The original research on the Canadian Robblees was done by Bob Robblee. I well remember the day that the phone rang in my Vermont home – more than 25 years ago? And it was Bob, a new-found cousin. We had a great conversation, which led to a collaboration over many years. I owe a debt of gratitude to Bob, who generously shared his research with me. I have worked to expand it, including adding newly available sources over the years. But truly, the credit goes to him.

The Canadian Robblees are descended from the Loyalist branch of the family. John Robblee and his brother Thomas settled in Nova Scotia when they found themselves no longer welcome in the colonies. The family stayed in the Maritimes for many years, but eventually some branches found their way to the Canadian West, and some back to the US, where their ship-building and sailing expertise were put to good use in the Boston area.

Most of the modern-day Robblees are of this family. Some of the family did adopt the spelling Roblee.

I would ask that anyone using this report not turn “speculation” into “fact” when using the data for his or her own purposes. I welcome any questions, criticisms, confirmations, rebuttals, etc. My interest is in placing all of the individuals in their own families, locations and historical context.

Conventions used:

- A date with “est” in front of it is, in fact, an estimate.
- A date with abt in front of it is more likely to be more accurate than an estimated date, as it is based on what is known about the individual or family.
- A date of birth followed by (cal) is calculated from date and age of death.
- A location with a question mark after it – a guess based on where people were last known to be living.
- A location with (prob) after it – a stronger supposition than above.
- A location with (res) after it – usually the place where the last Social Security benefit was sent.

Sources are included in the endnotes and in the narrative. We try for primary sources where they are available. Identifying information on individuals who are less than 100 years old who do not have death dates.

In 2018, a Roblee/Roblee YDNA study was initiated by Linda McGinnis. The project, called Roblee DNA Project, is housed at FTDNA. It is open to all family members. The more people who participate, the better. We hope that this project will help us to settle some longstanding questions about our family’s origins.

Additions, corrections and questions are always most welcome.

Generation One

1. John Robblee, b. bef 9 Mar 1739/40 in Huntington, Suffolk Co., NY,¹ (son of Andrew Rublier [1709 -] and Abigail Hawkins), d. 14 Jan 1810 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada,² buried in Dotten Cem., Cumberland Co., NS, Canada.² John Robblee bought land in the Nine Partner's Patent in October of 1765, with his brother Thomas. After a couple of years, he released his share of the property to Thomas, and went to live on land he had purchased in Dutchess County from Indians. He later returned to Nine Partners. Presumably, this is the John Rubelee who was chosen fence viewer in the Crum Elbow Precinct of Dutchess Co., NY on 6 Apr 1773 (Source: Roosevelt, Franklin D., ed. Records of the Crum Elbow Precinct. Dutchess County Historical Society 1738-1761. Collections of the Dutchess County Historical Society, Vol VII, 1940)

The two brothers were Loyalists, and were forced from their lands. They served in the British army during the Revolution. In 1783, they left New York for Nova Scotia, where they were given land in compensation for lands confiscated.

The following is quoted from an article by Brian McConnell, UE, titled Cairn to Westchester Loyalists in North Wallace, N.S. It is available at: <<http://www.uelac.org/PDF/Cairn-to-Westchester-Loyalists-in-North-Wallace-NS.pdf>>. The article paints a picture of what it was like for the families who left New York for Nova Scotia in 1783.

"The Loyalists who settled here left New York during the first week of June, 1783 on board two vessels, the "Thetis" and the "Nicholas and Jane". They travelled up the Bay of Fundy and landed at Fort Cumberland on July 15. It was considered too late in the year to continue on to Remsheg as there would not be time to build shelters and plant before the winter. After wintering in tents at Fort Cumberland, the Loyalists completed their journey in the spring of 1784.

Among the leaders accompanying the Loyalists were several Officers who had served in a Loyalist battalion known as Delanceys Volunteers or Westchester Light Horse, at Westchester, New York. These included Captain Moses Knapp who in 1783 had been - 3 - ordered by Sir Guy Carleton to serve at Westchester. He and Captain Samuel Kipp, also of Westchester, were both granted lands at Remsheg. They and members of their families left for exile in Nova Scotia.

The Dotten family that donated the land for the Loyalist Cairn remembers their family connection well. According to a story that appeared in the Truro Daily News on June 18, 2008, on the occasion of the 225 anniversary of the arrival of the Loyalists, family member Marion Dotten the described the history. She told how when James Dotten sailed into Wallace Bay more than two centuries ago he had meagre supplies but nonetheless great ambition. He and hundreds of others had fled from the United States to Nova Scotia's North Shore leaving behind all his worldly possessions.

"They were treated very badly after the war," said Marion Dotten. "They were persecuted, tarred and feathered. They ran them out. Everything they had was confiscated or burned. I imagine he was quite excited to see the trees lined up to the edge of the shore when he arrived here, excited to see the new possibilities." Dotten arrived with only a few building tools, a cow and enough food for a year. His wife Abigail and two children under the age of three stayed in New York but set out on foot to reunite with their husband carrying little more than the clothes on their back.

There were 109 lots of 200 acres each in the Remsheg Grant for the Westchester Loyalists. The Deed was dated June 16, 1785 and registered July 14, 1785 . A transcribed copy which indicates the names is attached as Appendix A. (4) They were also each given one of 239 three acre building lots in the surveyed township of Fanningsborough, part of the Remsheg Grant. It was named after Colonel Edmund Fanning, who had raised a regiment of Loyalists called the Kings American Regiment. He fled to Nova Scotia in 1783 where he was appointed Lieutenant Governor and received a grant of 800 acres. In 1786 he was appointed Lieutenant Governor of St. John's Island (later named Prince Edward Island) The descendants of many of these families that were granted lands are still in the area today including surnames such as: Brown, Dotten, Forshner, McKim, Piers, Tuttle, and Williams."

"By family tradition, the Robblees are of Scotch origin, but more probably the name is an Anglified form of the German Rapalye. (Sabine mentions several prominent Loyalists of New York named Rapalje and Rapelje. ED.) This name when spoken sounds to English ears very like Rabbalee, from which the transition to Robblee is easy. JOHN ROBBLEE came with other Loyalists to Clements, where so many of Dutch and German extraction settled, bringing with him his eldest son, Thomas. Before 1800 the latter was in Granville, on a farm which comprised the most interesting spot, historically, in the Dominion, perhaps on the continent the site of Demonts' first fort and settlement, and of the Scotch settlers of 1621-1630 ; and when he took possession the outlines of the old Scotch works were plainly visible. A dwelling house, built twenty to thirty years ago, stands on the very spot where Champlain's map of 1605 shows the bakery stood. In digging the cellar, a bar of iron, such as would be used to support the arch of an oven, several cannon-balls and shells, and fire-bricks of foreign make were unearthed. John's sons, William and Joseph, went to New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and founded families in those provinces. THOMAS ROBBLEE, son of Joseph, adopted by his uncle Thomas, who had no children, was born 1774, died 1854, married 1798, Hannah Delap, born 1780, died 1877." (History of the County of Annapolis, 1897, page 582)

In 1999, Bob Robblee said the following on the Roblee listserv: "Surprisingly, one of the best collections of Loyalist Records is housed in the New York Library. I'm not familiar with which exact building in which this is housed, but I have seen documents taken from that source. The Memorials, as they were called, or Petitions to the King, of John and Thomas Robblee, for the lands they had lost were found there by a previous researcher, now passed on, Pearl Anderson Donnan, whose Mother was Atlanta Grace Robblee, from Annapolis, Nova Scotia. John Robblee, I believe, served in the Weschester Loyalists under Col. Delancey. Two reasons for this: John settled with the rest of that group in the Ramsheq Valley near Wallace, Nova Scotia and Col. Delancey was present when John Robblee re-filed from St. John, now New Brunswick, in 1786. The first bit of information is from a book, The King's Loyal Americans, written in 1950 and the second reference was information sent via Bill Tufts, who specializes in finding NY State Loyalists".

"ROBBLEE, JOHN. Of New York. A native of Long Island, Robblee was living at Nine Partners in Dutchess County when the war began. He had a farm there consisting of 90 acres, mostly cultivated, and a 450 acre tract in Dutchess County, 40 acres of which were improved. Robblee moved to New York in 1777, and worked as a labourer there until he joined Colonel De Lancey in May 1780. He settled afterwards at Wallace, Nova Scotia, and estimated his loss at British £321 sterling. He received £212 sterling. (Biographical Sketches of Loyalists of The American Revolution" by Greg Palmer (Westport, CT: Meckler Publishing, Westport, CT, 1984), page 731

"In 1785 the Loyalists received large grants at Cobequid (Westchester) and Ramshag (Wallace). At Cobequid 31,750 acres were distributed on the 2nd of June among 85 persons representing 246 men, women and children. The grantees were:

New Claim

St. John [New Brunswick]

31 October 1786

Evidence on the Claim of John Robblee late of the Great Nine Partners in New York Province

Claimant Sworn:

Assigns the same reason as Samuel Kipps for not having claimed under the former Act of Parliament, see page 200 of this book.

He is a native of Long Island, when the war broke out he resided in Nine Partners, he lived on his own property which he farmed.

Says he never joined the Americans, neither did he ever take an oath or sign any Association with them.

He joined the British in 1777 and worked as a labourer until 1780 when he joined Colonel Delaney and continued to act with the Refugees until 1783 when he came to Cumberland and now resides at Ramsheg.

Property No. 1. 43(?) Acres in Dutchess County, New York Province. Produces a deed dated in 1764 whereby D. Nimham (?) and Stephen Browham Indians in consideration of £100 currency convey to claimant a certain tract of land in Dutchess county as bounded - no quantity is mentioned in the deed.

Property. This was wild land in 1764. Claimant cleared about 40 acres and built a house on it. He resided there six years.

When he removed to Nine Partners, he left it in possession of John Bates, he paid no rent.

He said he could have sold it for £300 and has been informed it has been sold.

Property No. 2. 60 Acres in Nine Partners. Produces deed dated in 1769 whereby Jacobus Consenttus (?) conveys to claimant in consideration of £65 currency 60 acres of land in Nine Partners, when he bought it was unimproved.

Says he cleared and cultivated most part of it and built a Dwelling House and Barn on it.

Says he could have sold it for £300 currency and it was in high cultivation.

This he considers the principal part of his claim as he cannot tell how No. 1 is situated.

Produces a certificate from Nehemiah Heart dated October 1783. That he (Hearts) had purchased the farm of John Robblee in Nine Partners from John Adams who had bought it when sold under confiscation.

Property. Two horses which had been brought in by the Refugees, left at the evacuation £60. They were his own property at Nine Partners.

Two cows taken by the Rebels.

Thirty-two sheep likewise on his farm.

Corns - in the barn £10, in the ground £10

Furniture £18

Farming utensils £6

Book Debts £14

He owed about £8

His surname is spelled Roblee on his gravestone.

I will and direct that an equal division thereof be made amongst the whole of my surviving sons, my son Thomas only excepting, to share and share alike Acre for Acre, the division lines to run North and South. Probate granted to Jane Roblee, John Leard, and William Lind, Executrix and Executors within named on the oath of John Laing, a subscriber witness, Dated 3 June 1828.

Joseph Robblee appears to have removed to PEI about 1800, as there was no record of him being there during the census of 1798. Both his children and that of his brother, William, travelled back and forth between PEI and NS via the Northumberland Strait.

He married Jane Penman, 26 Jun 1802 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, b. 1783 in PEI, Canada (daughter of David Penman [1755 -] and Jean Brown?), d. 28 Nov 1864 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada. Jane was the oldest daughter of David Penman. David Penman's will mentions his grandson David Robblee.

- + 8 ii. Susannah Robblee b. 1811.
- 9 iii. Thomas Robblee, b. abt 1812 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. aft 25 Apr 1828. There is no record of Thomas Robblee after the settling of his father's and grandfather's estates in 1832. His father Joseph's will mentioned land left to him by his father in Malagache that needed to be settled. He may well be the Thomas that married Abigail Read in NS although there seems to be 10 years spread in birth dates. (Bob Robblee).

The portion bequeathed to his brother Thomas, was sold to a William Tuttle and Thomas held the mortgage. In his will of 1849, Thomas leaves the matter to be settled by his sons. If Wm. Tuttle clears the mortgage, he is to be given clear title. Bob Robblee wonders if the records from 1832 record this mortgage or if there is a record of settlement from the 1855 era. No interest or payments had been made up to the writing of Thomas' will.

5. Thomas Robblee, b. 23 Dec 1774 in Dutchess Co., NY (prob),⁹ d. 3 May 1854 in Granville, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada,¹⁰ buried in Stoney Beach Cem., Granville Beach, NS, Canada.¹⁰ "Married 23 Apr 1797 in Granville Township, by Rev. H. CHIPMAN, Thomas ROBBLEE, native of Nine Partners, United States, and Hannah DELAP, daughter of James DELAP". (Marriage Records of Annapolis and Digby Counties, Nova Scotia compiled by Wayne W. Walker, Ottawa, Ontario)

Thomas's uncle Thomas Robblee left his property to this Thomas, to be received after the death of the elder Thomas' wife Mary (Allen) Robblee.

"Thomas Robblee was the son of a Loyalist who was one of the original grantees of the township of Clements. His farm occupies and includes one of the most interesting historical spots in Nova Scotia, the old Scotch Fort, some outlines of which, it is said, are still traceable, although more than two and a quarter centuries old! His family, it is believed, were of French origin, and came to this province from New York." (History of the County of Annapolis, 1897, p. 220)

The following is the text of Thomas Robblee's will:

In the name of God, Amen I Thomas Robblee of Granville, County of Annapolis and Province of Nova Scotia, Yeoman, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner following: I resign my soul to God Almighty and hope for salvation through the merits of my blessed Redeemer Jesus Christ. I desire to be interred as my Executors hereinafter, named shall direct. As to my temporal estate I shall make the following disposition. First, I order that all my just debts shall be fully paid.

I will and bequeath to my sons Thomas and Joseph, the farm on which I now live and the marsh in front belonging thereto, also the marsh in front of William McKenzie's except eight rods and a half a rod, adjoining the lower range of the marsh to be especially divided amongst them, the west half to Joseph and the east half to Thomas, their heirs and assigns. I will and bequeath to my son Thomas the Daly place, the store and wharf thereon, his heirs and assigns forever.

I will and bequeath to my son Joseph, his heirs and assigns what land of lot No. 6 has not been deeded to my son Harris, being about five rods on the west side of the Daly place from the road to the river.

I will and bequeath to my son John, his heirs and assigns the west side of lot No. 6. Also one half of marsh on the west side with the exception of one acre on the west side called Coleman marsh adjacent to the river.

I will and bequeath to my son Harris, his heirs and assigns, the east half of Lot No. 6. the lines running six rods fro the north side of the barn where it now stands, also eight rods and one half of marsh beginning on the division line between the two lines of north and continuing said widths across the lot of marsh in front of Wm. McKenzie. Also one acre of marsh adjoining the bank of the river out of the Coleman marsh, so called.

As respects my part of the property at Wallace, Nova Scotia, left me by my father, I give the same to my sons Thomas and Joseph, their heirs and assigns, provided William Tuttle to whom I sold it should fail to pay the note of twenty five pounds, eight shillings and sixpence that I held against him with interest from date August 22, 1832. In case said Tuttle pays said note with interest when called for, my sons Thomas and Joseph shall give him just claim.

I will and bequeath to my sons Thomas and Joseph, their heirs and assigns, and to be equally divided, my personal property, except the household furniture.

I will and bequeath to my son James, five shillings, also all my demands in book accounts or otherwise against him.

I will and bequeath to my daughter Sarah, forty five pounds to be paid to her by Thomas and Joseph, also to be comfortably provided with a home in homestead during her life as long as she remains single.

I will and bequeath to my daughters Ann and Susan, their heirs and assigns, to each, five pounds in cash and also a note of hand against William Henry and Reed Hall to be paid by my sons John and Harris.

John, Thomas, Harris and Joseph shall provide a good home and satisfactory support at an equal cost, for their mother where she may prefer to live. If she prefers to provide for herself, then my sons above named shall pay her twenty pounds a year for her life. Provided that one or more of my sons, John, Thomas, Harris, and Joseph shall fail to pay his or their proportion of their mother's support or dower, the property of mine willed to them shall be rented to pay such demands to my wife, their mother.

I will and bequeath to my son John all my wearing apparel.

I will and bequeath to my wife, Hannah, all my household furniture to do with as she may deem proper and I nominate my son Thomas and Joseph Robblee, of Granville, Executors to this my last will and testament.

In Witness whereof, I have herein to set my hand this eighth day of November in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty nine.

7. Martha Robblee, b. 1804 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 1843 in PEI, Canada. Given that Nathaniel married again, Martha must have died young. In the census of 1841, his household includes 2 sons and 4 daughters under the age of 16, so he and Martha must have had more children than are listed here. His second marriage to Jane Brown Leard occurred in Sep 1845. She was much younger, born in 1826. They had 8 children together.

She married Nathaniel Clark, bef 1828 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, b. abt 1801 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (son of John Clark and Elizabeth "Betsy" Lord), d. 1876 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.

He later married Margaret Ramsey and removed to Wisconsin. I do not find him in the 1850 census for Wisconsin, but he died in 1855 in Rosendale, WI. Presumably, the Murrays moved to Wisconsin between 1850 and 1855. In 1860, George's widow Margaret Murray lived in Rosendale. Jane and Theophilus lived with her. The place of birth for both is given as New Brunswick.

Sherman), d. 19 Dec 1912 in Goodhue Co., MN, buried in Zumbrota Cem., Zumbrota, Goodhue Co., MN.¹⁷ BOOK - HISTORY OF GOODHUE COUNTY, MN. PUBLISHED IN 1909. Henry M. Scofield, of Zumbrota village, retired farmer and estimable citizen, was born in Saratoga county, New York, January. 12, 1831, and has therefore already passed the three score and ten mark which Solomon made proverbial. The father, Miner Scofield (April 19, 1796-December 2, 1850), and the mother, Lydia Sherman Scofield (June 6, 1801-October 8, 1854), migrated in 1848 from New York state to Fond du Lac county, Wis., and spent the remainder of their days on a farm. Henry M. attended the schools of his native county, and also received a part of his education in Wisconsin, to which state he removed with his parents at the age of seventeen years. After leaving school he remained at home, taking charge of his father's farm until 1857. From that date is reckoned his career in Goodhue county. He purchased 160 acres in Pine Island township, about one mile from Zumbrota village, and had subdued the wild acres to a profitable degree of cultivation when the Civil War broke out. Responding to the call of his country, he enlisted in 1862 in Company B, Thirty-second Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, and served until the close of the war. After being mustered out and honorably discharged he returned to his farm, there remaining until 1901, when he sold the place to his son and removed to Zumbrota village, where he has since lived a retired life. During his more active days he served as road overseer and school clerk of his district in Pine Island township; and in Scofield Post, No. 121, G. A. R., he has held all the offices, now serving his twelfth term as chaplain. He was married January 30, 1853, to Mary A. Scofield, who died at the family residence in Pine Island, April 2, 1861. To this union three children were born. Ella M., born April 8, 1855, is now Mrs. Ella M. Shedd, a widow living in California. George H., born May 5, 1857, died March 29, 1886. William F., born September 2, 1859, lives in South Dakota. On January 30, 1866, at Rosendale, Wis., Mr. Scofield married Jane C. Murray, daughter of George and Margaret (Paamsey) Murray. Her parents migrated from Prince

Edward's Island, Canada, to Illinois, in 1844, and moved to Wisconsin in 1854. The father was born June 30, 1791, and died November 30, 1855, while the latter was born March 17, 1899. Mrs. Scofield was born at Prince Edward's Island, July 28, 1835. She has borne to Henry M. Scofield five children. Edward H., born April 12, 1867, is an electrical engineer in St. Paul. Margaret A., born June 17, 1870, is a dressmaker living at home. Lewis M., born November 2, 1873, farms on the old homestead. Carrie L., born July 18, 1876, is now Mrs. Skillman, a widow residing in Zumbrota. Frank M., born January 18, 1878, died April 3, 1899. The Congregational faith is the religious belief of the family.

She married Edward Nathan Harris, Rev., est 1827 in Granville, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada (prob), b. 23 Feb 1806 in Cornwallis, Kings Co., NS, Canada,⁴⁰ (son of David Harris, Rev.), d. 26 Jan 1880 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co., PA,⁴¹ buried in Phillips Academy Cem., Andover, MA.⁴⁰ Edward Nathan Harris was a Baptist minister, who had a brief conversion to Universalism before returning to the Baptist Church. His first wife, Mary Ann Robblee, died at age 31, not long after the death of their youngest child. Both she and Rev. Harris are buried at the cemetery at the Philips Exeter Academy. Edward married again, 2 years later in Boston or Malden, MA, Sarah George. The couple had a number of other children - at least Mary, Charles, Ann, David and Agnes. Agnes was born in NB, Canada; the others in the US.

The General Catalogue of the Theological Seminary Andover, Massachusetts 1808-1908 (Boston, Ma: Thomas Todd, 1908, page 166); summarizes his career as follows:

"Edward Nathan Harris (1834-37) b. Cornwallis, N. S. July 23, 1806; ord. (Bapt.) 1826; p. Lubec, Me., Calais, East Machias 1825-34; (Univ.) Methuen, Mass. 1838-39; ed. and prop'r S. S. The Catalog does not mention his stay in New Brunswick. However, in 1851, he was a minister living Hopewell, Albert Co., NB. The census indicates that he was born in Nova Scotia. All of his children were born in the US except for the youngest. The family arrived in NB in 1849. His two daughters from his first marriage, Sarah and Harriet, lived with them. Sarah would marry in St. John, NB in 1852.

The following are excerpts from Fifty Years with the Baptist ministers and churches of the Maritime provinces of Canada. Saint John, NB: Barnes & Co.:

"The following record appears in the Minutes of 1826: "Requests having been made for the ordination Of Brethren John Hull and Edward N. Harris, they gave a statement of their religious experience, doctrinal views, and call to the ministry. The council, after due deliberation, concluded to ordain Brother Hull, but on account of the youth and inexperience of Brother Harris, thought it best to defer his ordination, though well satisfied of his piety, call to the ministry, &c. the day following, Brother Hull was ordained. The whole of the services were solemn and interesting; and a numerous assembly appeared heartily to join in wishing success, in the name of the Lord, to our young Brother.

It is added: - Brother Hull is a native of the eastern part of the Province, and has been engaged in preaching four or five years; and has been made the instrument of good to many. He was, at his first entrance upon the ministry, a Pedo-baptist, but has lately embraced the principles of adult baptism, and was immersed, together with several of the people among whom he had labored, by one of our Missionary brethren.

Brother E. N. Harris was ordained soon after by his father, Rev. David Harris and others associated with him." (page 55)

"This departed servant of God [David Harris] was the son of the late Mr. Lebbeus Harris, of Cornwallis, N. S. . . David Harris was twice married, and was the father of twelve children, one of whom was the late Rev. E. N. Harris." (page 248)

"Rev. E. N. Harris inst. pastor of the Baptist Church, Calais (Me.), July 4, 1834." (The American Baptist Magazine, Volume 14, p. 444)

"In the year 1844, he [Brother Campbell] experienced religion, and was baptized by the late Rev. E. N. Harris, and united with the Baptist Church at Woodstock." (page 548)

"Death of a Baptist Minister. - Rev. Edward N Harris, A well-known Baptist minister, aged about seventy-five years, died at an early hour yesterday morning at his residence in Germantown, after an illness of several days. Mr. Harris was formerly pastor of a Baptist Church in Baltimore. He was then called to the First Baptist Church in Germantown, where he remained for two years. He was subsequently pastor of the Mariners' Bethel for a short time, and, at the time of his death, was prevented by ill health from being engaged in any active work. He leaves a widow and several children. One of his sons is the captain of the steamship Pennsylvania, of the American line, and another is a Baptist minister. The funeral services will take place this morning at the First Baptist Church, Germantown." (The Philadelphia Inquirer (Philadelphia, Pennsylvania), 27 Jan 1880)

"During the winter of 1834 and 1835, Drs. Beecher and Wisner held a four days' meeting here which awakened considerable religious interest. E. N. Harris, a member of the Baptist Church at Calais, Me., but at that time a student at Andover Theological Seminary, supplied the Baptist pulpit with such acceptance that he was elected pastor January 23, 1835, with permission to complete his studies at the Seminary. Notwithstanding the necessary interruptions by such an arrangement the letter to the Association for 1835 can report: "The labors of Rev. E. N. Harris have been blessed of God. Since his settlement former differences have, in a great measure, disappeared; we have enjoyed harmony and peace; the services have been well attended; benevolence has revived; four young brethren have expressed their desire to prepare for the great work of preaching the gospel, and twentyone converts have been baptized." The four young licentiates who appeared to rejoice the church in these dark days were Joseph Burt, Leonard Conroy, John Boyd and Richard H. Chase. The benevolence amounted to $833 that year because $500 was presented to the struggling interest at Andover. But the ministry of Elder Harris that opened so auspiciously closed very speedily. Called in January, 1835, his resignation went into effect July 1, 1836. He was a large man and evidently a wit, for in a short note laying down his charge of the parish he says: "Being deeply interested in your welfare for-time and eternity. I have determined on resigning my charge to abler and better hands." It may be of interest to antiquaries to know that Mr. Harris lived in the Brickett house on Water Street, Elder Keely in the old house on Mill Street, Elder Batchelder at the foot of Fleet Street, and Dr. Smith where the Daggett Building now stands. Mr. Harris' successor lived in the house of the late Dr. Crowell, facing the common.

Elder Harris joined the church by letter February 5, 1836, and in granting him a letter of dismissal the clerk records the feeling of pleasure experienced by the church from the fact that the dissolution of the connection does not arise from the want of harmony between pastor and people. Mr. Harris joined the Baptist church in Maiden. While he was pastor here, he used to warn young men to beware of Summer Street, referring to the Universalist services that had been inaugurated on the hill. Strange to say this zealous defender of Orthodoxy proved to be unstable as a wave of the sea and the next time he preached in this village it was on Summer Street against which he had so earnestly inveighed." (Historical Discourse Delivered on the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the First Baptist Church of Haverhill, Mass).

"Thanks to Sandra Furman, a family member of the Furman family who descended from William and Sarah (Harris) Shackford, we are able to share scanned pages of the Family Bible given to William and Sarah (Harris) Shackford. We don't know when the Bible was given to the married couple but know that it was given to them after their wedding which was held on Oct 20, 1852 because the Bible was published in 1854.

The beautiful cover of the Bible is engraved

To William & Sarah L
from her father E. N. H.

That last initial on the cover was difficult to read but we are confident that it is an H for the following reasons:

The Bible includes a section called Marriages which states

William Shackford
and
Sarah L Harris
at
St John New Brunswick
October 20th 1852

Also, this was posted on the Shackford Family History Blog on 4/18/2016:

"Sarah Lincoln Harris was born July 28 1834 in Barnstable, Massachusetts to Rev Edward Nathan and Mary Ann (Robblee) Harris. She was only 18 when she married William Shackford in St John, New Brunswick where we believe her father was working as a minister. Her husband received his seaman's certificate in Philadelphia, served aboard the Nahant in 1864, and was honorably discharged on November 11, 1865 while they kept a home in Eastport, Maine. They moved to Philadelphia before 1880 and in 1881 he served aboard the S S Ohio and then worked for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company traveling to and from Colon. They raised two daughters, Caroline Noyes and Marcia Parepa and on occasion accompanied him on a trip to Colon. The family was occasionally mentioned in the newspaper when they summered in Cape May.

When Sarah died on October 2, 1897, her obituary was published the next day in the New York Times: "Mrs. William Shackford. Sarah Lincoln Shackford, wife of Capt. William Shackford, for many years senior Captain of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's fleet, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Silas Furman, at the Brockholst, 101 West Eighty-fifth Street, yesterday. Mrs. Shackford had been ill for some time past. Her daughter, Miss Marcia Shackford, married Silas Furman, half-brother of Mrs. James M. Waterbury and Mrs. Frank Lazarus, last year." When the church finally became active in the mid-1850s, he was not listed as a pew holder.

The "Mary Ann" is recorded sinking off Sable Island, Dec. 1852. He may have transported his father and some of his siblings to England, 1835-40. Also, the Mary Ann is listed as transporting John Robley from England to NS in 1823.

"In 1831, Thomas Robblee, residence Tryon River, PEI, occ farmer/planter is halfowner and builder of schooner (1 deck, 2 masts, 57 ft long by 18 ft wide and 8 ft deep, gross tonnage 74) named Mary Ann, registration number I831009 with Joseph Callbeck; constructed/registered in 1831, closed in 1832 in Newfoundland because they transferred it to a new port." In 1855, Mary was a widow living in Mansfield, MA. Alonzo, Selina, James and Isadora lived with her. Isadora's place of birth is given as Mansfield, so apparently the Robblees moved to Mansfield between 1851 and 1853. Presumably John died there.

53. Eliza C. Robblee, b. 1847 in PEI, Canada, d. 14 Mar 1881 in Prince Co., PEI, Canada (prob), buried in Baptist Church Cem., Westmoreland, Queens Co., PEI, Canada.⁷¹ In his will, Henry Robblee lists her as his niece. Eliza or Elizabeth died of tuberculosis.

In 1881, William Francis was a widower living in Prince Co., PEI with his two children. Thirty-nine year old Elizabeth Gambel, a tailoress, was also in the home. William married second, in Dec 1881, Elizabeth Large, who died of tuberculosis on 10 Jun 1882. He married third, in Dec 1882, her sister Josephine Large.

Bob Robblee reports that Sharon Sergeant of Massachusetts has come across a record of a daughter of Joseph Robblee Francis marrying a Murdock Dawson. He wonders if this could be a fourth child of this family. However, this does not seem to be the case.

She married William Edward Francis, 19 Dec 1872 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,²⁵ b. 12 Jul 1846 in PEI, Canada,⁵⁴ (son of George Francis and Louisa Ann Thomas), d. 17 Mar 1906 in PEI, Canada, buried in Baptist Church Cem., Westmoreland, Queens Co., PEI, Canada.⁷¹

54. John Wesley Robblee, b. 1850 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 25 Jun 1891 in Charlottetown, Queens Co., PEI, Canada (res),⁷² buried in Baptist Church Cem., Westmoreland, Queens Co., PEI, Canada.⁷³ In 1891, J. Wesley and Louise Robblee lived in Prince Co., PEI with their seven children: Maud, Jane, Minto, Clara, Frank, Roby and George. Wesley died that year, leaving Louise with a large family to support. None were yet married. It appears that the youngest children were raised by others.

In 1900, Louise/Louisa married second, Tristram Wooldridge or Woolridge. In 1901, she lived with Tristram in Charlottetown. Four of his children were in the home, but none of her children lived in household.

Louise is buried John Wesley Robblee. Interestingly, son Roy Minto Robblee shares a stone with Tristram and his first wife.

James married second, Josephine Caddigan, on 14 Sep 1896 in Newton, MA. He continued to live in Newton through at least 1930 when he was a retired electrician. Daughter Georgette, age 42, lived with him. Georgette did not have an occupation.

Children:

- 172 i. Frank Helena Trefry, b. 22 Dec 1883 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,⁷⁹ d. 21 Oct 1962 in Pembroke, Plymouth Co., MA,⁶¹ buried in Glenwood Cem., Maynard, Middlesex Co., MA.⁸⁰ On her birth record, her name is first given as Frankie Helena, but that is crossed out and her name is given as Frank Helena. On her marriage record her name is given as Frank H. Trefry. In later census enumerations, her name is given variously as Frank and Frances. On her gravestone, her name is given as Frances H. Young. She and Charles lived in Stoneham and Maynard, MA. It does not appear that they had children.

She married Charles Obed Young, 22 Dec 1908 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA,⁸¹ b. 28 Jan 1870 in Providence, Providence Co., RI,⁸² (son of George W. Young and Mary S. McKay), d. 5 Mar 1952 in Maynard, Middlesex Co., MA,^{80,61} buried in Glenwood Cem., Maynard, Middlesex Co., MA.⁸⁰

Children:

- + 174 i. Harry Russell Robblee b. 29 Nov 1874.

59. Jean Mary "Jennie" Robblee, b. 23 Aug 1860 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 26 Oct 1929 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA (prob), buried in Newton Cem., Newton, Middlesex Co., MA.⁷⁶ In her will, she leaves everything to her nephew Harry R. Robblee. Raised by his grandmother as her own, Harry could not have been Joseph's son as he had died in 1869. Bob Robblee speculates that Harry was Jean's biological son. However, when Harry applied for a Social Security Number in the US, he gave his parents names as Joseph Robblee and Lydia Robblee. So perhaps Jean was really his aunt. Jean did not have children who lived to adulthood, so it makes some sense that she would have left a bequest to her nephew.

"Jennie" Mowry was head of household in Newton, MA in 1900 and 1910. She was a widow. Her mother Ann Robblee lived with her.

Edward Mowry was married previously, in 1879, to Harriet Price, who died in 1888.

She married Edward Livingston Mowry, 8 Jun 1892 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,²⁸ b. 8 Sep 1854 in Smithfield, Providence Co., RI (son of Enos Mowry and Sarah J. Harris), d. 25 Dec 1894 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA (prob), buried in Newton Cem., Newton, Middlesex Co., MA.⁷⁶ Jean was Edward's second wife.

Children:

- 175 i. Grace "Adelaide" Mowry, b. 14 Aug 1894 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,⁸⁵ d. 1 Apr 1895 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,²⁶ buried in Newton Cem., Newton, Middlesex Co., MA.⁷⁶

63. Harry Russell Robblee, b. 29 Nov 1874 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,⁷⁸ d. 23 Mar 1948 in Anderson Co., SC,⁸⁶ buried in Newton Cem., Newton, Middlesex Co., MA.⁷⁶ Harry Robblee's marriage record gives his parents as Joseph Robblee and Ann Nelder. However, he was born 5 years after Joseph died. He was likely a grandson, raised by Ann. He lived with her as early as 1881.

When Harry applied for a Social Security number in 1936, he gave his parents as Joseph Robblee and Lydia Robblee. This suggests that he could have been a son of Lydia Robblee, or Joseph Robblee, both offspring of Joseph Robblee and Ann Nelder. I am tentatively placing him as son of Joseph Robblee Jr. Did Joseph have a wife Lydia, possible surname Russell? Harry could just have well been the child of Lydia Robblee. She would have been 24 when he was born; she did not marry James Trefry until 1882, when she was 32.

He was naturalized on 26 Aug 1906. He was then living in Newton, MA.

In 1900, 1910 and 1920, Harry and Amy lived in Newton, MA. In 1930, it appears that Harry and Amy lived in Littleton, MA. However, the census entries are scratched out. Harry came to the US in 1890, and Amy in 1893. Apparently, they had just the one child.

In 1940, Harry and Amy were living in Newton.

He married Amy S. Wickett, 27 May 1896 in Brockton, Plymouth Co., MA,²⁸ b. 1876 in Northam, PEI, Prince Co., Canada (daughter of Frank Wickett and Annie MacKinnon), d. 23 Jun 1943 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,⁶¹ buried in Newton Cem., Newton, Middlesex Co., MA.⁷⁶

They were both 33. There were no children in the home. They continued to live in Littleton in 1940; again, there were no children in the home.

She married George "Leslie" Blood, 1921 in Groton, Middlesex Co., MA,⁸⁸ b. 22 Aug 1896 in Groton, Middlesex Co., MA,^{89,85} (son of George H. Blood and Mary "Emily" Carnahan), d. 1969 in Littleton, Middlesex Co., MA?,⁸⁷ buried in Westlawn Cem., Littleton, Middlesex Co., MA.⁸⁷

68. John Henry Robblee, b. 21 Jul 1862 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,⁹⁵ d. 11 Dec 1926 in Tacoma, Pierce Co., WA,⁹⁶ buried in Mountain View Mem. Park, Lakewood, Pierce Co., WA.⁹⁷ At the time of the 1881 Census, John Robblee was apprenticed to John McRae as a joiner. He became a naturalized citizen of the United States on 29 Oct 1892. At that time, he lived on Webster St., in Newton, MA. John and Margaret removed to Tacoma, WA between 1906 and 1908.

Six of his sons, including John Henry Robblee started a company in Tacoma, WA in 1913 called Six Robblees. This company eventually sold truck parts in five western states.

"Six Robblees' Inc. has been open for business since 1913. Three brothers of varied interests formed the company as J.A. Robblee & Co. in Tacoma, WA. Jim was a sheet metal worker, Bill a locksmith and Herb a bicycle repairman. Although repairing bicycle wheels brought in the majority of their business, by the end of the World War I their experience in tuning bike spokes had been transformed to racing car wheels for drivers of the local Indy car circuit. They had entered the automotive industry.

In 1919 they took on Budd wire wheels and later Budd-Michelin steel disc wheels. Their brother Fred designed and had truck hubs built in Seattle for pneumatic tire conversions. Jim died in 1930 and willed his interest to his six remaining brothers; Bill, Herb, Fred, Ted, Hank and Dick. The company then became Six Robblees' Inc. The locksmithing operation was sold to some nephews in 1948 when Hank and Dick bought out their retiring brothers, Bill, Fred, Herb and Ted.

Dick Robblee started Six Robblees' Inc. of Oregon in Portland in 1940 and worked there until selling to Hank's son, Dave Robblee in Seattle in 1987. Dave Robblee started in 1966 and through the National Wheel and Rim Association (NWRA) expanded the business into custom wheels, installer undercarriage auto parts and a complete line of tire shop supplies and equipment. Dave served as an NWRA trustee, convention chairman and president from 1984 to 1986. Adding to locations already in Seattle, Tacoma and Yakima, the company expanded with branches in Anchorage, AK (1976), Spokane, WA (1977), Billings, MT (1978), Fairbanks, AK (1982), Portland, OR (1987) and purchased Union Rubber Company branches in Oakland, CA (1981) and Rohnert Park, CA (1986).

The 1990's saw additional expansion with a second branch in Anchorage, AK (1991), one in Everett, WA (1994), the purchase of Motor Wheel and Parts of Seattle, WA and Bearing & Rim of Spokane, WA (1992), Dee's Truck Parts in Wasilla, AK (1996), Northwest Wheel in Great Falls, MT (1998), and Montana Wheel in Missoula, MT (1998). In addition, two tire shop supply companies were acquired in Washington; WIM of Kennewick and True Wheel Inc. of Vancouver. The new millennium opened with the purchase of Tech Supply in Eugene, OR (2000) and a new branch in Medford, OR (2001).

Six Robblees' Inc. has grown from a small family business with 3 employees to a small family business with 17 branches in 5 states. Our product offering has expanded to include car, truck and trailer wheels as well as small trailer components, tire shop supplies, equipment and heavy duty parts. We have seen tremendous growth and improvement in product offering and service; preserving the belief - "Customers deserve great service!" We hope you will join with us as we grow in the future.

Ephraim Matthias was from Stormont, ON. According to R. P. Mattice, on the Matthias board on Rootsweb, Ephraim's father William Mattice changed his name to Matthias to maintain ownership of Sybel's father John Croscup lived with them. They continued to live in Broad Cove in 1881.

Judson Robblee lived in Cleveland, OH by 1888, when he was listed in the city directory as a carpenter. According to the 1900 census, he arrived in 1887. At that time, he and Sybel lived in Cleveland with son Albert. In 1910, she lived with daughter Gertrude and husband Edward Spurr in Leonia, Bergen Co., NJ.

Dates on findagrave.com vary from the family Bible - they are 9 Sep 1825 and 20 Aug 1909. His surname is spelled Roblee on his gravestone, as is Sybel's.

139. Lucilla or Zilla Robblee, b. 1 Dec 1830 in Cumberland Co., NS, Canada, d. 29 Jan 1854 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada. There is conflicting information about the wife of James Tuttle. Some source give her name as Zilla Fisher. On the marriage record of daughter Isabella, her parents names are given as Jas. Tuttle and Zilla or Lilla Fisher. I cannot find any other primary record that clarifies. I cannot find a death record for Lucilla/Zilla. James is supposedly buried in the Wallace Bay cemetery with both wives but I cannot find an on-line source for burials in this cemetery.

She married James Tuttle, abt 1848 in NS, Canada, b. 4 Aug 1812 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada (son of William Tuttle and Elizabeth Peers), d. 28 Jun 1890 in Cumberland Co., NS, Canada (prob). James married again, to Eleanor, and had at least 6 more children.

Children:

Isabella Mitchell Tuttle, b. 1 Nov 1850, d. 5 May 1915 in Yonkers, Westchester Co., NY.¹⁵⁹ Is this the Isabella Tuttle who married George Edward Stewart on 6 Feb 1873 in Wallace, Cumberland Co., NS? She was 22 years of age, daughter of James Tuttle and Lilla (?) Fisher. George was 28, born in Malagash. Her father James and wife Eleanor lived in Wallace in 1871; she lived with them.

In 1891, the Stewarts lived in Malagach, Cumberland Co., NS. In 1900, they lived in Franklin, Norfolk Co., MA. In 1910, they lived in Yonkers, Westchester Co., NY.

His death record is also a little confusing, as it gives his mother's names as Henrietta Eagles, which was the name of his first wife.

In 1881, Baldwin and Henrietta lived in Cumberland Co., NS. In 1891 and 1901, Baldwin and Martha lived in Lower Londonderry, NS.

He married (1) Henrietta Eagles, 30 May 1878 in Oxford, Cumberland Co., NS, Canada,⁸ b. abt 1859 in Granville, Annapolis Co., NS, Canada (daughter of Isaiah Eagles), d. bet 1881 - 1891 in Cumberland Co., NS, Canada (prob).

She continued to live there in 1921.

In 1911, Sarah lived with daughter Hannah and husband John W. Duke. She continued to live with them in 1921.

Some sources say that Jonathan was the son of David Robblee (son of Joseph and Jane (Penman) Robblee) and Sophia Fisher.

He married Sarah Elizabeth Price, 10 Apr 1861 in Dundas, Kent Co., NB, Canada,¹⁶² b. 13 Jun 1837 (cal) in Kings Co., NB, Canada,⁵⁵ (daughter of William Price and Sarah Cushing or Cushion), d. 23 Sep 1922 in Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB, Canada,⁵⁵ buried in Elmwood Cem., Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB, Canada.¹⁶¹

Later, she was a nurse in Providence, RI. She did not marry. In 1940, she lived with brother George in Providence, RI.

Thomas Heckford "Heck" Robblee, b. 14 Oct 1872 in Buctouche, Kent Co., NB, Canada,¹⁶⁴ d. 15 Oct 1955 in Pictou, Pictou Co., NS, Canada,³³ buried in Haliburton Cem., Haliburton, Pictou Co., NS, Canada.¹⁶⁵ In 1900, Thomas Robblee and his first wife Cora L. Robblee lived in Yankee Hill, Lancaster Co., NE. They had been married 5 years. There were no children in the home. Thomas was a farmer. His parents' places of birth are given as England and Scotland. Their marriage record, name given as T. H. Robblee, confirms that this is the right Thomas Robblee, as his parents' names are given. His second marriage to Anna Abbott also gives his name as T. H. Robblee, but does not give his parents' names.

Some sources indicate that Thomas married third, Sarah English. After quite a bit of exploration, I do not think this is correct. There was a Bessie English, daughter of John Milton and Sarah English, who married Val Jean Robley in NE and had daughters Cleda, also called Rhodie, and Mabra.

Stella (Kinnear) Robblee grew up in New Brunswick, but in 1900, she lived with her parents in Stoneham, MA. By 1911, the Kinnears had returned to New Brunswick.

In 1921, Thomas and Stella lived in Moncton, NB. Thomas was a pipefitter.

In 1946, Thomas entered the US from Canada at Vasselboro, ME. His entry paperwork indicated that he had previous stays in the US, 1893-1900 in Boston; 1900-1909 in Lincoln,

NE. The intent of his entry was to reside permanently. He was planning to live with his sister-in-law Mrs. Julia Whitcher, in Stoneham, MA.

Hi all

I have a bomb shell for you. I have a partial letter - of course not dated, written by Julia Cora May Duke, my spinster great aunt- Hannah Belle Robblee Duke's daughter. She was born April 21, 1908. In the letter she is talking about how her brother Clarke Wallace Duke was the only one whose given names were not family names " ...and my name for instance Julia (Jule Warman- Will Warman's wife - she was Julia Summers (Cora) Uncle Tom Robblee's second wife - he was married 3 times."

I have in my records that Thomas Heckford Robblee was born October 14, 1872 in Buctouche, Kent County, New Brunswick. His first wife's name at present is unknown and I have no idea if there were any children. The second wife was Cora Summers - again no details yet, and his third wife was Stella Kinniar (sp?) both died at age 96 at Nursing home in Pictou, Nova Scotia.

Have fun with this one!

Debby.

A Reuben Robblee received a grant of land in Western Canada. This Reuben's brother Alexander and his sons did as well, so it seems like that this is the right Rueben. I cannot confirm that he ever took up residence there.

His will reads as follows:

This is the last Will and Testament of Reuben Robblee of lot of township twenty six in Prince County Prince Edward Island Farmer.

I give and devise to my wife Mary Jane Robblee and to my daughter Margaret Sanderson wife of Capt. Robert Sanderson all of my real and personal estate to be divided equally between them share and share alike.

149. Alexander Lang Robblee, b. 10 Nov 1843 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 23 Oct 1922 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,⁷² buried in Tryon People's Cem., Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.²⁴ A History of Carleton, Prince Edward Island, compiled by the Carleton Women's Institute, states that Alex Robblee married first a Miss Edwards and they had five children: Fannie, Jean, Deinstadt, Howard and Charlie. He then married Frances Bell, who was the widow of Nathan Leard. She was the mother of Bertha, Maude and Hattie Leard. Alex and Frances had Albert, Harrison and Penzie. (p. 32).

At the time of the 1881 Canadian Census, Alexander Robblee, age 37 lived in Prince Co, PEI with the following family members: Frances, age 34; Howard, age 12; Bertha, age 10; Hattie, age 8; Maud, age 6 and Albert, age 2. Hattie and Maud were Frances' daughters by her first marriage. In the 1891 census, they are referred to as Hattie and Maud Leard. (see below).

Alexander's other children from his first marriage lived with other families at that time. Dunstadt, age 11, was living with William and Catherine Newsom in Prince Co., PEI. Bob Robblee reports that Jean was living in the home of Alexander Morrison, but I cannot find that, at least in PEI. Fanny was adopted by her uncle Reuben Robblee and his wife Mary Jane. She was in their home in 1881. Where was Charles?

In 1891, Alexander (age 47) and Frances (age 44) lived in Prince Co., PEI. Family members were Howard, age 22; Dunstadt, age 21; Albert N., age 12; Penzie B., age 7; and Harrison, age 4. Also Hattie Leard, age 17 and Maud Leard, age 15. A Charles Robblee, age 18, was a domestic in the household of Nathaniel and Mary Pearson in Prince Co., PEI.

In 1901, only Albert and Penzie remained living with their parents. Alexander L. Robblee received a western land grant in Canada, date unknown. In 1906, he and Fanny and son Albert were living in Assiniboia West, SK. Alexander and Fanny returned to PEI by 1911, but Albert stayed in Saskatchewan. In 1921, Alexander and Francis Robblee were living in Tryon, PEI.

Dienstadt; his parents were Alexander and Sarah. The officiating clergyman was T. Dienstadt.

His marriage record gives his name as Deinsteadt, with "Alexander" written off to the side. His parents are given as Alexander Robblee and Fannie Edwards. In the 1920 census, his name is given as Deinsteadt. In 1930, it is given as D. Harry Roblee. He and Ethel were living in Newton, MA both years. They apparently did not have children. His death record gives his name as Deinsteadt Harry Robblee.

He married Ethel Adelaide MacNeill, 7 Feb 1906 in Newton, Middlesex Co., MA,²⁸ b. abt 1882 in Denver, Denver Co., CO,²⁸ (daughter of Robert MacNeill and Isabelle Marchbank), d. aft 1948 in MA.

George Robblee died from appendicitis. Is he the George Robblee who recieved a Western Land Grant in Canada? Since his father and brothers did, it seems likely.

150. Martha Robblee, b. 6 Feb 1846 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,⁵⁴ d. 1922 in PEI, Canada (prob), buried in Wesmorland Baptist Church, PEI, Canada,¹⁷⁷ resided in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA.

She married George Crew, 1 Jul 1865 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,¹⁷⁰ b. 7 Mar 1845 in Crapaud, Queens Co., PEI, Canada,⁵⁴ (son of Joseph Crewe and Margaret Taylor), d. 1939 in Watertown, Middlesex Co., MA,¹⁷⁸ buried in Westmoreland Baptist Church, Queens Co., PEI, Canada.¹⁷⁷ George Crew(e)'s mother was reportedly a Micmac Indian from St. Peters Island, PEI, Canada.

George and Martha Crewe lived in Prince Co., PEI as late as 1911. In 1923, a year after Martha died, George crossed over into the United States via Vassellboro, ME. In 1930, George, age 85, lived with his son John K. Crewe and family in Andover, Merrimack Co., NH. Reportedly he later went to live with son Denton in Watertown, MA. Following his death, he was buried with his wife Martha in PEI.

Sharon Sargeant related this on the Roblee listserve on 19 Apr 1999:

"Dorothy Tucker b 1918 tells my great aunt in 1990 that "I met our grandfather George Crewe in Watertown, MA when I was about 18 years old (1938) living with his son and wife Uncle Denton and Maude, also their daughter Marjorie. He was in his 90's. He passed away in 1939 and the family brought him back to Westmoreland to be buried with his wife Martha. After grandfather George Crewe passed away I understand that Charles Crewe and Jessie his wife took over the Crewe farm. I also visted the old Crewe farm in Albany. I can't remember the name of the people that live there now, but one of the ladies took me through the old Crewe house (It was pretty run down but I understand it was 100 acres and a beautiful farm at one time). My mother spent a summer with her grandmother when she was 12 years old [Martha Robblee was very sick]. I have a picture of her sitting on a huge wood pile with the barn in the background. a little added information : - George Crewe born 1846 died 1939 93 years old. Martha Robblee born 1847 died 1922 74 years old. Sometime after George and Martha lost a daughter they moved to Albany from Crapaud and had a 100 acre potato farm."

"Joseph Crewe came from England and landed on the south side of Prince Edward Island. He married a MicMac Indian girl (Margaret Taylor from St. Peter's Island, Hillsborough Bay (south side of PEI). Joseph and Margaret started farming in Crapaud, PEI. children: - Henry or Harry - went to NY building boats. George Crew (your grandfather and my great grandfather). Carrie. Mary Jane. Maggie. Louisa. Emma. Joseph Crewe died 1892 born 1812 was 80 years old. Margaret T his wife died 1890 born 1817 was 73years old. After Margaret Taylor Crewe died - Joseph Crewe went to live with his son George and Martha on the farm in Albany, PEI. Joseph was a small man and wore gold earrings in each ears [may have been an English Jew]. (This information is from aunt Francis Crewe (Goff) Gough. She was the youngest child of Martha and George Crewe. She married a rancher (Goff) and lived in British Columbia. She had one son Byron who lives in and around Vancouver, BC. I corresponded with Aunt Fannie up until the time she passed away - several years ago. She used to come on to visit Aunt Mildred (Pratt) in Braintree, MA."

Children:

- 353 i. William Heckford Crew, b. 1867 in PEI, Canada (prob),¹⁷⁷ d. aft 1940 in New York City, NY (prob). In 1910, William and Ellen Crew were living in Manhattan where William was a joiner in the shipbuilding industry. The census indicates that William came to the United States in 1887. He would have been about 20. In 1920 and 1930, they lived in Brooklyn, NY. In 1940, they lived with daughter Martha in New York City.

He married Ellen _____, abt 1890, b. abt 1872 in NY, d. aft 1940 in New York City, NY (prob).

- 354 ii. Sarah Jane Crew, b. Jan 1869 in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada?, d. 23 Aug 1924 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA.⁶¹ James and Sarah Loanes lived in Boston, MA, and had a large family.

She married James Southwick Loanes, 28 Oct 1891 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA,²⁸ b. Sep 1863 in Halifax, Halifax Co., NS, Canada (son of William Loanes and Sarah _____), d. aft 1920 in Boston, Suffolk Co., MA?

- 355 iii. Charles W. Crew, b. 5 Mar 1871/73 in PEI, Canada,¹⁷⁷ d. 9 Jul 1955 in Arlington, Middlesex Co., MA?, buried in Swan Point Cem., Providence, Providence Co., RI.¹⁷⁹ In 1931, Charles Crew was living with his parents in Prince Co., PEI. He was 20 years old. He apparently emigrated to the US shortly after that. The 1930 census indicated that he came to the US in 1891. The 1910 census, when he was living in Boston with wife Jessie A., and daughter Dorothy, gives 1889 for Charles and 1891 for Jessie. Jessie was also born in Canada, about 1868. Dorothy was born in 24 Nov 1901 in Boston. Her parents are given as Charles Crew and Jessie Cameron, both born in PEI. In 1910, Charles and Jessie were living next door to Charles's brother Wiley D. Crew and his wife Lena. Charles and Jessie had been married for 10 years. They must have married in 1900 after the census was taken, as Charles was then single, living in Boston, working as a teamster.

In 1920, they lived in Taunton, MA. In 1930, Charles W. Crew was living in Arlington, MA with his daughter Dorothy and her husband Ernest Sibley.

There was another Charles Crew born in PEI about the same time, the son of Richard Crew. However, they lived in Ontario, and he seems to be accounted for in later Canadian censuses.

Apparently Charles married second, Mabel B. Sobey. I have not been able to verify this marriage.

He married (1) Jessie Ann Cameron, 15 Aug 1900 in Searletown, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,¹⁷² b. 6 May 1866 in Bedeque, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,²⁷ (daughter of William Cameron and Martha Platt), d. 3 Nov 1920 in Taunton, Bristol Co., MA,⁵⁸ buried in Swan Point Cem., Providence, Providence Co., RI.¹⁷⁹

In 1930, John and Laura Crew lived in Andover, NH. John's father George was living with them. John's immigration year is given as 1922.

He married Laura Lizzie Alice Arnett, 25 Dec 1902 in Albany, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,¹⁷² b. 2 Feb 1884 in Albany, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,²⁷ (daughter of James Robert Arnett and Jane "Jennie" MacKay), d. Sep 1971 in PEI, Canada, buried in Searletown United Cem., Searletown, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.¹⁸⁰ "Marriage announcements: Daily Examiner, 12/26/1902, p. 5, Morning Guardian, 12/29/1902, p 7

"Laura Crewe died over Labor Day weekend in 1971 (early Sept) at the age of 88.

She lived in Hopkinton and Grafton, Massachusetts with my grandparents from some time in the 1940s or 1950s until my grandmother died in 1961. Then Laura returned to PEI, and a nursing home which I believe was in Charlottetown. I visited her there in 1970. I do know she went back to Canada because of the benefits for the elderly so I assume that she was still a Canadian citizen. PEI is where she died.

She left John Kitson Varnum $400 in her will - he was named after her husband, probably because he was the first male great grandchild. There may have been no male Crewe grandchildren" (Sharon Sargeant: <http://www.islandregister.com/arnett.html>).

- 357 v. Wiley "Denton" (twin) Crew, b. 3 Aug 1881 in PEI, Canada,¹⁰¹ d. Jul 1977 in Warrenville, Du Page, IL (res).¹⁰¹ In 1910, Wiley D. and Lena Crew were living in Boston. Their years of arrival are given as 1902 and 1901. They were living next door to Wiley's brother Charles. Both men were teamsters. Wiley filed an intent to become a naturalized citizen of the US on 3 Apr 1919.

In 1930, Wiley and Lena were living in Watertown. In 1940, Wiley lived in Watertown with his daughter Marjorie and her husband Robert Santos. Wiley's marital status was given as married, but Lena was not in the home.

She married Horace Greely Gough, bet 1901-1911, b. 18 Jan 1874 in PEI, Canada,¹⁰⁶ (son of Thomas Gough and Euphemia Macsweeny), d. 15 Feb 1951 in Vancouver, BC, Canada,¹⁰⁶ buried in Boundary Bay Cem., Tsawwassen, Greater Vancouver, BC, Canada.¹⁸²

Oct 1849 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada, d. 8 Nov 1923 in Tryon, Prince Co., PEI, Canada,¹⁸³ buried in Peoples' Cem., Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada.¹⁸⁴ In 1900, Thomas and Annie Robblee lived in Cleveland, OH. Their year of arrival in the US was 1899. In 1910, Thomas lived in Cleveland, boarding in the home of Eldra and Ellen Love. In 1920, he lived with daughter Fanny Crocker in Cleveland. Annie also lived in Cleveland, head of a separate household. Both Thomas and Annie gave their status as married. Annie was working as a bookkeeper. Henry and Fanny were living with her.

The death notice for Annie's father's Thomas Robblee does not include her in the list of survivors. This would suggest that she died before 8 Nov 1923, not in 1943. I cannot find her in either the Canadian or the US census.

"PROMINENT AYLESFORD PHYSICIAN PASSES - Dr. C. Seldon Bezanson, prominent valley physician and surgeon, died at his home in Aylesford, yesterday afternoon (Wednesday) following several months illness. Highly regarded as a physician and surgeon, Dr. Bezanson practiced the profession for thirty-five years in Kings County. He was chairman of the Building Committee and was keenly interested in West Kings District High School, Auburn.

During the depression years, Dr. Bezanson introduced the development of cranberry bogs, to give employment to many who were unemployed at that time, in the district. He built and developed three large cranberry bogs, introducing his own flooding system, whereby he tapped the Cornwallis river, passing it through to the Annapolis river. Dr. Bezanson added sprinkler systems and invented and manufactured several new picking machines to speed up crop gathering.

A Conservative in politics, Dr. Bezanson maintained an active interest in provincial and federal government affairs. As a hobby, Dr. Bezanson devoted considerable time to the raising of Samoyede dogs, producing show champions in Canada and the U. S. Dr. Bezanson enjoyed hunting and fishing. He was a great reader especially interested in history as well as current events. For twenty years, until the time of his illness, Dr. Bezanson took an active part in the Annapolis Valley Apple Blossom Festival and was a member of the Festival Committee.

Dr. Bezanson was born sixty years ago in Farmington, Lunenburg County, son of the late William and Annie (Davis) Bezanson. After early schooling in Farmington, he attended and graduated from Mt. Herman College, Mass. He attended Acadia in 1918 and later graduated from Dalhousie University in 1922, with the degree of M.D., C.M.

After practicing six months in Newfoundland, Dr. Bezanson moved to Aylesford, where he practiced the medical profession until the time of his death.

Surviving besides his wife, the former Gwladys Troop, are a sister, Bessie (Mrs. Clarence Veno), Halifax and a brother Arthur E. Bezanson, Berwick. A brother, J. Edwin Bezanson, Yarmouth and a sister Mary Bezanson, Farmington, predeceased him.

from her previous marriage to Levi Langdon Ayers: (1) Florence Ayers (living in 2013), who married Robert Pigott and (2) Charles Ayers (1927-2003).

Martha "Marty" Porter, who is Bill Robblee's step-granddaughter, provided more information about Bill and Ruth Robblee, who lived in Wolfeboro, NH. Ruth married first Levi Langdon Ayers, son of Charles Ayers and Sarah Jane Canney of Tuftonboro, NH. They were married 1 Jun 1927 in Wolfeboro NH and had two children—Charles Herbert Ayers (1927-2003) and Florence (living). Levi died 4 Oct 1961 of colon cancer in the Huggins Hospital in Wolfeboro. Six years later Ruth married William Harris Robblee at her home on Tuftonboro Neck Rd, Tuftonboro, NH. William also died of colon cancer.

At the time William was diagnosed with cancer, Ruth was also in declining in health. Ruth's daughter Florence offered to take both of them into her home. William wanted to remain in his home in Wolfeboro, where the Robblees had moved about 1985. This home was across the street from his step-son Charles Ayers. Ruth moved to Florence's home at that time.

Ruth had a stroke the day before William died, and was unable to attend his funeral in New Hampshire. Marty Porter, her granddaughter, came to stay with her. Florence and her husband travelled to New Hampshire. Ruth lived for only a little over a year after William's death. She died 16 Nov 1988 at Brookmont Nursing Home, Effort (Chestnut Hill Township on death certificate), Monroe County, Pennsylvania.

Ruth, and both of her husbands are buried in Lakeview cemetery, Main St, Wolfeboro, NH.

Marty's memories of Grandpa Bill are of a kind, shy, quiet man who took wonderful care of her grandmother (he would braid her hair and pick her pussywillows). He was meticulous about his tools, keeping them organized and clean. He was always chopping wood. He enjoyed hunting. He enjoyed "a cold one". Marty never heard him raise his voice in her presence. He was a good friend to both sets of Marty's grandparents (maternal and paternal) well before he married into the family.

He was then living in Westwood, MA. In 1910, he lived in Westwood where he was a hired man on a farm. He was still single at that time. The census indicates that he arrived in the US in 1893. He registered for the World War I draft. The date on the draft card is unreadable. He was then a butcher. It appears that he was married by that time. In 1920, he and wife Laura lived in Norwood, MA. Laura was 20 years younger. In 1930, he was back in Westwood, now a boarder in the home of Catherine M. White, age 72. His marital status is given as married, but Laura did not live in the home. She lived in a separate household in Norwood, MA with Avard Jr. and her father Samuel Swett. Her marital status is also given as married. The Robblees apparently divorced, as Laura married later a Mr. Taylor.

328. Mabel Alice Robblee, b. 30 May 1877 in Moncton, Westmorland Co., NB, Canada,²⁹² d. aft 1963 in Warwick, Kent Co., RI?, resided 1963 in 1419 Warrick Ave., Warrick, RI, USA. Miles E. Baldwin married first, Bessie Blanche Martin, in 1892. They had a son Miles Edward Baldwin, born 1893 and a son Blanchard, born 1897, both in Newton, MA. Bessie died one day after Blanchard was born. In 1900, young Miles was living with his grandparents, Hiram and Catherine Ross, in Providence, RI. Catherine was Miles' mother. In 1910, Miles Jr. was living with his father and stepmother in Providence. Blanchard appears in the household for the first time in 1920. I cannot find him in the census before that.

Miles Edward Baldwin, at various times, is called Edward M. Baldwin. He was a jeweler. In 1920, he appears to be counted twice in the census - once with his wife and family in Providence, RI, and once as a patient in the Butler Hospital for the Insane in Providence. In 1925, Mabel Baldwin and son Charles were living in Providence with her daughter Esther and husband Arthur Burke.

"Born in Belmont, New York to Edward and Catherine (Young) Baldwin, Miles Edward - called "Eddie" - moved as a boy with his mother to Sterling, Massachusetts where his mother married Hiram Ross. Hiram was from a farming and horticultural family, and although he was a farmer he sometimes took work in the winter in Newton, Mass. By his early 20's Miles learned some jewelry repair skills and seemed to have a small shop in downtown Newton. He married Nova Scotia native Bessie Blanche Martin in 1892. They had two sons, and Bessie died in 1897. He married, second, Mabel Alice Robblee. They had 7 children, five of whom lived to adulthood. Around 1900 Miles and his new wife, Mabel, stayed for a while in Waterbury, Connecticut, but then moved to Providence. From this time, Miles was a watchmaker." (Diane Boumenot on findagrave.com)

329. Margaret "Maggie" F. Robblee, b. 3 Jul 1870 in PEI, Canada, d. 16 Jun 1903 in PEI, Canada, buried in Summerside, Prince Co., PEI, Canada. In 1901, Maggie (Robblee) Sanderson lived with her parents in Prince Co., PEI, along with Ruby, age 6; and Fern, age 5. She was married at the time, but her husband was not in the home. Maggie, Ruby and Fern are all listed as "daughter" of Ruben Robblee. In 1911, Ruby Sanderson and Fern Robblee were domestics in the household of John and Maryjane Rogers in Summerside, PEI. Maryjane is likely their grandmother Mary Jane (Crew) Robblee and her second husband. Given the 1911 census, and other information, I am inclined to think that only Ruby was Maggie's daughter. I believe Fern was actually Dora Fern Robblee, whose mother was Fannie Robblee. Fannie was adopted by Reuben and Mary Jane Robblee.

She married Robert A. Sanderson, 26 Nov 1891 in Bedeque, Prince Co., PEI, Canada (prob),⁷⁴ b. 1851 in Greenwich, PEI (son of William B. Sanderson), d. bef 1901? in PEI, Canada?

Her marriage record gives her parent as Alexander Robblee and Fannie Edwards. It also gives her name as Fannie Robblee. She was 21 at the time.

It seems that Fanny gave birth to a daughter in 1895, Dora Fern Robblee. Fern was living with Fanny's adoptive parents in 1901. By that time Fannie herself had married and had given birth to another child. She was living in the US. In 1911, Fern was a domestic in Summerside, PEI.

Park, Lakewood, Pierce Co., WA.²¹⁸ "Margaret Mae (Robblee) Patterson "Her children arise and call her blessed" Prov 31:28 On Feb. 4, 2009, with her children at her side, Margaret Mae Patterson passed peacefully from this life to her heavenly home. Margaret was born Feb. 20, 1918 in Tacoma, WA to William A. and Bertha M. Robblee. Margaret lived her entire life in Tacoma, and attended school at Whitman, Stewart and Lincoln, proudly graduating in the Class of 1936. She remained close friends with many of her school "chums" throughout the years. When it appeared her class was going to stop having reunions, she agreed to co-chair the 65th, 70th, and 75th class reunions. Margaret worked as a bookkeeper and secretary following business college. She worked until she met the love of her life, Thomas H. (Pat) Patterson, in 1943. They were engaged 3 months later and were married in November of that same year. Sadly, their marriage ended with Pat's death in 1972. Margaret was a stay-at-home mom, maintaining a meticulous home, helping the PTA, church, friends or family. After her children graduated from high school, she dusted off her bookkeeping skills and went to work for the family business, Robblee's Total Security, Inc. She retired in 1995 at the age of 78. By this time, the business was owned by the third generation, her son John. She loved working for him and with her daughter-in-law Gail, and with her grandchildren Julie and Jim. She said it was time to quit when even the salesmen all started calling her grandma. Following retirement, Margaret traveled extensively. She brought joy to all who knew her, and is remembered for her infectious wit, unflinching memory, constant smile, and her kind and loving heart. Enjoying life to the fullest, she was an example to others in all that she did. She treasured her family and friends, and was always ready to lend a hand. Margaret was active in the 1918 Club and The Old Town Music Society. She was a faithful servant of the Lord and regularly attended United Church in University Place until the time of her recent illness. Left behind to cherish her legacy are her beloved children Jane Hawkins and John Patterson (Gail). She will also be missed by grandchildren Julie Hochsprung (Brock), Jim Patterson (Janie), and John Patterson, and great-grandchildren Matt, Edward, Brandon, Alex, Stella and Hannah, who all delighted her heart. Margaret was devoted to her many nieces, nephews, and extended family members and friends. In addition to her husband, Margaret was preceded in death by her parents, brother William H. Robblee, sister Lois E. McKay, and son-in-law Tom Hawkins. The family wishes to express deep gratitude for the loving and compassionate care given to Margaret at Tacoma General Hospital, Phillip's Cardiac Care Unit by doctors and staff and Dr. Sabrina E Benjamin. Park, Lakewood, Pierce Co., WA.²¹⁸ When Donald Robblee enlisted in the Army Air Corps on 9 Nov 1945, he was single with no dependents. He and Kaye Sumiko were married in Japan. Her original name was given name was Sumiko. Upon her naturalization about 1955, she asked that her name be changed to Kaye Sumiko Robblee.

"Don was born at home in Milton, WA on March 12, 1924. He passed away, June 8, 2012 at home in Tacoma. He was 88 years old. He was baptized in the Presbyterian Church. His mother, Edith Miethke, was born in Fife; her parents were born in Germany. The Miethke family owned a nursery in Milton. His father, Philip Theodore (Ted) Robblee, was one of the Six Robblees. We can trace the Robblee family back to the mid 1700s, Prince Edward Island, Canada. Don had an older brother Ted Jr. who was killed in action in World War II. His younger brother, Jim, lives in Puyallup. Don and Jim were very close; they spoke everyday and saw each other often. Don also has two half sisters Marian-deceased, Marilyn and a half brother Robert Pettinger, of Tacoma. He has many cousins from both his mother's and father's side.

Don served in the United States Air Force 1945-1949 as an airplane crew chief at both McChord AFB and in Japan during the occupation. After his discharge at McChord, he went back to Japan as a civilian to marry Kaye Sumiko. He was in charge of the PX and the base motor pool as an Air Force civilian. After returning to the USA in 1953, they had two children, Kenneth and Jennifer.

Donald worked for 35 years as lead mechanic at Boeing; working on military aircraft such as the B-52, as well as the 707, 727, 737 and 747 passenger jets. He also had the privilege of working on several Air Force One presidential aircraft. Don was named Boeing Employee of the Month for May 1978. He also received several other commendations during his tenure.

After retirement he traveled by motor home along the west coast and cared for his wife, Kaye. They were married for 46 years until her passing in 1997. Don also enjoyed running errands for Ken's business, always eager to help. In his later years, after Kaye passed away, he spent a lot of time with his brother Jim, cousins, and walking his dog, Maggie. Ken especially enjoyed the frequent lengthy conversations with his dad during his last year. Don enjoyed hearing about his grandchildren and coming to watch their events. He enjoyed going to the Tacoma AM-VETS club, and frequented 2 local taverns to feel more youthful by being around younger people. He made friends easily and enjoyed telling stories. He had a happy disposition. He was kind, generous, and friendly and didn't let things worry him. He was a great dad, grandfather, brother and friend."

418. John "David" Robblee, b. 1 Mar 1940 in Tacoma, Pierce Co., WA,¹¹⁵ d. 16 Apr 2014 in Kirkland, King Co., WA,³¹⁸ buried in Sunset Hills Memorial Park, Bellevue, King Co., WA.³¹⁹ "Jackie Neese and I were married right after her graduation from UW. We went to Thailand in 1963 for three years to serve as houseparents and teachers in schools for Missionary Children whose parents were working out in "the bush". We returned in 66 and had a baby boy -Tim, who now is director of Bands at WSU. Jackie died of chemical complications from child birth in 1968 and is greatly missed. She was a wonderful girl, wife and mother. " (Dave Robblee on Roosevelt High School Class of 1958 webpage)

"In Memory of Jackie Neese Robblee
By Carolyn Roberts Niva

Jackie and I were the best of friends from 7th grade until the time of her death. At Eckstein and Roosevelt we did Girl Scouts, Job Daughters, and school committees together. We did overnights, long phone conversations, cooking and sewing projects, and of course, competing for grades. But she always won with straight A's. We joined University Presbyterian Church together while we were juniors in high school. When Jackie and Dave started dating, our families would seat the three of us on the same side of the table because we were all left-handed.

During our four years at the UW, Jackie and I saw each other or talked daily - we even sat together at commencement in June 1962.

In 1966 my husband John (Niva) and I traveled "low budget" around the world. Staying with Jackie and Dave in Chiang Mai, Thailand was one of our fondest memories. Jackie met us at the Bangkok airport and together we traveled 17 hours north by 2nd class train. The people in front of us had chickens in crates under their train seats - vendors sold "interesting food" through the train windows at each stop. We left Thailand a few days before Jackie and Dave because they had been invited to a farewell tea with the King and Queen of Thailand. We met up again in Agra, India and proceeded to travel together through Iran, the Middle East, and Italy. These are memories of a lifetime.

I remember clearly the joy of Tim Robblee's birth and then the anguish of Jackie's illness in the months to follow. There are medical answers, but not spiritual answers why Jackie died so young. Jackie's life ended in a tragic way, but that is not the end of the story. Three years later, Dave met Anne and have raised a beautiful family. We continue to be close friends. They were close to me during John's illness and death. Just yesterday my oldest son, Brad, was talking with an employee of Six Robblees, Inc. and told him, "I grew up feeling that Dave Robblee was almost my uncle, our families did so many things together." "Whitworth Trustee J. David "Dave" Robblee, '62, lost a courageous battle with cancer on the morning of April 6, 2014, passing peacefully in his sleep. A celebration of his life will be held this Saturday at Newport Covenant Church in Bellevue, Wash., at 2 p.m.

"Dave Robblee embodied what it meant to be a faithful Whitworthian," says Whitworth President Beck A. Taylor. "His generosity of spirit, his willingness to give of his time and resources, and his heart for serving students made him a great alumnus and trustee."

A former teacher who performed service work in Thailand in the 1960s, David Robblee was the owner of Six Robblees', Inc., a trucking-parts supplier and distributor in Seattle. In addition to being a business owner, Robblee volunteered for organizations such as Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the Seattle Yacht Club, Bridge Ministries for Disability Concerns, the Boy Scouts and Newport Covenant Church. Most recently, he worked with Bread of Life of Seattle (a rescue mission) and World Vision. Robblee and his wife, Anne, have three children, all Whitworth alums. In his free time, Robblee enjoyed boating, golfing and hiking.

David earned his B.A. in music education from Whitworth in 1962 and joined its board of trustees in October of 1983, serving on the Buildings and Grounds Subcommittee, the Endowment Subcommittee and the Finance and Administration Committee during his 31-year tenure as a trustee.

"Dave reminded all who were near him of the joy of life. We will miss him terribly, but we rejoice that he has found eternal rest with his Savior. Our prayers extend to the entire Robblee family, and to all of those who knew and love Dave," Taylor says. (<http://news.whitworth.edu/2014/04/whitworth-loses-longtime-trustee-dave.html>)

"John David "Dave" Robblee of Seattle passed away peacefully at home in Kirkland on Sunday, April 6, 2014. He struggled with cancer during the past year and a half, and spent his remaining time at home in the care and company of his family and friends.

Dave is survived by his wife Anne, and their three children: Tim Robblee and his wife Carolyn of Chicago; Andy Robblee and his wife Michelle of Newcastle; and Beth Soderlund and her husband Aaron of Woodinville. He was very close and devoted to his four grandchildren: Jessica, Jacob, Nathan, and Josh.

He was born in Tacoma on March 1, 1940 and adopted by John Henry and Florence Robblee on July 22nd. He grew up in Seattle as the second eldest of six children, the first four likewise having been adopted. Dave graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1958, and Whitworth College with a degree in music education in 1962. He married Jacqueline Neese in June of that year, and after teaching music for a year in the Shoreline School District, moved to Chiang Mai, Thailand to teach at the Presbyterian Mission School. Jacqueline died in 1968. Dave married Anne Pringle in November of 1970 and they raised their three children in Seattle and Bellevue.

Dave joined Six Robblees' Inc., a trucking-parts distributor and supplier based in Seattle, in 1966. He worked first as sales manager, became President in 1976, and held this role until 2000. During this time, Six Robblees' grew from three branch stores within Washington to over fifteen within the five northwestern states. Through his leadership, Six Robblees' became active members in Heavy Duty America Truck Pride (HDATP) and Ascot Tire Supply. In addition, Dave served a term as president of the National Wheel and Rim Association from 1985-1986.

In addition to being a business owner and employer, Dave was dedicated to Christian service and volunteered for numerous organizations. In retirement, he valued working with World Vision's micro-enterprise projects and was able to travel to observe the impact of these projects in communities throughout the world. He also was active at the Bread of Life Mission in Seattle, for which he served as chairman of the Board of Directors. Previously, he was active in such organizations as Young Life, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Bridge Ministries for Disability Concerns, the Boy Scouts, and Newport Covenant Church. He served on the board of Trustees for Whitworth University from 1983 until his death. In his free time, he enjoyed membership in the Rainier Golf and Country Club and Seattle Yacht Club."

"The Refrigeration School was founded in Phoenix, Arizona in 1965 as Modern School of Refrigeration. Its original location was at 3216 E. Washington in the historic industrial area of Phoenix. The school changed its name to The Refrigeration School, Inc. in June of 1970, and in 1982 the school relocated to its current location at 4210 E. Washington Street.

In June of 1999, Ola Lee Loney, the previous President and founder, retired and transferred her interest to her family members, Edwin Loney, Jr. and Elizabeth Loney-Cline. In December of 2007, Ms. Loney-Cline affected a repurchase by the corporation of Mr. Loney's interest, leaving her as the sole owner of the school. On November 17, 2009, the School was purchased by its current owners, Tulsa Welding School, Inc.

The National Association of Trade and Technical Schools (NATTS) originally accredited the school in July of 1973. NATTS went through a series of name changes, and is currently known as the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges (ACCSC). The Refrigeration School continues to be accredited by ACCSC.

The Refrigeration School was established to train entry-level Heating, Ventilation, Air Conditioning, and Refrigeration (HVAC/R) technicians. The Refrigeration School added the Electrical Technologies and Electro-Mechanical Technologies courses in 1986 and 1987 respectively, to respond to the growing demand for entry-level electricians and facility maintenance technicians. 510. Juanita Frances Robblee, b. 23 Apr 1914 in Butte Co., CA,²¹¹ d. 19 Jul 1981 in Alameda Co., CA.⁹² In 1940, Richard and Juanita Hoyt lived in Houston, TX. There were two children in the home: Richard L. Hoyt, age 6 and Suanne Hoyt, age 2. Both were born in Texas. These two children were apparently adopted by Juanita's second husband Duane Dodge, as they have birth certificates under the name of Dodge showing their parents as Juanita and Duane.

Kathleen was born in 1942. She is not mentioned in Richard Hoyt's detailed obituary. Since Juanita did not marry Duane Dodge until 1965, it is not clear who her father was. Like the other children, her parents are given as Duane and Juanita. But, she could well have been adopted by her step-father Duane as well.

Richard Hoyt enlisted in the US Army in 1941, and had a long career in the military. It is not clear when Richard and Juanita divorced, but he married his second wife Violet Marie Keith on 16 Aug 1949 in Harris Co., TX. Richard and Suanne are listed as survivors in his obituary as Dr. Richard Dodge-Hoyt of Gulfport, Miss., Mrs. Suanne Demo of Henderson, Nev.

Juanita has a third marriage to Eugene Solus, but her death record is under the name Juanita Dodge.

She married (1) Richard Lorraine Hoyt, bef 1940, b. 20 Jun 1911 in Harris Co., TX,³⁴⁶ (son of John Franklin Hoyt and Susie Ella Hall), d. 5 Sep 2005 in Washington Co., AR, buried in Fayetteville National Cem., Fayetteville, Washington Co., AR.³⁴⁷ "Retired U.S. Army Captain Richard L. Hoyt Sr. died after a long and eventful life. "Dick," as he was known, was born to John Franklin and Susie Ella (Hall) Hoyt.

His military career commenced with a private military boys school in Portland, Ore., in 1925. At 15, he joined the Oregon National Guard, and at 16, he joined the U.S. Navy, where he was a radio operator. He also served one enlistment in the U.S. Coast Guard from 1936-39 and joined the U.S. Army in 1940, from which he retired in 1960 and settled in Fayetteville. Between enlistments, he served in the National Guard of Arizona, California, and Texas.

In 1970, he founded an association of former members of his World War II army unit, the 11 th Airborne Division, which fought in New Guinea and the Philippines. They were the first American troops to land in Japan after the end of World War II. The association has 4,000 living members and 16 chapters across the United States. He also founded the 11 th Airborne newspaper, The Voice of the Angels, serving as editor of the paper for more than 20 years, and was Webmaster of the association's Web site until his death. They hold annual reunions in various locations. Dick was a paratrooper and a glider-trooper. He earned his first Campaign Medal (Second Nicaraguan Campaign) in 1930, where he was a Navy radio operator assigned to the Marine Landing Force that landed at Corinto, Nicaragua, to protect American lives and property during a revolution there. In World War II, several more campaigns followed, and he received the Army Commendation Medal for rescuing fellow troopers from a fatal glider crash, in which he was also severely injured.

After retirement from the Army, Dick took advantage of the G. I. Bill and started college at the University of Arkansas as a 49-year-old freshman, majoring in business administration, which was of considerable help when he and his wife, Violet, opened their restaurant, Suzie Wong's Rice Bowl, which they operated from 1963-85.

At the same time, Dick became a police officer, first as a deputy with the Washington County Sheriff's Department and later with the Johnson Police Department. He retired from the Johnson Police Department in 1985 as chief of police.

Using his experience as military police and local law enforcement, he established the private investigation firm of Sequoyah Investigations.

Dick was a member of the Sequoyah Kiwanis Club for 25 years, served as Civil Defense Director of Washington County 1961-63 and was a member of the Arkansas Restaurant Hospitality Board of Directors for several years.

He was a 32nd degree Mason and a member of the Scimitar Temple Shriners of Little Rock from 1970. He was a Shrine Clown for more than 30 years and participated in all the parades in Northwest Arkansas and entertained at schools and hospitals. He also was awarded the honor of "oldest" Shrine Clown in the region and nation for many years.

Dick participated each year for the last several years in the Senior Olympics in Harrison and at least one year in the national event. He won several gold, bronze and silver medals in his competitions.

He was a supporter of the Fayetteville Senior Citizens Center and the Fayetteville Public Library. He was a member of the Razorback chapter of the Good Sam's motor home club and was an avid ham radio operator, holding the call sign "W5 RIT," and he enjoyed "county hunting." Thanks to his extensive genealogy research, he was able to discover many links to the family's history. He was proud of his family, the police, and the military and could remember every detail of every story from 90 years ago. We won't forget him, either.

He was preceded by his wife, Violet; and one brother; Clifford Hoyt. He is survived by seven children, Dr. Richard Dodge-Hoyt of Gulfport, Miss., Mrs. Suanne Demo of Henderson, Nev., Don Allen Hoyt of Litchfield Mich., Gerald Hoyt of New Orleans, Mrs. Sue Ella Harmeier of Tomball, Texas, Richard L. "Rick" Hoyt Jr. of Fayetteville, and John Hoyt of Easley, S. C.; one brother, Elmer "Tiny" Hoyt of East Bernard, Texas; three sisters, Lilydee Grothe of Houston, Ellen Darnell of Splendora, Texas, and Sarah Taylor of Grangerland, Texas; 16 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; and 10 great-great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Dallas Hoyt, Jared Hoyt, Jackson Hoyt, Michael Benson, Washington County Sheriff Tim Helder and Johnson Police Chief Vernon Sisemore. Honorary pallbearers will be the Northwest Arkansas Shrine Clowns, all area police officers, Eldon Roberts, Ron Johnson, members of the 11th Airborne Association and Fayetteville Police Chief Frank Johnson."

He is survived by a son in Thunder Bay and a daughter in Kakabeka Falls, a daughter in Ottawa, a daughter in Bobcaygeon, a grandson in Upsala and a granddaughter in Thunder Bay and their respective families, as well as a great granddaughter in Kakabeka Falls, two brothers and their families in Western Canada and many friends and extended family across the country.

Dad served in the Canadian Air Force from 1941-1945 and then transferred to the Reserves until retiring as a Warrant Officer 1st Class. He was never idle and was hard working all his life and enjoyed many projects in his garage and green house. Dad had a sharp mind for inventing and we'll remember his great sense of humour. Philip enjoyed having his family and friends close by. He was very community minded, was a member of the Masonic Lodge, and in retirement, lived his dream until his health failed.

- 1041 v. Sylvia Phebe Ida Moore, b. 25 Aug 1907 in Charlton, Worcester Co., MA,²⁸ d. 1 May 1999 in Sebastian, Indian River Co., FL (res).¹⁰¹ In 1930, Sylvia's 4 year old daughter Beverly Virden lived with Sylvia's parents in Detroit, MI. Beverly was born in Michigan. At that time, Morris Virden was lived Paul and Ruth Virden; Sylvia was not in the home. He was married. I cannot find Sylvia in the 1930 census.

In 1940, Morris Virden lived in Detroit; he was divorced. He married again in 1941.

She married (1) Maurice or Morris Virden, 10 Dec 1924 in Detroit, Wayne Co., MI,³⁷⁰ b. 29 Mar 1899 in Dyer, Gibson Co., TN,⁸⁹ (son of Isaac Virden and Molly Woshem).

She married (2) Ray Brooks, 14 Aug 1935 in Detroit, Wayne Co., MI,⁴¹⁰ b. abt 1911 in East Liverpool, Columbiana Co., OH (son of John Brooks and Myrtle Troddle).

She married (3) John Frederick Robley, 25 Nov 1944 in Sebring, Highlands Co., FL,³⁷¹ b. 20 Apr 1911 in Steelton, Algoma Co., ON, Canada,¹⁰² (son of Robert A. C. Robblee or Robley [1877 - 1936] and Emma Emily Lila Gerow [1885 - 1972]), d. 18 Jun 1997 in Sebastian, Indian River Co., FL (res).^{101,111} The name as given on his birth record is John Frederick Robblee.

John's first marriage to Janet Stewart was short-lived. They both married again in 1944. John Robley and his second wife Sylvia Moore were first cousins.

- 1042 vi. George Victor Moore, b. 7 Aug 1914 in Detroit, Wayne Co., MI,³⁷² d. 30 Apr 1993 in Commerce, Oakland Co., MI,⁴¹³ buried in Milford Memorial Cem., Milford, Oakland Co., MI.⁴⁰⁶ In 1940, George and Marion Moore lived in Detroit. Next door was the family of Mary Delores Jeffers, whom George would later marry. Delores was 18.

He married (1) Marion E. Gethicker, 23 Nov 1935 in Mt. Clemens, Macomb Co., MI,⁴¹⁰ b. abt 1914 in Flint, Genesee Co., MI (daughter of John Getchicker and Bessie Wilson), d. in Detroit, Wayne Co., MI. Her name is clearly spelled Getchicker on her marriage record, but this is probably incorrect. In the 1930 census, it looks like Gethicker. Other records use this spelling; I am inclined to think this is the correct spelling.

He married (2) Mary Dolores Jeffers, 26 Oct 1946 in Steuben Co., IN,⁴⁰⁸ b. 31 Mar 1922 in Nashville, Davidson Co., TN,⁴⁰⁸ (daughter of Otis Jeffers and Maureen Elizabeth Mince), d. 16 Mar 2007 in Milford, Oakland Co., MI (prob),⁴⁰⁶ buried in Milford Memorial Cem., Milford, Oakland Co., MI.⁴⁰⁶

614. Robert A. C. Robblee or Robley, b. 16 Jan 1877 in Acadia Mines, Colchester, NS, Canada,³⁴ d. 22 Jun 1936 in Detroit, Wayne Co., MI.³⁷³ The birth record for Robert and Emily's eldest child John Frederick gives the surname as Robblee and his name as Robert Albro. His marriage record to Emily gives his middle name as Chisholm. So, was his name Robert Albro Chisholm Robblee/Robley?

In 1930, Robert and "Emily" Robley lived in Detroit, MI with their six children. Their year of immigration to the US is given as 1922. I cannot find Robert in earlier census, either in Canada or the US. Earlier records give his name as Robblee, but the 1930 census and his death record give it as Robley. Emma Robley was naturalized in Detroit in 1947.

I cannot verify Sydney and Oscar as children of Robert and Maude.

He married (1) Maud Mae McTaggart, 26 Sep 1897 in Great Village, Colchester Co., NS, Canada,⁸ b. abt 1878 in Sydney, Cape Breton, NS, Canada,⁸ (daughter of Archibald McTaggart and Sarah Miner).

John's first marriage to Janet Stewart was short-lived. They both married again in 1944. John Robley and his second wife Sylvia Moore were first cousins.

Bernice was born in Southbridge the daughter of Ide L. and Elizabeth C. (Callahan) Robblee. She leaves a close friend, Madelene Y. Proulx of Southbridge along with many other close friends. Bernice was a Sergeant in the US Army during World War II, serving in North Africa. A professionally trained singer, she also entertained the troops as part of her service in the Army.

Bernice was an office clerk at Westover Air Force Base in Chicopee for 23 years, retiring in 1974. She was an active member of St. Mary's Church in Southbridge, serving as a lector, a Eucharistic Minister and sang in the church choir. She enjoyed many years of summering on Little Alum Lake in Brimfield.

Many thanks go out to the staff of the Quaboag Rehab and Skilled Care Center for the extraordinary care and attention they gave to Bernice. 617. Freda Elizabeth Robblee, b. 15 Sep 1893 in Londonderry, Colchester Co., NS, Canada, d. 14 Mar 1926 in Trois-Rivières, QC, Canada,⁴⁰⁴ buried in Trois-Rivières, QC, Canada. In 1921, William and Freda Perrot lived in the Cité Des Trois-Rivieres in Quebec. William's sister Adelle lived with them.

An earlier version of this file included another spouse for Freda, a Mr. Gass, and two children, Gordon Gass who died at age 91, and George Gass, born about 1911. However, in 1911 Freda was 17 years old and living with her parents in Londonderry, NS. She married William Perrot in 1914, had a son in 1915 and died in 1926. Given this, there does not seem to be room in her life for another spouse and two children. Therefore, I do not include them here.

She married William Claude Perrot, 28 Oct 1914 in Great Village, Colchester Co., NS, Canada,⁸ b. abt 1893 in Westchester Stn., Cumberland Co., NS, Canada (son of Lemuel Perrot and Margaret Jane Graydon).

622. Lucy Bell Robblee, b. 12 Nov 1881 in Providence, Providence Co., RI,¹⁹⁸ d. Mar 1965 in Providence, Providence Co., RI (prob).¹⁰¹ William and Lucy lived in Providence, RI. In 1910, the household included their immediate family. In 1920, Lucy's father Hugh Robblee and her brothers Harry and Fred lived with them. In 1925, Lucy was now head of household, as a widow. Besides her children, her father and brother Harry lived with her, as they did in 1930. By 1940, her father and brother lived with her, as well as her 2 daughters. She apparently continued to live in Providence until she died. In the 1962 city directory for Providence, Lucy, Dorothy and Flora are all listed at the same address.

She married William Hubbard, 5 Aug 1902 in Providence, Providence Co., RI,¹⁹⁸ b. abt 1880 in Providence, Providence Co., RI (prob) (son of George E. Hubbard and Flora Carmichael), d. 10 Nov 1923 in Providence, Providence Co., RI.⁶⁹

By 1920, Paluel was married to his second wife, Dorothy.

"Catholic Medical Mission Board's inception dates to 1912 and the dream of Dr. Paluel Joseph Flagg, a young anesthesiology resident on the staff of St. Vincent's Hospital in New York City. Dr. Flagg's dream of assisting missionaries destined for medical work in foreign lands was spurred by a visit to the Caribbean. Struck by the poverty and illness which victims of Hansen's disease (leprosy) suffered, he became a spokesperson for "the destitute."

Other like-minded individuals joined Dr. Flagg in his mission endeavor. Monsignor Joseph McGlinchley, Director of the Propagation of the Faith in the Catholic Archdiocese of Boston and Father Frank Thill, Secretary of the Catholic Student's Mission Crusade in Cincinnati became early proponents for the establishment of medical missions. They encouraged superiors of mission congregations, doctors and nurses to support the recently established American missions in India and China.

By 1922 Dr. Flagg with the encouragement and blessing of Father Charles Moulinier, SJ, founder and first President of the Catholic Hospital Associate (CHA), established the formal Medical Mission Committee of the CHA. The Committee's goals included the establishment, provision and staffing of medical missions at home and abroad.

The success of the Medical Mission Committee was evident by 1928 when its members requested permission to assume independent control of the program. In February 1928 Catholic Medical Mission Board was incorporated in the state of New York." (<http://cmmb.org/dr-paluel-joseph-flagg>).

Children:

- 1059 i. Virginia Marie Flagg, b. 8 Oct 1912 in Yonkers, Westchester Co., NY, d. 26 Jan 2011 in Ossining, Westchester Co, NY,¹⁰¹ buried in Maryknoll Sisters Congregation Cem., Ossining, NY.³⁷⁶ "CMMB [Catholic Medical Mission Board] honors the memory of Sister Virginia Flagg, daughter of our founder, Dr. Paluel Flagg. Sister Virginia was a Maryknoll nun who passed away last week at the age of 98. We, at CMMB, knew her well and in her, we saw her father, for Sister Virginia – like him – devoted herself to toiling in the vineyards of the underserved both in the United States and throughout the world.

Sister Virginia Marie Flagg died unexpectedly from heart failure on January 26, 2011 in Maryknoll Residential Care IV. She was 98 years old and had been a Maryknoll Sister for 80 years.

Virginia Marie was born on October 8, 1912 in Yonkers, NY to Stella Robblee Flagg and Dr. Paluel J. Flagg. Her mother died not long after her birth and her father remarried to Dorothy Flagg had 11 more children, eight boys and 3 girls. Her father, step-mother and six brothers have predeceased her. In 1913 her father, who knew the Maryknoll Fathers and Sisters, was the founder of a group that became the Catholic Medical Mission Board, with the purpose of providing medical practitioners and supplies to the missions.

Virginia attended St. Vincent's Academy in New York City graduating in 1929. She studied at Mt. St. Vincent College in Riverdale, NY for one year. She returned there from 1932-'35 and received an A.B. in English. She later received an M.A. in Education, major in Administration and Supervision from St. John's University in Jamaica, NY in 1971.

Virginia entered the Maryknoll Sisters on August 4, 1930 from St. Denis parish in Yonkers, NY. She received the religious name Sister Stella Marie. She made her First Profession of Vows on January 6, 1933 at the Maryknoll Sisters Center in Ossining, NY and her Final Profession on the same date in 1936 in Korea.

Sister Virginia was assigned to Manchuria in 1935. She taught grade 8 in Darien. Manchuria was occupied by the Japanese and the Sisters were interned in one of their convents in Darien at the outbreak of WWII for 9 months after which they were transferred by ship to Shanghai, China. After almost a year, they were sent on a Japanese ship to India where they exchanged ships with Japanese war prisoners returning to their own country. She was one of 11 Maryknoll Sisters aboard the M.S. Gripsholm who returned to the U.S. in December of 1943.

Sister Virginia was assigned to Hawaii in 1944 where she taught grade 5 in Maryknoll schools in Waikiki until 1950 and then in Punahou until 1954, both in Honolulu. She was then assigned to Transfiguration School in Chinatown, NYC in 1954 and served as Superior and Principal there from 1955-'58. In 1958 she was assigned to Hong Kong where she was Superior and taught in Maryknoll Convent School in Kowloontong for two years, then served as Superior and Principal of the Grade School first and after that of the High School in the Maryknoll Sisters School in Blue Pool Road, Hong Kong until 1970.

After her M.A. studies, Sister Virginia became the Director of Continuing Education at the Maryknoll Center from 1971-'73, and concurrently the Dean of Students at Rogers College 1972-'74. Assigned to California in 1974, she served first as Assistant Coordinator and then as Coordinator of the Maryknoll Sisters Retirement Community in Monrovia until 1980. She became the Director of Activities for the Maryknoll Sisters Nursing Home from 1981-'84. After a year's stint in the Treasury Department, she served as Coordinator of the Center Council from 1985-'88. She served in Special Service for the Elderly and Disabled for the nursing home from 1989-'94. In her retiring years, she has engaged in various volunteer activities around the Sisters Center. She remained active in her later years, teaching mini-classes in water coloring, writing poetry, taking part in a daily exercise group and playing bridge.

In the last few months, failing health required that Sister Virginia be admitted to Maryknoll Residential Care IV to better take care of her health needs and resided there until her death.

She is survived by her sisters, Mrs. Jane Duell, Mrs. Maryanne Gassner and Mrs. Dorothy Webster all of Vinal Haven, Maine, and two brothers, Noel M. Flagg of Scarsdale, New York and Thomas Flagg of Fairfield Glades, Tennessee and other relatives.

We here at CMMB send our prayers and condolences to the Flagg family. You may also make a donation in her memory." (<http://www.cmmb.org/memorial-sister-virginia-flagg>).

The bride who was given in marriage by her father was most attractively attired in a pretty afternoon frock of blue silk crepe, and wore a corsage of pink roses. Bride and groom were unattended, and only the immediate families were present.

The rooms were prettily decorated with fragrant garden flowers and a delicious repast was served at five o'clock. The table was centered with the handsome three-tier wedding cake with tall harmonizing tapers.

"Margaret Ida (Peggy) Robblee, dearly loved mother of Jim (Wendy), Neil (Sue), Jean and Nancy (Rob), died peacefully in Edmonton on January 26th, 2012 at age 94 with Neil at her bedside, the others there in spirit. Born Peggy Tredger, eldest daughter of Cecil and Florence Elizabeth Tredger, she grew up in Edmonton with her brothers, Cecil (Enid) and Joe (Marion), and her sister, Ruth (Bruce). After receiving her BSc in Household Economics from the University of Alberta, and subsequently, her Dietetics qualification, Peggy worked in the Provincial Lab and taught lab courses to science students. One of those lucky students was Alex Robblee, whom she later married (Peg gave Alex a B in the course, his lowest mark ever). It was the beginning of a 62-year romance full of joy and gentle civility, which they displayed with remarkable consistency for their whole lives. Alex died on Boxing Day, 2004.

Besides being an outstanding wife, mother and cook, Peggy was proficient at every form of art she tried. She painted, quilted, sewed, knitted, silver-smithed and more. She was a life-long and voracious reader, a clever bridge player and an avid gardener. She volunteered with many organizations, was a member of the University Women's Club, the Dietetics Association and the Alberta Home Economics Association. She was an amazing mother and she was wonderful with her grandchildren, of whom she had 11: Jim and Susie's two children, Paula and Peter; Neil and Susan's four boys, David (who, heart-breakingly, died at age two), Colin, Spencer, and Ian; and Neil and Sue's son, Jim; Jean and Rod's two children, Dory and Ned; and Nancy and Rob's two children, David and Michelle. She also boasted four great-grandchildren: Susana and Alex, children of Paula and Miguel; and Leia and Isla, children of Colin and Vanlee.

Peggy was a quiet, darling person. Never small-minded, always reasonable, she taught her children to practice "moderation in all things." She demonstrated all the best qualities of a good and loyal Canadian. She will be greatly, sadly, lovingly and forever missed by her children, her grandchildren, her great-grandchildren and all who knew her.

In lieu of flowers, do an act of kindness for someone who needs help, plant a flower in a neglected garden, and make peace with all around you. A Celebration of Peggy's Life will be held on Sunday, February 12, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. at the Derrick Golf & Winter Club, 3500 - 119 Street N.W., Edmonton."

ROBLEE, LEONARD FOSTER - of Dartmouth, A kind and generous heart stopped beating on Friday, December 9, 2016 when Foster passed away at the age of 95. Born in Springhill, Nova Scotia on October 28, 1921, he was the son of the late Leonard and Myrtle (Patriquin) Roblee. When he was a young child, the family moved to Springville, Pictou County, and later to nearby Irish Mountain where he grew up and worked with his father on the farm. As a boy, Foster played hockey and baseball - he remembered his mother making a ball uniform for him by hand from bleached flour bags. As a young man, he lived in Stellarton and operated Roblee's Taxi, then moved to Toronto and Hamilton to work, but returned to Nova Scotia in the early 1950's. His love of automobiles led to a career in various aspects of the industry, running a service station, driving transport, and eventually becoming a partsman for General Motors from which he retired in 1980. Foster was a friendly, well-respected man who will be remembered for the endless jokes and stories he loved to tell. He enjoyed spending time with his friends and family. For many years the family spent summers at Sherwood Forest Camping Park. In retirement he and his wife travelled widely – three times across Canada and into the United States, including a Hawaiian cruise. They also visited Germany, Austria, Bermuda and Barbados. He was a devoted fan of the Toronto Blue Jays. As his vision failed, he would listen on the radio to every game and always enjoyed a conversation about the team and the players. Foster is survived and sadly missed by his loving wife of fifty-four years, Ruth (Harvie) Roblee; son Len, Hamilton Ontario; daughter Sharon (John) Webber, Eastern Passage. He is also survived by grandson, David (Leslie) Webber; three granddaughters; Karen (Bill) Brown; Jeanne (John Galbraith) Webber, and Heather (Jim) MacLeod, and six great grandchildren: Matthew and Jacob Webber, Cameron and Cooper Brown, and Raylene and Janel MacLeod. Besides his parents, Foster was predeceased by his first wife, Jean (MacDonald) Roblee in 1954, and as the last surviving member of his family, was also predeceased by his three brothers, Austin, Lawrence, and Aubrey, and one sister, Mildred. Cremation has taken place and a private service will be held in the spring at the Woodlawn Cemetery in Dartmouth. The family would like to thank the staff at the Dartmouth General Hospital, Camp Hill Veterans' Memorial, the Ivy Meadows in Beaver Bank, the nurses and doctors at Cobequid Community Health Center who showed such compassion, and especially their friends at The Linden for their kindness and support during the past months. In Foster's memory, donations may be made to a charity of your choice.
