb 1846 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>29</sup> d. 1922 in Prince Edward Island, Canada (prob), buried in Wesmorland Baptist Church, PEI, Canada. She married George Crewe<sup>7</sup>, 1 Jul 1865 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, b. 7 Mar 1845 in Crapaud, Queens Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>29</sup> (son of Joseph Crew and Margaret Taylor), d. 1949 in Andover, Merrimack Co., NH?, buried in Westmorland Baptist Church, PEI, Canada.

George and Martha Crewe lived in Prince Co., PEI as late as 1911. In 1930, George, age 85, was living with his son John K. Crewe and family in Andover, Merrimack Co., NH. I cannot find them in the census before 1891, so cannot verify Heckford and William as sons of this family.

363 ii. William Crew<sup>7</sup> b. 1867.

364 iii. Sarah Jane Crew<sup>7</sup> b. Jan 1869 in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada?, d. 23 Aug 1924 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA? She married James Southwick Loanes,<sup>7</sup> 28 Oct 1891 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. Sep 1863 in Halifax, Halifax Co., NS, Canada (son of William Loanes and Sarah _____), d. aft 1920 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA?

365 iv. Charles W. Crew<sup>7</sup> b. 5 Mar 1873 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 9 Jul 1955 in Arlington, Middlesex Co., MA? In 1931, Charles Crew was living with his parents in Prince Co., PEI. He was 20 years old. He apparently emigrated to the US shortly after that. The 1930 census indicated that he came to the US in 1891. The 1910 census, when he was living in Boston with wife Jessie A., and daughter Dorothy, gives 1889 for Charles and 1891 for Jessie. Jessie was also born in Canada, about 1868. Dorothy was born in 24 Nov 1901 in Boston. Her parents are given as Charles Crew and Jessie Cameron, both born in PEI. In 1910, Charles and Jessie were living next door to Charles's brother Wiley D. Crew and his wife Lena. Charles and Jessie had been married for 10 years. They must have married in 1900 after the census was taken, as Charles was then single, living in Boston, working as a teamster.

In 1920, they lived in Taunton, MA. In 1930, Charles W. Crew was living in Arlington, MA with his daughter Dorothy and her husband Ernest Sibley.

There was another Charles Crew born in PEI about the same time, the son of Richard Crew. However, they lived in Ontario, and he seems to be accounted for in later Canadian censuses.

Bob Robblee indicates that Charles W. Crew married Mabel B. Sobey. I cannot verify that. For now, I am giving his wife Jessie Cameron. It is very possible that his married again, as Jessie died by 1930. He married (1) Jessie Cameron, abt 1900, b. abt 1868 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. bet 1920-1930? in Taunton, Bristol Co., MA? He married (2) Mabel B. Sobey,<sup>7</sup> b. 19 Nov 1879, d. 18 Nov 1962.

366 v. John Kitson Crew<sup>7</sup> b. 18 Mar 1874 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>29</sup> d. 1946 in Andover, Merrimack Co., NH?, buried in Searletown, Prince Co., PEI, Canada. In 1930, John and Laura Crew were living in Andover, NH. John's father George was living with them. John's immigration year is given as 1922. In 1916, John and Laura were living in Prince Co., PEI. He married Laura Lizzie Alice Arnett,<sup>7</sup> Dec 1902, b. 1884 in Prince Edward Island, Canada? (daughter of James Robert Arnett and Jane "Jennie" MacKay), baptized 12 Aug 1884 in Bedeque, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. Sep 1971 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, buried in Searletown, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.

"Marriage announcements: Daily Examinier, 12/26/1902, p. 5, Morning Guardian, 12/29/1902, p 7

"Laura Crewe died over Labor Day weekend in 1971 (early Sept) at the age of 88.

She lived in Hopkinton and Grafton, Massachusetts with my grandparents from some time in the 1940s or 1950s until my grandmother died in 1961. Then Laura returned to PEI, and a nursing home which I believe was in Charlottetown. I visited her there in 1970. I do know she went back to Canada because of the benefits for the elderly so I assume that she was still a Canadian citizen. PEI is where she died.

She left John Kitson Varnum $400 in her will - he was named after her husband, probably because he was the first male great grandchild. There may have been no male Crewe grandchildren" (Sharon Sargeant: <http://www.islandregister.com/arnett.html>)

- 367 vi. Wiley "Denton" Crew<sup>7</sup> b. 3 Aug 1881 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>63</sup> d. Jul 1977 in Watertown, Middlesex Co., MA?<sup>63</sup> In 1910, Wiley D. and Lena Crew were living in Boston. There years of arrival are given as 1902 and 1901. They were living next door to Wiley's brother Charles. Both men were teamsters. In 1930, Wiley and Lena were living in Watertown. In 1940, Wiley was living in Watertown with his daughter Marjorie and her husband Robert Santos. Wiley's marital status was given as married, but Lena was not in the home. He married Lena M. Burrows,<sup>7</sup> 22 Nov 1905 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA,<sup>34</sup> b. 26 Oct 1884 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>63</sup> (daughter of John Burrows and Ellen Horne), d. Oct 1969 in Warrenville, Du Page, IL.<sup>63</sup>
- 368 vii. Louise Denton Crew<sup>7</sup> b. 3 Aug 1882 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>29</sup> d. bet 1930-1940? in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA (prob). The Cartys lived in Boston, MA. Between 1920 and 1930, Hantford died. Louise was a widow in 1930, living in Boston with her sons Victor and George. She married Hantford Dellmore Carty, 30 Nov 1904 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. 31 Mar 1875 in Nova Scotia, Canada (son of Wellington Carty and Hannah Ward), d. bet 1920-1930 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA (prob).

151. Thomas H.<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Thomas<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. Oct 1849 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 8 Nov 1923 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>81</sup> buried in People's Cem. Summerside, PEI, Canada. Thomas and Annie Robblee were living Cleveland, OH in 1900. Their year of arrival in the US was 1899.

In 1910, Thomas was living in Cleveland. He was boarding in the home of Eldra and Ellen Love. In 1920, he was living with daughter Fanny Crocker in Cleveland. Annie was living in Cleveland, head of a separate household. Both Thomas and Annie gave their status as married. Annie was working as a bookkeeper. Henry and Fanny were living with her.

Notes: "Robblee-Mrs. Annie Crabbe, entered into rest at the residence, 13904 Baldwin av., Friday noon. Services and interment in Summerside, Prince Edward Island, Canada, Monday, May 6". (Cleveland Necrology File. 4 May 1918)

Notes: Robblee-Thomas H., for 23 years a resident of Cleveland, died November 8, at Tryon, Prince Edward island, Canada, in his 73d year; one son, William C. Robblee, and his daughter, Fanny C. Crocker, survive him. Interment Saturday, at People's cemetery, Summerside, P. E. I." (Cleveland Necrology File, 8 Nov 1923)

He was buried the Saturday after he died in Tryon. He had returned to Tryon prior to his death and was at the home of his brother, Alexander. He married Annie Carson Crabbe,<sup>7</sup> 7 Mar 1878 in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, b. 31 Aug 1854 in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (daughter of Thomas Crabbe), d. 3 May 1918 in E. Cleveland, Cuyahuga Co., OH,<sup>82</sup> buried in Summerside Peoples' Cem. Summerside, PEI. Canada.<sup>82</sup>

Children:

- 370 i. Charlotte Crabbe<sup>6</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 1879 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 13 Aug 1882 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, buried in Summerside Cem., Summerside, PEI, Canada.
- + 371 ii. William Crabbe Robblee b. 23 Jan 1881.
- 372 iii. Owen Curtis Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 23 Oct 1882 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 1890 in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada?, buried in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.
- 373 iv. Annie Claire Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. abt 1884 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 1943 in Mason, Heard Co., GA,<sup>7</sup> buried in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada. The death notice for Annie's father's Thomas Robblee does not include her in the list of survivors. This would suggest that she died before 8 Nov 1923, not in 1943. She married _____ Whitney,<sup>7</sup> est 1905.
- 374 v. Thomas Lane Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 17 Mar 1886 in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>83</sup> d. 13 Apr 1910 in Cleveland, Cuyahoga Co., OH,<sup>82</sup> buried in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.<sup>82</sup>
"Notes: Robblee-Thomas Lane, aged 24 years, suddenly, Wednesday evening. Funeral Sunday, April 17, at Summerside, Prince Edward Island"(Cleveland Necrology File, Reel #069. 17 Apr 1910)

Birth - Summerside, P.E.I., 17th inst., wife of T.H. Robblee, a son. (The Daily Telegraph, March 23 1886).

- 375 vi. Henry Crabbe Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 15 Mar 1888 in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>84</sup> d. 20 Feb 1919 in E. Cleveland, Cuyahuga Co., OH,<sup>82</sup> buried in Lakeview Cem., Summerside, PEI, Canada. Henry Robblee formed a Law Partnership with Christofer in Cleveland in 1912. He was naturalized in Cuyahuga Co., OH on 15 Nov 1913. He had arrived in the US on 15 Apr 1900, crossing in Buffalo, NY. He was living in Cleveland. His widow Winifred continued to live in Cleveland in 1920 and 1930. He married Winifred E. (Latimer) Stollsteimer,<sup>7</sup> 22 Jan

1919 in Summit Co., OH,<sup>85</sup> b. abt 1889 in Cleveland, Cuyahoga Co., OH (daughter of William T. Latimer and Mary C. Thompson), d. aft 1930 in Cleveland, Cuyahoga Co., OH?

154. Franklin "Alonzo"<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (John<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 24 Aug 1834 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 2 Sep 1896 in Meadowvale, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada (prob),<sup>86</sup> buried in Tremont Cem., Annapolis, NS, Canada. In 1860, Franklin and Margaret were living in Boston, MA with their two oldest daughters. F. A. Robblee became a naturalized citizen of the United States on 21 Sep 1876, in Boston. In 1880, Franklin and Margaret were living in Boston, MA with their large family. In 1881, they were living in Nova Scotia. Franklin was a blacksmith.

Franklin A. Robblee of Meadowvale, N. S. made his will on 13 Aug 1896 and it was probated on 5 Nov 1896. He mentioned his children Nellie Elevia, Nina Ann, John Leon of York, ME, engineer; Adrian and other unnamed children. He married Margaret Ann Crocker,<sup>7</sup> 27 Nov 1857 in Wilmot, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada,<sup>50</sup> b. 11 Sep 1834 in Nova Scotia, Canada, d. 8 Apr 1887 in Nova Scotia, Canada?, buried in Tremont Cem., Annapolis, NS, Canada.

Children:

- 377 i. Minnie Amelia<sup>6</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 20 Sep 1857 in Wilmot, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada,<sup>20</sup> d. 15 Mar 1877 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA.<sup>20</sup>
- + 378 ii. Ruth "Esther" Olevia Robblee b. 3 Jun 1860.
- 379 iii. Albert Ernst Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 4 Oct 1864 in S. Farmington, NS, Canada, d. 11 Jul 1911 in Danvers, Essex Co., MA,<sup>18</sup> buried in Oak Grove Cem., Gloucester, MA.<sup>18</sup> Albert Robblee was listed as an inmate at the Danvers State Hospital in 1910. He died there, of general paralysis. He was a blacksmith.
- + 380 iv. William Alonzo Robblee b. 6 Jun 1865.
- + 381 v. John Leon Robblee b. 12 Jun 1866.
- + 382 vi. Amy or Anna "Eliza" "Lizzie" Robblee b. 30 Mar 1868.
- + 383 vii. Minot Perry Robblee b. 7 Feb 1870.
- 384 viii. Adrian Thorne Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 1 Feb 1871 in Meadowvale, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada,<sup>23</sup> d. 1936 in Amesbury, Essex Co., MA? In 1910, Adrian and Etta were living in Salem, MA. They did not have any children. Adrian was a blacksmith. He was a naturalized citizen; Etta was not. In 1920 and 1930, Adrian and Addie were living in Amesbury, MA. Adrian apparently did not have children by either of his wives. He married (1) Etta M. Berry Pierce,<sup>7</sup> 9 Mar 1904 in Salem, Essex Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. 1874 in Clementsport, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada,<sup>23</sup> (daughter of Thomas Pierce and Dolly Pyne), d. 31 Dec 1915 in S. Farmington, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada,<sup>23</sup> buried in Union Cem. S. Farmington, Annapolis, NS, Canada. He married (2) Addie C. _____,<sup>7</sup> aft 1915 in MA?
- + 385 ix. Nellie Helena Robblee b. 11 Feb 1874.
- + 386 x. Nina Alice Robblee b. 4 Nov 1878.

155. William Henry<sup>5</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (John<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 14 Nov 1838 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 21 Sep 1863 in Franklin, Norfolk Co., MA.<sup>20</sup> William H. Robblee died of consumption. His death record indicates he was married at the time of his death. His parents are given as John and Catherine. However, his marriage record gives his parents as John and Mary Ann.

I am unable to determine what became of Aurelia. He married Aurelia Eunice Adams,<sup>7</sup> 21 Sep 1861 in Franklin, Norfolk Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. 17 Dec 1844 in Springfield, Hampden, MA,<sup>87</sup> (daughter of Gardner Adams and Eunice R. Darling).

Children:

- 387 i. Estella E.<sup>6</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 15 Feb 1863 in Franklin, Norfolk Co., MA, d. 30 Oct 1863 in Franklin, Norfolk Co., MA.<sup>20</sup> Estella died from consumption.

Generation Six

163. Ella "Maude"<sup>6</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (John Wesley<sup>5</sup>, John<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 5 Mar 1875 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>29</sup> d. 1956 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, buried in Church of Scotland Cem., Cape Travers, PEI. In 1901, Robert and Maude were living in Prince Co., PEI. Robert's father (grandfather?) Walter Bell, age 87, was living with them, as was Maud's brother John W. Robblee, age 9. In 1911, they were living in Cape Traverse, Prince Co., PEI with daughters May and Lena (Jean?). She married Robert Bruce Bell,<sup>7</sup> 26 Dec 1900 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 1 Jul 1866 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>29</sup> (son of Robert Bell and Elizabeth Howatt), d. 3 Dec 1912 in Prince Edward Island, Canada.

Children:

- 388 i. Mary "May"<sup>7</sup> Bell<sup>7</sup> b. 15 Feb 1902 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. Mar 1996 in Prince Edward Island, Canada.
- 389 ii. Jean Louise Bell<sup>7</sup> b. 20 Sep 1904 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 1978 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, buried in Church of Scotland Cem., Cape Travers, PEI.
- 390 iii. Walter Bell<sup>7</sup> b. 24 Nov 1911 in Prince Edward Island, Canada. He married Beulah Oakley.<sup>7</sup>

167. Franklin "Frank"<sup>6</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (John Wesley<sup>5</sup>, John<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 26 Nov 1883 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,<sup>29</sup> d. 31 May 1965 in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, buried in Crapaud Peoples' Cem., Queens Co., PEI, Canada. He married Margaret "May" Stordy,<sup>7</sup> 29 Sep 1909 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 27 Sep 1883 in Prince Edward Island, Canada,<sup>29</sup> (daughter of George Stordy and Margaret Potts Rogerson), d. 6 Jun 1967 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, buried in Crapaud Peoples' Cem., Queens Co., PEI, Canada.

Children:

- 391 i. Harry<sup>7</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 8 Aug 1910 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. 5 Dec 1910 in Prince Edward Island, Canada.
- + 392 ii. George Wesley Robblee b. 31 Jan 1912.
- + 393 iii. Kenneth Arthur Robblee b. 20 Dec 1915.

168. James "Robey" Reuben<sup>6</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (John Wesley<sup>5</sup>, John<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 14 Oct 1885 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 4 Sep 1976 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, buried in St. John's Anglican, St. Eleanor's, PEI, Canada. In his father's will, he was called Robey and that name appears on the 1901 Census where he was listed in his sister's home as an adopted son.

Robey and his brother George, along with members of the Mills families left PEI around 1915 and settled in Saskatchewan around the Spalding area. Apparently Robey and Jessie returned to PEI at a later date. He married Jessie Irene Mills,<sup>7</sup> abt 1917, b. 1895 in St. Eleanor's, PEI, Canada (daughter of Hubert Coleman Mills and Mary Jane Tanton), d. 12 Dec 1967, buried in St. John's Anglican, St. Eleanor's, PEI, Canada.

Children:

- + 394 i. Vera Louise<sup>7</sup> Robblee b. 2 May 1918.
- + 395 ii. Kenneth William Robblee.
- + 396 iii. Victor Reuben Robblee.

169. George<sup>6</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (John Wesley<sup>5</sup>, John<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 9 Jan 1888 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 9 Feb 1933 in Spalding, SK, Canada, buried in Clearview Cem., Spalding, SK, Canada. It appears that he may have been adopted. In 1901, a George Robblee, age 12, is listed as the adoptive son in the Simmons family in Prince Co., PEI. It is not clear to me if he was the adopted son of the head of household, Martha Simmons, age 65 or of Lee Richard and Mary Simmons, both age 43.

Reuben left there about 1925 and settled in London? Ontario. After his father's death, he was by others? on Lot 16. [1901 Census] He filed on NW 36 5 16 W2 in SK and died from tuberculois. He married Bertha Ruth Macleod<sup>7</sup>, 1917 in Neptune, SK, Canada, b. 17 Jul 1895 in Blement, PEI, Canada, d. 2 Jun 1984 in Spalding, SK, Canada, buried in Clearview Cem., Daphne, SK, Canada.<sup>88</sup>

Bertha married second Michael Brophy and third Edward Wolfgram.

Children:

- 397 i. Wesley George<sup>7</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 4 Nov 1917 in Neptune, SK, Canada, d. 21 Sep 1983 in Spalding, SK, Canada, buried in Clearview Cem., Spalding, SK, Canada. He died after being hit by a truck. He married Helen Pruden.
- 398 ii. Donald Minto Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 10 Oct 1920 in Spalding, SK, Canada, d. 4 Dec 1931 in Spalding, SK, Canada, buried in Clearview Cem., Spalding, SK, Canada. Early death from TB?
- 399 iii. Johanna Lorraine Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 13 Jun 1923 in Spalding, SK, Canada, d. 9 Feb 1929 in Spalding, SK, Canada, buried in Clearview Cem., Spalding, SK, Canada. Early death from TB?
- + 400 iv. Ralph Burrell Robblee b. 16 Apr 1927.
- 401 v. Dean Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 10 Oct 1929 in Saskatchewan, Canada, d. 1 Dec 2005. Unmarried, Dean Robblee suffered from schizophrenia all his life and lived most of it in a sanitarium.

176. John William<sup>6</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (James L. Reid<sup>5</sup>, James<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 14 Nov 1885 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,<sup>89</sup> d. 24 Feb 1916 in CA? John W. Robblee and his brother Joseph were both students at the Boston Asylum and Farm School for Indigent Boys in Boston in 1900.

John William Robblee applied for a United States passport in 1910. He appears on various ship's lists in the next few years. He landed in Philadelphia in 1915. The ship's list shows his marital status as single and his last residence in the Philippines.

"Several years ago, I was contacted by John Robblee Rivas, formerly of the Philippines, now of Australia. His mother was Amelia Christine Robblee, b 14 Aug 1914, in the Phillipines, daughter of John William Robblee and Rosita Quizon. John was a member of the US Military from MA. son of James Reid Robblee, b 14 Dec 1885 - 24 Feb 1916, d Tuftonboro, NH. He was married to Cora S. Labonty in 1905 in Carlisle, MA. but he had the above relationship and I believe, another in CA with Rosario Marie Lorenzana with whom he fathered Frank William Roblee, b 4 Dec 1907." (Bob Robblee on Roblee listserv, 23 Feb 2011).

Note that information on Frank William Robblee on Ancestry.com indicates that his father was John Walter Robblee or Roblee, whom I have not been able to identify. Nor can I find him in the census as a child. He married (1) Cora E. Wallace, Cumberland, Nova Scotia, Canada. He served in WW I in the Canadian Forces. Was the wife of James Grant his mother?

North Wallace- Friends learned with regret of the death of William E Roblee, which occurred January 13 at the Fraser Memorial Hospital, Tatamagouche.

He was born February 25, 1894, in Hartford, N.S. He came to Fox Harbour as a boy and spent some years with the late Mr. and Mrs. James David. The remainder of his life he spent in North Wallace, except for a period of time during World War I. He served overseas with No. 1 Depot Battalion, N.S. Regiment.

Mr. Roblee was an active member of the Fox Harbour Credit Union Ltd. and the Fox Harbour Co-operative Ltd. He was a member of the Seaside Branch No. 104 Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. and was a past president of the Branch.

Left to mourn their loss are his wife, the former Annie G. Oxley; four sons William, Woodstock; Roger, Fox Harbour; Keith and Lloyd at home; six daughters, Pamela (Mrs. Arthur Henderson) Wallace River; Margaret (Mrs. Percy Des Roches) Miscouche P.E.I.; Isabelle (Mrs. John Wolosonovsky) Woodstock, Ontario; Elva, Frances, and Barbara at home. Two infant sons, Clinton and Herbert predeceased him. (Amherst Daily News). He married Annie Gertrude Oxley<sup>7</sup> 8 Dec 1926 in Oxford, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada, b. 16 Sep 1905 in N. Clinton Robblee<sup>7</sup> b. 26 Feb 1936 in Fox Harbor, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada, d. 17 Mar 1936 in Fox Harbor, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada, buried in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada. "Fox Harbour, March 20- The death of Clinton, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Robblee occurred at the home Sunday morning, March 15. Although other members of the family had been ill with flu, there were no signs that the baby was ill until Saturday evening. Dr. Culton, Wallace responded to an emergency call and rendered aid to the little sufferer, but it became apparent that Clinton would soon be called home. He was born February 26.

The funeral was held from the home Tuesday, March 17, and was attended by a large number of relatives and neighbours. The service which was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hunt, pastor of Pugwash Baptist circuit, was very comforting to the bereaved. His remarks were based on 2 Theas., 2:16. The hymns sung were "Jewels" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus". There were a number of floral tokens. Interment took place in Fox Harbour cemetery with Mr. Jas. Drysdale as undertaker. Beside his parents he is also survived by two sisters, Pamela and Margaret, and three brothers, Roger, Billie, and Keith.

To the sorrowing family is extended, sincere sympathy in their bereavement." (Obituary Amherst Daily News March 23, 1937).

AYLESFORD, Nov. 25 - Funeral services for Archibald Foster Troop, who passed away Friday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. Seldon Bezanson, were conducted Monday at three p.m. at Granville United Church by Rev. Dr. Seeley, Bridgetown, assisted by Rev. Murray Gardner, Aylesford.

Familiar hymns were sung, and a vocal duet was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Saunders, Paradise.

Pallbearers were Sherriff Parker, Fred Parker, Charles Troop, Harold Bent, Charles Hogan and Clarence Hennigar.

Interment was in the Wadeville Cemetery.

Mr. Troop, a son of the late John and Susan (Bent) Troop, Belle Isle, was a lifelong resident of that community, where he operated a farm for many years, retiring from active work some time ago.

For the past year with Mrs. Troop, the former Annie Robblee, he had resided with his daughter, Mrs. Bezanson, and Dr. Bezanson.

He was an elder of the Granville United Church and was prominent in the work of the Sons of Temperance organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Troop would have celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in December.

Surviving besides his wife are three daughters - Mrs. H. R. Wade (Susan), West Paradise; Mrs. C. S. Bezanson (Gwaladys), Aylesford; Mrs. Richard Bruck (Helen) Madison, Wisconsin. Another daughter, Miss Geraldine, R.N., predeceased him.

"FitzRANDOLPH, Albert L. - 92, Middleton, formerly of South Williamston and Lawrencetown, Annapolis Co., passed away Monday, October 15, 2007, in the Veterans' Unit, Soldiers' Memorial Hospital, Middleton. It is with great sadness we announce his passing. He was well cared for by the wonderful staff of Middleton Veterans' Unit for the past 10 years. Born in South Williamston on January 19, 1915, he was the only son of the late Frank A. and Frances Elizabeth (Robblee) FitzRandolph. He joined the army in 1940 and was a Sergeant in the 52nd Anti Tank 3rd Division. While overseas he earned many medals, one of which was the Bronze Star. He was one of only two Canadians to receive this from the United States Government. The citation reads "Sergeant Albert L. FitzRandolph, Canadian Army, for heroic achievement in connection with military operations on 21 July 1944, near Sassy, France. Sergeant FitzRandolph, with his gun crew of the 3d Canadian Anti Tank Regiment, was acting in support of an infantry attack when an enemy shell hit beside his gun tower, inflicting five casualties in his crew. Without hesitation, he manned the gun tower and drove the vehicle unaccompanied to the infantry objective, maintaining effective support in spite of the fiercest opposition. His determination, courage, and disregard for personal safety were an inspiration to all with whom he came in contact. By Command of General Eisenhower." After returning home he owned and operated the family farm in South Williamston and later worked at CFB Greenwood until retirement. He was a life member of Branch No. 112 Royal Canadian Legion, Lawrencetown, and Evangeline No. 94 Masonic Lodge; a member of Lawrencetown United Baptist Church since April 27, 1930; and a past member of the Lawrencetown and District Volunteer Fire Department. He is survived by his daughters, Elizabeth (Wendell) MacGregor and Catherine Lowe, both of Lawrencetown; grandchildren, Bruce (Susan) MacGregor, Edmonton, Alta.; James (Janet) MacGregor, Nictaux; Allen (Becky) MacGregor, Port Perry, Ont.; Victoria (Gary) Gaul, Brickton; Steven (Ann Marie) Lowe, New Minas; Denise (Chris) Naugler, South Williamston; 10 great-grandchildren; sister, Lillian Clarke, Mississauga, Ont. He was predeceased by his wife, the former Lois Pearle Hupman; great-granddaughter, Carly MacGregor; son-in-law, Arthur Lowe, and sisters, Marjorie and Frances. Visitation will be held 7-9 p.m. today in Middleton Funeral Home, 398 Main St., (902) 825-3448, where Evangeline No. 94 Masonic Lodge will conduct their service beginning at 7 p.m., followed by a Royal Canadian Legion Tribute conducted by Lawrencetown Branch No. 112 at 7:30 p.m. Funeral service will be held 3 p.m. Wednesday, October 17, in Middleton Funeral Home, Rev. Barbara Bishop officiating. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery, Lawrencetown. Donations in memory may be made to Lawrencetown United Baptist Church, Royal Canadian Legion, Lawrencetown Branch No. 112 or Veterans' Bus Fund, SMH Veterans' Unit. On-line condolences may be made through: www.middletonfuneralhome.com." He married Lois Pearl Hupman.<sup>7</sup>

"The Boston Globe of Recent date contained the following paragraph:-

Miss Mabel Redmond of Clinton Mass., residing at Leighton Avenue and a student of South Lancaster Academy is, it was learned to-day a distant relative of Abraham Lincoln.

Miss Redmond's great grandmother whose name was Price was a sister to Nancy Hanks the mother of Abe Lincoln.

Mrs. Sarah Price Robblee is the grandmother of Miss Mabel Redmond who is a bright studious girl, standing high in her classes is a favorite among the students in the Academy.

Mrs. Sarah Price Robblee referred to in Boston Globe paragraph resides with her daughter Mrs. John W. Duke, Dominion Street this city. She has lived in Moncton nearly all her life, being the relict of the late Jonathan Robblee a former well known I.C.R. employee. Mrs. Robblee's maiden name was Price and she is the sister of the late Tyler Price who spent a greater part of his life in the city and parish of Moncton.

Mrs. Sarah Robblee has two sisters living in Moncton Mrs. Thomas Mitton and Mrs. Henry Wallace both of whom reside on High Street. The mother of the Moncton woman referred to was a sister to Nancy Hanks, Abe Lincoln's mother, which would make Mrs. Robblee and her brothers and sisters first cousins of the distinguished dead president of the United States whose birthday anniversary was recently celebrated by the republic.

Miss Mabel Redmond referred to in the Boston Globe is a daughter of John Redmond a former Provincialist who is married to one of Mrs. Robblee's daughters. Besides Mrs. John Duke of this city, Mrs. Robblee has another married daughter Mrs. George McDonald residing in Lewisville.

Her sons George, Irving and Thomas live in different parts of the United States". She married Arthur Smith Fay, 9 Jun 1914 in Framingham, Middlesex Co., MA,<sup>34</sup> b. 29 Sep 1886 in Princeton, Worcester Co., MA,<sup>36</sup> (son of Arthur E. Fay and Anna C. Harthan).

Moncton, NB, Canada. "The 3 year old child of Geo. Robblee, who lives on the outskirts of Moncton, was drowned Monday afternoon in a water cask. The child went out of the house with a bucket with the remark that it was going to get some water. The child was missed in a few minutes, but was not found for half an hour, when it was quite dead. It was found head down in the bottom of the cask used to catch rain water. There was about a foot of water in the cask and the bucket was full, the indication being that the child after filling the bucket, attempted to pull it out, but was unable to do so and fell in head first." (Chignecto Post, 10 May 1894)

"A drowning accident occurred on Dominion St. yesterday afternoon whereby Cecil Church Robblee the little three year old son of Geo. ROBLEE, lost his life. The little fellow it appears was in the act of getting water out of a cask and tumbled in head foremost and was not found for some time after life was extinct. Coroner Wortman did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest on the body". (The Moncton Times, 8 May 1894)

"The funeral of little Cecil Church Robblee who was drowned in a water cask Monday afternoon, took place to the Rural (Fernhill) Cemetery yesterday afternoon". (The Moncton Times, 10 May 1894).

Miles E. Baldwin married first, Bessie Blanche Martin, in 1892. They had a son Miles Edward Baldwin, in 1893 and a son Blanchard, in 1897. Both were born in Newton, MA. Bessie died one day after Blanchard was born, in Newton on 15 Mar 1897, of cancer. In 1900, young Miles was living with his grandparents, Hiram and Catherine Ross, in Providence, RI. Catherine was Miles' mother. In 1910, Miles Jr. was living with his father and stepmother in Providence. Blanchard appears in the household for the first time in 1920. I cannot find him in the census before that.

Miles Edward Baldwin, at various times, is called Edward M. Baldwin. He was a jeweler. In 1920, he appears to be counted twice in the census - once with his wife and family in Providence, RI, and once as a patient in the Butler Hospital for the Insane in Providence.

At the time of the Rhode Island State Census in 1935, Mabel Baldwin was living in Providence, RI, working as a practical nurse in a private home. She married Miles Edward Baldwin,<sup>7</sup> 23 Jan 1898 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. Jun 1866 in Belmont, Allegany Co., NY,<sup>20</sup> (son of Edward Baldwin and Mary Catherine Spaulding), d. 1 Feb 1926 in Providence, Providence Co., RI,<sup>135</sup> buried in Grace Church Cem., Providence, RI.<sup>136</sup>

In 1901, Maggie (Robblee) Sanderson was living with her parents in Prince Co., PEI, along with Ruby, age 6; and Fern, age 5. She was married at the time, but her husband was not in the home. Maggie, Ruby and Fern are all listed as "daughter" of Ruben Robblee. In 1911, Ruby Sanderson and Fern Roblee were domestics in the household of John and Maryjane Rogers or Ragers in Summerside, PEI. Given the 1911 census, and other information, I am inclined to think that only Ruby was Maggie's daughter. I believe Fern was actually Dora Fern Robblee, whose mother was Fannie Robblee. Fannie was adopted by Reuben and Mary Jane Robblee.
 . She married Robert A. Sanderson,<sup>7</sup> 24 Nov 1891 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, b. 1851 in Greenwich, PEI (son of William B. Sanderson), d. bef 1901? in Prince Edward Island, Canada?

Jan 1877 in Prince Edward Island, Canada, d. aft 1940 in Haverhill, Essex Co., MA? Fanny was adopted by her uncle W. Reuben Robblee after her mother died, presumably at childbirth. She was living with Reuben and Mary Jane in 1881. Her marriage record gives her parent as Alexander Robblee and Fannie Edwards. It also gives her name as Fannie Robblee. She was 21 at the time.

It seems that Fanny gave birth to a daughter out of wedlock, Dora Fern Robblee. Fern was living with Fanny's adoptive parents in 1901. By that time Fannie herself had married and had given birth to another child. She was living in the US. Fern was a domestic in Summerside, PEI in 1911.

In 1940, Fannie was a widow living with daughter Pearl Strong, who was divorced, in Haverhill, MA. Partner Earl Edward Robins, M. D.,<sup>7</sup> b. 30 Oct 1878, d. 28 Feb 1914. She married (2) Frank Everett Gage,<sup>7</sup> 12 Sep 1898 in Haverhill, Essex Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> b. 2 Apr 1871 in Haverhill, Essex Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> (son of Everett Gage and Julia Buswell), d. aft 1920 in Haverhill, Essex Co., MA?

She was living with Reuben and Mary Jane in 1881. Her marriage record gives her parent as Alexander Robblee and Fannie Edwards. It also gives her name as Fannie Robblee. She was 21 at the time.

It seems that Fanny gave birth to a daughter out of wedlock, Dora Fern Robblee. Fern was living with Fanny's adoptive parents in 1901. By that time Fannie herself had married and had given birth to another child. She was living in the US. Fern was a domestic in Summerside, PEI in 1911.

In 1940, Fannie was a widow living with daughter Pearl Strong, who was divorced, in Haverhill, MA. Partner Earl Edward Robins, M. D.,<sup>7</sup> (See marriage to number 339). She married (2) Frank Everett Gage,<sup>7</sup> 12 Sep 1898 in Haverhill, Essex Co., MA,<sup>20</sup> (See marriage to number 339).

404. Margaret Mae<sup>7</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (William Alexander<sup>6</sup>, John Henry<sup>5</sup>, James<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 2 Feb 1918 in Tacoma, Pierce Co., WA,<sup>91</sup> d. 4 Feb 2009 in Tacoma, Pierce Co., WA.<sup>52</sup> "Margaret Mae (Robblee) Patterson "Her children arise and call her blessed" Prov 31:28 On Feb. 4, 2009, with her children at her side, Margaret Mae Patterson passed peacefully from this life to her heavenly home. Margaret was born Feb. 20, 1918 in Tacoma, WA to William A. and Bertha M. Robblee. Margaret lived her entire life in Tacoma, and attended school at Whitman, Stewart and Lincoln, proudly graduating in the Class of 1936. She remained close friends with many of her school "chums" throughout the years. When it appeared her class was going to stop having reunions, she agreed to co-chair the 65th, 70th, and 75th class reunions. Margaret worked as a bookkeeper and secretary following business college. She worked until she met the love of her life, Thomas H. (Pat) Patterson, in 1943. They were engaged 3 months later and were married in November of that same year. Sadly, their marriage ended with Pat's death in 1972. Margaret was a stay-at-home mom, maintaining a meticulous home, helping the PTA, church, friends or family. After her children graduated from high school, she dusted off her bookkeeping skills and went to work for the family business, Robblee's Total Security, Inc. She retired in 1995 at the age of 78. By this time, the business was owned by the third generation, her son John. She loved working for him and with her daughter-in-law Gail, and with her grandchildren Julie and Jim. She said it was time to quit when even the salesmen all started calling her grandma. Following retirement, Margaret traveled extensively. She brought joy to all who knew her, and is remembered for her infectious wit, unflinching memory, constant smile, and her kind and loving heart. Enjoying life to the fullest, she was an example to others in all that she did. She treasured her family and friends, and was always ready to lend a hand. Margaret was active in the 1918 Club and The Old Town Music Society. She was a faithful servant of the Lord and regularly attended United Church in University Place until the time of her recent illness. Left behind to cherish her legacy are her beloved children Jane Hawkins and John Patterson (Gail). She will also be missed by grandchildren Julie Hochsprung (Brock), Jim Patterson (Janie), and John Patterson, and great-grandchildren Matt, Edward, Brandon, Alex, Stella and Hannah, who all delighted her heart. Margaret was devoted to her many nieces, nephews, and extended family members and friends. In addition to her husband, Margaret was preceded in death by her parents, brother William H. Robblee, sister Lois E. McKay, and son-in-law Tom Hawkins. The family wishes to express deep gratitude for the loving and compassionate care given to Margaret at Tacoma General Hospital, Phillip's Cardiac Care Unit by doctors and staff and Dr. Sabrina E Benjamin. Please join Margaret's family and friends to celebrate her life on Monday, Feb. 9, 2009 at 1:00p.m. at United Church in University Place, 3912 Grandview Drive West, University Place, WA 98466. Remembrances may be made in Margaret's name to either United Church in University Place Memorial Fund, or MultiCare Health Foundation, Attention: E Carol Milgard Breast Center, P.O. She was preceded in death by her parents William A. and Bertha Robblee and by her brother William H. Robblee. Lois attended school in Tacoma, graduating from Lincoln High School in 1946 and the University of Washington in 1951 with a degree in education. While at the U of W she was a member of the Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. She taught school at Sumner High School, DuPont, the Military Dependents School in Kaiserslautern, Germany and retired after 20 yrs. at Curtis Junior High School. During her time in Germany she enjoyed traveling throughout Europe, visiting every country on the continent. It was during this time she met her future husband, Gene, an officer in the U.S. Army. She will be dearly missed by her husband of forty-seven years, Gene McKay; her son Thomas McKay (Leslie) of Kent; her daughters Kathryn Risa (Steve) of Bellevue and Laurie DeLorey (Dean) of Boise, ID; eight grandchildren Allison & Erik Risa, Sean & Rachael McKay, Kyle, Madeline, Megan, McKayla DeLorey. 419. Donald Henry<sup>7</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Philip Theodore "Ted"<sup>6</sup>, John Henry<sup>5</sup>, James<sup>4</sup>, Joseph<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 12 Mar 1924 in Milton, Pierce Co., WA,<sup>144</sup> d. 8 Jun 2012 in Tacoma, Pierce Co., WA. When Donald Robblee enlisted in the Army Air Corps on 9 Nov 1945, he was single with no dependents. He and Kaye Sumiko were married in Japan. Her original name was Sumiko. Upon her naturalization about 1955, she asked that her name be changed to Kaye Sumiko Robblee.

"Don was born at home in Milton, WA on March 12, 1924. He passed away, June 8, 2012 at home in Tacoma. He was 88 years old. He was baptized in the Presbyterian Church.

His mother, Edith Miethke, was born in Fife; her parents were born in Germany. The Miethke family owned a nursery in Milton. His father, Philip Theodore (Ted) Robblee, was one of the Six Robblees. We can trace the Robblee family back to the mid 1700s, Prince Edward Island, Canada. Don had an older brother Ted Jr. who was killed in action in World War II. His younger brother, Jim, lives in Puyallup. Don and Jim were very close; they spoke everyday and saw each other often. Don also has two half sisters Marian-deceased, Marilyn and a half brother Robert Pettinger, of Tacoma. He has many cousins from both his mother's and father's side.

Don served in the United States Air Force 1945-1949 as an airplane crew chief at both McChord AFB and in Japan during the occupation. After his discharge at McChord, he went back to Japan as a civilian to marry Kaye Sumiko. He was in charge of the PX and the base motor pool as an Air Force civilian. After returning to the USA in 1953, they had two children, Kenneth and Jennifer.

Donald worked for 35 years as lead mechanic at Boeing; working on military aircraft such as the B-52, as well as the 707, 727, 737 and 747 passenger jets. He also had the privilege of working on several Air Force One presidential aircraft. Don was named Boeing Employee of the Month for May 1978. He also received several other commendations during his tenure.

After retirement he traveled by motor home along the west coast and cared for his wife, Kaye. They were married for 46 years until her passing in 1997. Don also enjoyed running errands for Ken's business, always eager to help. In his later years, after Kaye passed away, he spent a lot of time with his brother Jim, cousins, and walking his dog, Maggie. Ken especially enjoyed the frequent lengthy conversations with his dad during his last year. Don enjoyed hearing about his grandchildren and coming to watch their events. He enjoyed going to the Tacoma AM-VETS club, and frequented 2 local taverns to feel more youthful by being around younger people. He made friends easily and enjoyed telling stories. He had a happy disposition. He was kind, generous, and friendly and didn't let things worry him. He was a great dad, grandfather, brother and friend." He married Kaye Sumiko F. _____,<sup>7</sup> 17 Jan 1951 in Yokohama, Japan,<sup>144</sup> b. 15 Dec 1924 in Itano, Tokoshima, Japan,<sup>144</sup> d. 23 Apr 1997 in Tacoma, Pierce Co., WA (prob).<sup>90</sup>

- 744 i. Cedric "Rick"<sup>8</sup> Hotchkiss<sup>7</sup> b. 24 Apr 1959 in WA, d. 25 Mar 2005 in WA. Cedric (Rick) A. Hotchkiss III
Cedric (Ced, Rick) A. Hotchkiss III passed away March 25, 2005 after a valiant, four-year fight with brain cancer.
Rick was a sweet-natured, fun loving young man, who loved his family and friends and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.
Ced graduated from Peninsula High School in 1977 where he was active in student government, sports, music and debate. He also played trumpet for the Tacoma Youth Symphony during junior high and high school.
He was appointed to the U.S. Air Force Academy and played trumpet in the Air Force Band. He resigned after one year and enrolled in the University of Washington where he graduated with a BA in business in 1983. He worked for IDS as a financial planner and Russell Mellon as a special analyst until 2001. He kept his hand in music by playing for the Pierce College Band until 2001.
Cedric was preceded in death by his dad, Cedric A. Hotchkiss Jr. He is survived by his loving wife of eight years, Victoria; his daughter, Veneece; son, Joshua; Mother, Sarah and her companion, Norm Hemley and his sister, Laurie Carlson; two nieces, three nephews, many aunts, uncles and cousins. He also leaves his special buddies: Aki Wright, Boyd Hatch and fellow "Wrigley Brothers."

Interment will be at Mountain View Memorial Park, Tacoma with his beloved grandfather, John H. Robblee. Cedric was born April 24, 1959. A memorial celebration will be held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 24, 2005 at the Gig Harbor Eagles (4425 Burnham Drive). 526. Philip Maurice<sup>7</sup> Robblee<sup>7</sup> (Isiah Wallace<sup>6</sup>, Jacob Valentine<sup>5</sup>, Harris<sup>4</sup>, Thomas<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Andrew<sup>1</sup> Rublier), b. 1 Nov 1921, d. 27 Jan 2010 in Thunder Bay, ON, Canada, buried in Thunder Bay, ON, Canada. Philip Maurice Robblee passed away peacefully in his sleep on Wed. Jan.27, 2010 after a year long illness.

He is survived by a son in Thunder Bay and a daughter in Kakabeka Falls, a daughter in Ottawa, a daughter in Bobcaygeon, a grandson in Upsala and a granddaughter in Thunder Bay and their respective families, as well as a great granddaughter in Kakabeka Falls, two brothers and their families in Western Canada and many friends and extended family across the country.

Dad served in the Canadian Air Force from 1941-1945 and then transferred to the Reserves until retiring as a Warrant Officer 1st Class. He worked as a mechanic, an machinist and a real estate broker until retiring to his "paradise" at Open Bay on Lac Des Mille Lacs. He loved the outdoors, hunting, fishing, snowmobiling and riding on his quad runner with his faithful companion and "housekeeper" "Lily Marlene". He was never idle and was hard working all his life and enjoyed many projects in his garage and green house. Dad had a sharp mind for inventing and we'll remember his great sense of humour. Philip enjoyed having his family and friends close by. He was very community minded, was a member of the Masonic Lodge, and in retirement, lived his dream until his health failed.

He was predeceased by his parents, Wallace and Anna Robblee, wife Gladys (Nelson), son Bradley, grandson Jeffrey Crane, brothers Carl and Leonard, sisters-in-law Margarite Butler and Joan Savage, brothers in law Bob Butler, Keith and Ian Nelson.

Honouring Philip's wishes, there will be no funeral service. Cremation and interment have taken place. A private memorial service will take place at a later date. Arrangements are in care of the Westfort Chapel, 420 W. Gore St. a James. (Chronicle Journal, Thunder Bay). He married (1) Gladys Mary Nelson<sup>7</sup>, 1947, b. 1 May 1925, d. 24 Jul 1975. HALIFAX HERALD - 17 APRIL 2002

FRASER, Eileen Dorothea - The death of Eileen occurred Monday, April 15, 2002, she passed away peacefully in her sleep in Glen Haven Manor. She had previously been a resident of Trenton before moving to the manor. Born in Springhill, in 1914, she was a daughter of the late Charles and Alice (Booth) Roblee. She moved to New Glasgow, when she entered nurses training at the old Aberdeen Hospital, graduating in 1936. She was employed at Trenton Steel Works in the war effort, during the early 1940s. After the death of her husband, she did private duty nursing and in 1953 Eileen joined the nursing staff of the old Aberdeen Hospital. She continued nursing at the New Aberdeen and worked there until her retirement in 1979. She was noted for her sunny disposition, quick wit and kindness to both her patients and the student nurses who trained under her. She was an adherent of Christ The King Roman Catholic Church in Trenton. Eileen loved to travel and fondly remembered her six month trip with Marnie, Mark and Kerri throughout Canada and the United States. She spent many enjoyable weekends visiting her hometown of Springhill and her relatives there. When she lived in Trenton, Eileen's day was not complete without her cup of tea and biscuit at Margaret's. She was the last surviving member of her immediate family. She leaves to mourn daughters, Marjorie "Marnie" and her husband Mark Honiberg, West Hartford, Conn.; Elizabeth "Sissy" Fraser, Trenton; son, John and his wife Betty (Dorrington), Fort Saskatchewan, Alta.; 15 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren; 10 great great-grandchildren; many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband, John William "Jack" Fraser in 1950; sisters, Harriet Smith, Martha Bird, Thelma Montford, Margaret Roblee, Elizabeth Warren. "Catholic Medical Mission Board's inception dates to 1912 and the dream of Dr. Paluel Joseph Flagg, a young anesthesiology resident on the staff of St. Vincent's Hospital in New York City. Dr. Flagg's dream of assisting missionaries destined for medical work in foreign lands was spurred by a visit to the Caribbean. Struck by the poverty and illness which victims of Hansen's disease (leprosy) suffered, he became a spokesperson for "the destitute."

Other like-minded individuals joined Dr. Flagg in his mission endeavor. Monsignor Joseph McGlinchley, Director of the Propagation of the Faith in the Catholic Archdiocese of Boston and Father Frank Thill, Secretary of the Catholic Student's Mission Crusade in Cincinnati became early proponents for the establishment of medical missions. They encouraged superiors of mission congregations, doctors and nurses to support the recently established American missions in India and China.

By 1922 Dr. Flagg with the encouragement and blessing of Father Charles Moulinier, SJ, founder and first President of the Catholic Hospital Associate (CHA), established the formal Medical Mission Committee of the CHA. The Committee's goals included the establishment, provision and staffing of medical missions at home and abroad.

The success of the Medical Mission Committee was evident by 1928 when its members requested permission to assume independent control of the program. In February 1928 Catholic Medical Mission Board was incorporated in the state of New York." (<http://cmmb.org/dr-paluel-joseph-flagg>)

- 1055 i. Virginia Marie<sup>8</sup> Flagg b. 8 Oct 1912 in NY, d. 27 Jan 2011 in Maryknoll, Westchester Co, NY (res).<sup>63</sup> "CMMB [Catholic Medical Mission Board] honors the memory of Sister Virginia Flagg, daughter of our founder, Dr. Paluel Flagg. Sister Virginia was a Maryknoll nun who passed away last week at the age of 98. We, at CMMB, knew her well and in her, we saw her father, for Sister Virginia – like him – devoted herself to toiling in the vineyards of the underserved both in the United States and throughout the world.

Sister Virginia Marie Flagg died unexpectedly from heart failure on January 26, 2011 in Maryknoll Residential Care IV. She was 98 years old and had been a Maryknoll Sister for 80 years.

Virginia Marie was born on October 8, 1912 in Yonkers, NY to Stella Robblee Flagg and Dr. Paluel J. Flagg. Her mother died not long after her birth and her father remarried to Dorothy Flagg had 11 more children, eight boys and 3 girls. Her father, step-mother and six brothers have predeceased her. In 1913 her father, who knew the Maryknoll Fathers and Sisters, was the founder of a group that became the Catholic Medical Mission Board, with the purpose of providing medical practitioners and supplies to the missions.

Virginia attended St. Vincent's Academy in New York City graduating in 1929. She studied at Mt. St. Vincent College in Riverdale, NY for one year. She returned there from 1932-'35 and received an A.B. in English. She later received an M.A. in Education, major in Administration and Supervision from St. John's University in Jamaica, NY in 1971.

Virginia entered the Maryknoll Sisters on August 4, 1930 from St. Denis parish in Yonkers, NY. She received the religious name Sister Stella Marie. She made her First Profession of Vows on January 6, 1933 at the Maryknoll Sisters Center in Ossining, NY and her Final Profession on the same date in 1936 in Korea.

Sister Virginia was assigned to Manchuria in 1935. She taught grade 8 in Darien. Manchuria was occupied by the Japanese and the Sisters were interned in one of their convents in Darien at the outbreak of WWII for 9 months after which they were transferred by ship to Shanghai, China. After almost a year, they were sent on a Japanese ship to India where they exchanged ships with Japanese war prisoners returning to their own country. She was one of 11 Maryknoll Sisters aboard the M.S. Gripsholm who returned to the U.S. in December of 1943.

Sister Virginia was assigned to Hawaii in 1944 where she taught grade 5 in Maryknoll schools in Waikiki until 1950 and then in Punahou until 1954, both in Honolulu. She was then assigned to Transfiguration School in Chinatown, NYC in 1954 and served as Superior and Principal there from 1955-'58. In 1958 she was assigned to Hong Kong where she was Superior and taught in Maryknoll Convent School in Kowloontong for two years, then served as Superior and Principal of the Grade School first and after that of the High School in the Maryknoll Sisters School in Blue Pool Road, Hong Kong until 1970.

After her M.A. studies, Sister Virginia became the Director of Continuing Education at the Maryknoll Center from 1971-'73, and concurrently the Dean of Students at Rogers College 1972-'74. Assigned to California in 1974, she served first as Assistant Coordinator and then as Coordinator of the Maryknoll Sisters Retirement Community in Monrovia until 1980. She became the Director of Activities for the Maryknoll Sisters Nursing Home from 1981-'84. After a year's stint in the Treasury Department, she served as Coordinator of the Center Council from 1985-'88. She served in Special Service for the Elderly and Disabled for the nursing home from 1989-'94. In her retiring years, she has engaged in various volunteer activities around the Sisters Center. She remained active in her later years, teaching mini-classes in water coloring, writing poetry, taking part in a daily exercise group and playing bridge.

In the last few months, failing health required that Sister Virginia be admitted to Maryknoll Residential Care IV to better take care of her health needs and resided there until her death.

She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. Jane Duell, Mrs. Maryanne Gassner and Mrs. Dorothy Webster all of Vinal Haven, Maine, and two brothers, Noel M. Flagg of Scarsdale, New York and Thomas Flagg of Fairfield Glades, Tennessee and other relatives.

We here at CMMB send our prayers and condolences the the Flagg family. You may also make a donation in her memory." (<http://www.cmmb.org/memori-am-sister-virginia-flagg>).

Subject: A Passing

Good Morning,

Yesterday, word came that my Aunt Peggy Robblee had passed on. A blessing, perhaps, in that her health was failing and she had not been with us for some time.

Our family and hers were close in those years when we were growing up in the same city, Edmonton. She was a cook who provided meals for us all without, it seemed, any effort. Decorating cakes were her speciality and one arrived for my wedding after another aunt made the cake.

One fond memory of years ago was a night when we were visiting and my daughter, Deanne, was just under a year old. With the encouragement of Peggy's husband Alex, she took her first steps and was walking that night.

Peggy also painted and one of her landscapes hangs here, giving us a reminder of her when we pass it.

Until next time,
Bob [Robblee]

ROBBLEE, Margaret Ida (Peggy)

Margaret Ida (Peggy) Robblee, dearly loved mother of Jim (Wendy), Neil (Sue), Jean and Nancy (Rob), died peacefully in Edmonton on January 26th, 2012 at age 94 with Neil at her bedside, the others there in spirit. Born Peggy Tredger, eldest daughter of Cecil and Florence Elizabeth Tredger, she grew up in Edmonton with her brothers, Cecil (Enid) and Joe (Marion), and her sister, Ruth (Bruce). After receiving her BSc in Household Economics from the University of Alberta, and subsequently, her Dietetics qualification, Peggy worked in the Provincial Lab and taught lab courses to science students. One of those lucky students was Alex Robblee, whom she later married (Peg gave Alex a B in the course, his lowest mark ever). It was the beginning of a 62-year romance full of joy and gentle civility, which they displayed with remarkable consistency for their whole lives. Alex died on Boxing Day, 2004.

Besides being an outstanding wife, mother and cook, Peggy was proficient at every form of art she tried. She painted, quilted, sewed, knitted, silver-smithed and more. She was a life-long and voracious reader, a clever bridge player and an avid gardener. She volunteered with many organizations, was a member of the University Women's Club, the Dietetics Association and the Alberta Home Economics Association. She was an amazing mother and she was wonderful with her grandchildren, of whom she had 11: Jim and Susie's two children, Paula and Peter; Neil and Susan's four boys, David (who, heart-breakingly, died at age two), Colin, Spencer, and Ian; and Neil and Sue's son, Jim; Jean and Rod's two children, Dory and Ned; and Nancy and Rob's two children, David and Michelle. She also boasted four great-grandchildren: Susana and Alex, children of Paula and Miguel; and Leia and Isla, children of Colin and Vanlee. Peggy was a quiet, darling person. Never small-minded, always reasonable, she taught her children to practice "moderation in all things." She demonstrated all the best qualities of a good and loyal Canadian. She will be greatly, sadly, lovingly and forever missed by her children, her grandchildren, her great-grandchildren and all who knew her.

In lieu of flowers, do an act of kindness for someone who needs help, plant a flower in a neglected garden, and make peace with all around you. A Celebration of Peggy's Life will be held on Sunday, February 12, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. at the Derrick Golf & Winter Club, 3500 - 119 Street N.W., Edmonton.
