

Poultney Journal

March 2, 1928

Remains of Milton Roblee Brought Here for Burial

The body of Milton Roblee was brought here on Tuesday for burial, his death having occurred at Rochester, N. Y. on Saturday last. [25 Feb. 1928] He was the husband of Margaret A. Gould, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Gould, who for many years were residents of this town. He leaves his widow, two daughters, Dorothy and Frances of Rochester, and one son, Norman of Boston. Rev. E. J. O'Brien, pastor of St. Mary's at Rochester, of which the deceased was a communicant, also accompanied the remains here.

Mr. Roblee was a hotel man of prominence, owning at one time and operating the Hotel Bartholdi and Hotel Belle Clair of New York City. Afterwards he went to Scranton, Pa., as manager of the Casey, going from there in 1917 to Rochester to assume management of the Hotel Rochester. In 1922 he bought Hotel Osborn, shortly thereafter losing his eyesight, but continued in active management of the hotel practically up to the time of his death.

The funeral was held at St. Mary's in Rochester on Monday morning and the remains arrived here on the 10:03 Tuesday morning. There were taken to St. Raphael's church and blessed by Rev. Stanley Czerewski, and interment was made in the R. C. cemetery. The bearers were: O. W. McShane, J. F. Sennett, M. J. Laughan, G. W. McGrath and Edward Conway of Poultney, and M. J. Tyler of North Granville.

Among those attending were: John H. Gould and daughter, of Rochester; Mrs. Jennie Wilson of Houstonville, N. Y.; Mrs. B. L. Turney of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Tyler and son of North Granville; Mrs. Alice Gould and son and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Drake of Granville; Mr. and Mrs. E. McGraw of Middle Granville; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Turney of Fort Edward, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. William Clifford and son, Rutland; Mrs. Thomas Murray and Mrs. Edward Sinnott of New York City.